MR. AND MRS. KEIM left in this morning's train for their home at Reading, Pa. They were accompanied at early dawn to the Station by a number of personal friends. Not only will Mr. Keim's dignified and gentlemanly demeanor in his official capacity, be favorably remembered by our merchants, traders and shippers, but our farmers and stockraisers also will always retain kindly recollections of the friendly spirit, which Mr. Keim manifested towards them, by his practical and useful suggestions in his popular speeches at our Provincial and County Exhibitions, where he was always a welcome visitor. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Keim bon voyage.

MESSRS. BOWLES & HADEN, of Wisconsin, in the Breeders Gazette, say: "Notwithstanding the low price paid for other farm produce, good young grade draft horses still command large prices than ever. We shipped from here last night seventeen head of yearling and suckling colts, all the get of our imported horses, to Mr. D. H. Wilder, to be raised on his farm until four and five years old for the New York and Pittsburg markets. Prices paid for sucklings, from $70 to $115; for yearlings, from $100 to $185 each. These colts are one-half, three-fourths and seven-eighths Percheron. Farmers hereabouts are beginning to realize that they can make more money by using a good Percheron horse at $20 or $25 than by using common horses free."

ST. JOSEPH'S BAZAAR closed on Saturday evening. During the whole week it was well attended and liberally patronized. The net proceeds amounted to $1,200, quite a handsome sum! The closing evening was more than usually exciting on account of the election. The first two polls Blake led, but when the 10.30 ballot was counted Sir John had a majority of 99 votes and consequently takes the prize. We were unable to procure the exact figures. On Saturday the following prizes were drawn:—

WHICH IS THE CHEAPEST AND BEST DRY GOODS HOUSE IN CHARLOTTETOWN? Is a question frequently asked, and we believe the best solution of the problem is a careful comparison of the goods and the prices charged. In point of genuine value we claim to stand in the front rank, and respectfully invite a fair comparison. We wish also to intimate to our friends that, notwithstanding the effort put forth by our opponents to sell at a discount of 33 1-3 per cent, our sales this month have been larger than ever. This, alone, convinces us that our prices are honest and that we are serving our customers well. We again ask you to look everywhere; but buy nowhere till you respect
