

Local and Other Items.

NEW CHURCH.—A new Methodist church is to be erected at Bayfield, N. E.

PREACHING.—Rev. E. A. Harris will preach in St. Paul's Church to-morrow evening.

RECA. FRED.—James Legg, the escaped Dorchester prisoner, has been recaptured at Amherst and taken back to the penitentiary.

COLLAPSED.—Montreal advices report that ex-Mayor Beauregard's new daily paper, the Yves, was published for the last time yesterday.

ANOTHER PROTEST.—The Women's Christian Temperance Union, of St. John, have passed a resolution protesting against Sunday street cars.

TEACHERS BIBLE CLASS.—The Sunday School Teachers Bible Class will be held as usual in the Y. M. C. A. lower parlor at 8 o'clock p. m.

IN GOOD ORDER.—The seats of the Y. M. C. A. Hall are in perfect order, having recently been thoroughly cleaned by a competent mechanic.

ANOTHER INCREASE.—The assessment valuation, just completed, shows an increase in the value of property in Ottawa of twelve per cent. over last year.

CHANGE OF PULPIT.—Rev. Job Shenton, of the Methodist Brick Church, this city, was in Sackville, N. B., last Sunday, and preached in the Methodist Church there in the evening.

IMPORTANT TO SHIPPERS.—Special attention is directed to the advertisement of the last sailing of this season of the Black Diamond Line steamers for St. John's, Newfoundland.

WANTED.—100 young men to attend the gospel and praise service in the Y. M. C. A. parlor Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Subject: "Victory all along the line." Rom. 8: 37, 2 cor. 2: 14.

THE WORST FEARED.—A special despatch from Montreal to the Halifax Herald reports that "nothing has been heard of the S. S. Miramichi since she left port, and that she is supposed to have gone down with all hands."

TREES.—A large consignment of fruit and ornamental trees from the Annapolis Valley Nurseries, arrived in the steamer from Pictou on Thursday evening last. The stock looks well and shows that Mr. Rupert is doing a successful business on the Island.

JUBILEE SINGERS.—Families purchasing four or more tickets for one concert by the Fisk Jubilee singers will be allowed a discount of 25 per cent. Concerts Wednesdays and Thursdays of next week. Secure your tickets at once as only a limited number will be sold.

STOVES.—When the hot water apparatus now being fitted up in St. Dunstan's College is in working order, some 16 or 18 stoves in use at the College with a large lot of pipe will be sold by auction. Date of sale, etc., shortly.—A. McNeill, auctioneer.

ALL RIGHT.—The schooner Kate, which was supposed to have been lost in the gale on Friday night last, is all O. K. She had started for Summerside, but the far seeing eye of Skipper Welsh enabled him to predict a big storm better than Wiggins, and he returned to Pictou.—Pictou News.

AN ISLANDER PROMOTED.—Mr. John H. Longworth, for several years a C. P. R. Station Agent at Portage La Prairie, has been promoted to the position of Chief Clerk at Winnipeg. Mr. Longworth is a son of ex-Sheriff Longworth, of Glenwood. We congratulate him on his promotion.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—There will be preaching in the Baptist Church to-morrow at 11 o'clock a. m. and at 6:30 o'clock p. m., by Rev. Edward Whitman, pastor. Themes: in the morning, "The test of good citizenship," and in the evening, "Some sensible advice to the young on the temperance question."

HIS SERMONS APPRECIATED.—The Pictou News says: "Mr. Jas. W. Forbes, lay reader of Tyne Valley, P. E. I., conducted the services in the Episcopal Church on Sunday last. Mr. Forbes is a very earnest speaker, and his sermons, which were able and impressive, were well received by the congregation."

ANOTHER CARNIVAL.—St. Paul is to have another carnival this winter, which, it is said, will eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted in the country. A number of new features will be introduced. Already preparatory steps have been taken, and the ball put in motion by the leading men of the city.

SOMETHING FOR SHIPPERS.—The Department of Marine at Ottawa has been notified by Lloyds that it is a condition of classification of vessels at Lloyds that all repairs to ships or their machinery, which may be required at ports where there is a Lloyds surveyor, must be done under his inspection and to his satisfaction. If this rule is not observed vessels may lose their classification.

LOWERING HER RECORD.—Rosaline Wilkes, by the N. B. Government's Harry Wilkes, at Kansas City, last week, won a race, making the fast time of 2:20, 2:18, and 2:09, lowering her own record a quarter of a second. This is the second race she has won this season, but in many others she took second and third place, greater success being prevented by bad health, from which she has suffered nearly all summer.

DANGER SIGNALS.—On the most dangerous portion of the sidewalk on Queen Street, between Richmond and Sidney, are several danger signals. These signals consist of long pieces of wood with placards attached upon which are inscribed in large characters: "Don't break your leg in this hole," "Report this hole to the Street Committee," etc., etc. The sidewalk upon which the signals are placed are not the worst in the city by any means!

A PLEASANT TIME.—The members of St. Paul's Church held a very enjoyable social in their Schoolroom last evening. After the members had been presented to their new rector and his wife, and the ladies had passed round the refreshments, a very pleasing entertainment consisting of songs, readings, etc., was proceeded with. All were well pleased with the way they had enjoyed themselves, and cherish the hope that many more such pleasant meetings will be held during the winter months.

PERSONAL.—Mr. A. B. Warburton arrived home from the Northwest last evening looking well. Mr. F. Peters returned from Ottawa where he has been attending to the Hackett-Perry contested election case, last evening. Mr. Hodgson is expected this evening. Rev. Job Shenton, of the Methodist Brick Church, was among the passengers in the western train last evening. He had been attending the Missionary Conference in St. John.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.)

Brutal Murder.

MONTREAL, Oct. 28. Information was received here to-day of a brutal murder on Wednesday night, at St. Augustine, a small village on the Canadian Pacific Railway, on the way to Ottawa. During the absence in Ottawa of Jacques Fealin, two tramps entered his house and drinking to excess, murdered his wife and his sister-in-law, Miss Beaupre. Their bodies were found on the stable floor, covered with blood and horribly mutilated. Suspicion rests on two men who were seen this forenoon near St. Catherine's.

Marine Information.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28. The sixth annual Canadian Shipping List was issued to-day. The Department of Marine give notice of the erection of a fog horn at Greenly Island, on the Labrador coast, and also give particulars of the burning of Dalhousie range lights. The Department invite pilots, masters or others interested to send information of dangerous changes in aids to navigation, notices of new shoals, channels, errors in publication and other facts affecting the navigation of Canadian waters to the Department in Ottawa.

Fatal Blanket Tossing.

PARIS, Oct. 28. While at horse drill to-day, a lieutenant of the third cuirassiers, enraged at the inability of a young cuirassier to control his horse, ordered the man to be tossed in a blanket. The blanket split and the victim fell to the ground, his skull was fractured, and he died instantly. Owing to the indignation caused by the affair the Minister of War has prohibited the blanket tossing as a punishment in the army.

Trade During September.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28. The imports of Canada for September amounted to $9,635,000 and the duty collected to $2,198,000. The exports during September were $10,349,000, of which $8,800,000 was the produce of Canada. The amount to the credit of depositors in the Post Office Savings Banks at the end of September was $19,700,000.

Water Famine.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 28. A water famine through the Western tiers of Ohio continues, and the adjoining territory of Indianapolis, and in the lands extending over level stretches, and away from the larger streams. Cattle are suffering and bellowing for drink. Farm and village wells are dry, and other wells are low. The scarcity of water is breeding typhoid fever and kindred diseases.

Agitated Ireland.

DUBLIN, Oct. 28. Wilfred Blunt, in travelling to Loughrea to-day, addressed three audiences, and was cheered by the crowds. At Loughrea the police charged the crowd, using their batons. The mob replied with sticks and stones, but was compelled to disperse.

Sad Death.

HALIFAX, Oct. 28. A young man named Alex. McDonald, who showed signs of insanity, was confined in Port Hood jail. During the night he set the jail on fire and was suffocated. The fire was subsequently extinguished.

Contradiction—Resigned.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28. Sir George Stephens states that the Canadian Pacific Company do not intend placing a line of steamers on the Atlantic. Chief Justice Watson, of the Court of Queen's Bench, has resigned.

Inter-Provincial Conference.

QUEBEC, Oct. 28. The Inter-Provincial Conference closed at noon to-day. The resolutions passed will only be made known to the press after copies have been sent to the Provincial and Dominion Governments.

Gladstone Advising.

LONDON, Oct. 28. Mr. Gladstone, on his way back to Hawarden at Staleybridge, advised the people to settle the Irish question, otherwise no English business could be transacted in Parliament.

Trouble in Africa.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 28. British frigates have been ordered to the west coast of Africa, in consequence of trouble among the natives.

To be Sworn In.

QUEBEC, Oct. 28. Lieut.-Governor Angers will be sworn in to-morrow.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, Oct. 29—10 a.m. Winds increasing to gales, cloudy weather followed by rain.

THE NEW PAPER.—The promoters of the new Government paper to be published in Toronto, have secured the subscription of two hundred thousand dollars stock, and are making preliminary arrangements for launching the new journal.

There is great excitement in and around Sudbury over the reported discoveries of gold. It is said that in blasting for other metals a vein of gold was struck of great richness and extent, and the whole neighborhood is worked up to fever heat about it.
