Flat Tire Touches Off 200-Car Collision

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP)—A woman motorist pulled off the fog-bound Santa Ana Freeway with a flat tire and 200 swerving cars piled up — one of the biggest chain collisions in California history.

A Roman Catholic nun was killed and 50 other persons hurt.

Sixty of the cars were total wrecks, police said.

The freeway, part of a main north-bound state artery, was tied up for three hours along a 12-mile stretch.

Off duty Sheriff's Deputy Robert W. Bollong, 36, one of the motorists involved, said he was southbound and visibility was "nil" when he suddenly noticed a car in front of him drifting backwards. Then, he said:

"I hit the car and then I got hit twice. I stopped, got some flares and ran back to place them.

"From then on you could just hear the crashes up the freeway—boom. boom, boom, all the way down the line."

A mile behind Bollong's car, Sister Mary Refuge, 28, was riding in the back seat of a sedan. Two other nuns of the St. Francis Home of Santa Ana were in front.

Truck driver Burton L. McAllister, 44, of Garden Grove, Calif., said he was driving behind them when suddenly the nun's car spun sideways and hit another car. His truck crashed the nun's car broadside.

Capt. Floyd Winchell, a California Highway Patrol officer for 33 years, said:

"This chain reaction of crashes is perhaps the worst in the history of the freeways in California in terms of cars wrecked."

The woman motorist who started it was not identified.

Warm Tributes Paid To Former SC Leader

PENHOLD, Alta. (CP)—Robert Thompson, national Social Credit party leader, said here the death of Solon Low removes from "the Canadian scene one of Canada's most dedicated public servants."

Mr. Thompson said at his home in this central Alberta town that he had known Mr. Low for 27 years and was "personally sorrowful at the passing of one of the great Canadians of our day."

Mr. Thompson added:

"Whether in his profession as a school teacher or in Edmonton as a cabinet minister or in Ottawa as leader of the Social Credit party or in his own community, Solon Low was always known for his dedication to the cause of humanity and his fellow man."

TORONTO (CP) — Liberal Leader Person said Canada has lost one of her best citizens with the death of Solon Low.

He will be greatly missed, particularly in Alberta, Mr. Pearson said.

"It was a great surprise and sorrow to me. Mr. Low and I were colleagues for many years and though we did not agree on many political things this did not interfere with our friendship and mutual respect."

EDMONTON (CP)—Premier E. C. Manning of Alberta said that Solon Low made an "invaluable contribution" to Canada's public life.

Premier Manning said he learned with the "deepest regret" of the death of Solon Low.

Premier Manning said Mr. Low was one of the "outstanding" leaders in public life in Canada.

BURNABY, B.C. (CP)—T. C. Douglas, national leader of the New Democratic Party, said the death of Solon Low "will come as a great shock to all privileged to know and work with him."

"I know that the members of the New Democratic Party will join me in expressing our regret at this sudden ending of a very useful public life," Mr. Douglas said.

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP)—Premier Bennett said he was "shocked" to hear of the death of Solon E. Low.

Mr. Bennett, the Social Credit party's British Columbia leader, said "In the passing of Solon Low we have lost a man of great service to Canada," Mr. Bennett said.

"He held a different point of view to the majority of Canadians on political matters and on financial matters but he brought a keen insight into the changes that must take place in the great expanding free world economy.

"I personally will miss his council and advice, which was always freely given. I will also miss a great personal friend."

QUEBEC (CP) — Former prime minister Louis St. Laurent said he learned with sorrow of the death of Solon Low.

Mr. St. Laurent said he and Mr. Low always enjoyed "very cordial relations when we both were members of the House of Commons."

"Although he never was able to convince me of the value of Social Credit doctrine, I have always considered him as sincere in the representations he made before the House."

CARDSTON, Alta. (CP) — John Blackmore, former national leader of the Social Credit party, said Solon Low will be remembered in Alberta for monetary reforms he introduced as provincial treasure.

M. Low succeeded Mr. Blackmore as national leader in 1945 and resigned in 1958.

Mr. Low paved the way for Alberta refunding more than $100,000,000 of its debt during the late 1930s, said Mr. Blackmore. He was also responsible for the idea of government treasury branches, which are in operation throughout the province today.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

'Twas the night before Christmas,
Two guests in our house
Had started to play bridge
With me and my spouse.

"Please tell me," she shouted,
"Why didn't you double?
'Twas plain from the start
That we had them in trouble."

" 'Tis futile, my dear,"
Said I, taking no stand,
"To discuss it with you—
Let us play the next hand."

"Remember next time,"
Said she, icing a frown,
"To double a contract
That's sure to go down."

So I picked up my cards
In a down trodden state,
Then I opened One Spade
And awaited my fate.

The guy sitting South
Was like many I've known;
He played and he bid
In a world all his own.

"Two diamonds," he countered
With scarcely a care;
The ace in his hand
Gave him courage to spare.

My wife, she smiled faintly,
And tossing her head,
Leaned over the table:
"I double," she said.

And North, for some reason
I cannot determine,
Bid Two Hearts as though
He were preaching a sermon.

I grinned as I doubled,
Enjoying the fun,
And turned round to South
To see where he would run.

But South, undistressed,
Not at loss for a word,
Came forth with Two Spades—
Did I hear what I heard?

The other two passed
And in sheer disbelief
I said, "Double, my friend,
That'll bring you to grief."

South passed with a nod,
His composure serene;
My wife with a flourish
Led out the heart queen.

I sat there and chuckled
Inside o'er their fix—
But South very calmly
Ran off eight straight tricks!

He ruffed the first heart
In his hand right away,
And then trumped a club
On the very next play.

He crossruffed the hand
At a breathtaking pace
Till I was left holding
Five spades to the ace.

In anguish my wife cried,
"Your mind's growing old,
Don't you see six notrump
In this hand is ice cold?"

By doubling this time
I'd committed a sin.
It just goes to prove
That you never can win.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X E
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
