

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

REMEMBER W. D. Stewart's sale of fancy goods.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH SYNOD of Nova Scotia and this Island meets in Halifax this week.

CHURCH OUT.—Correspondence, reports of school examinations, Supreme Court, etc., unavoidably crowded out.

SCOTSMEN are exercising their muscles in preparation for the Caledonia Gathering in August. See advertisement.

DOMINION DAY was generally observed throughout the Province. The Railway and the Steamers carried thousands of excursionists.

REMEMBER that Hon. G. W. Howland's Town Lots, at Alberton, will be sold by Auction, on Monday next. A special train leaves this city at 6 o'clock, a. m.

BLIND SINGERS.—A party of blind singers left Halifax Blind Asylum on a tour through Nova Scotia and this Island, on Thursday last. We hope, when they come, they will be well patronised.

St. JOHN POST MASTERSHIP.—J. V. Ellis, Esq., Editor of the Globe, has accepted the position of Post Master of the St. John Post Office. Mr. Howe, the present Post Master, will retire on a superannuation salary of $1,400 a year.

L. O. O. F.—The officers elect for the present term will be installed as follows:—"St. Lawrence Lodge" this (Monday) evening, "Prince Edward Lodge" Thursday evening, 6th inst., and "Witley Lodge" on Friday evening, 7th inst.

NOTEWORTHY.—The Patriot of Thursday, devoted nearly two columns to the hearsay opinions of a nameless writer in the Toronto Mail; but it had not one word to say respecting Mr. Laird's conduct on the School Question.

GUILDING SCHOLARSHIP.—The examination for this valuable scholarship began at the beginning of last week. The only candidate from this district is Mr. Thomas A. LePage of this city. The examiners are Rev. G. W. Hill, and Mr. Sumichrast, of Halifax.

THE HENSLEY MEMORIAL.—Mr. Edw. Binney—of Halifax—most generously offered to assume the entire cost of building the "Hensley Memorial Chapel." Such liberality is rarely witnessed. Mr. Binney's donations to King's College being already munificent.

RELIGIOUS TEACHING.—We understand that Mr. William McPhail, School Visitor, has reported to the Board of Education the names of twenty-six Protestant schools, in Queen's County alone, in which the Catechism is taught. This number includes, we are informed, every school in Belfast.

WE beg to direct special attention to the great Land Sale at Alberton on Monday next, July 10th. Tickets by special train, leaving Charlottetown at 10 o'clock, a. m., on day of sale to Alberton and back, $2.00; from Summerside and back, $1.25. A rare chance to visit the country at this pleasant season of the year.

SUPREME COURT.—The Trinity Term of the Supreme Court commenced its sitting on Tuesday last. The following are the gentlemen composing the Grand Jury:—

F. W. Hales, Foreman, Dennis Clarke, Thos. McGrath, Thos. Alley, W. H. Fiedley, John McMillan, Wm. Koughan, Malcolm McMillan, Wm. Egan, James Reid, Alex. McMillan, Patrick Foley, John McKinlay, John Robinson, Patrick McCoubrey, Richard Hearty, Peter W. Hyndman, John Grant, Peter Newson, F. T. Newbery.

PUBLIC EDUCATION.—The Presbyterian Church Synod has appointed the following committee to watch over Public Education in the Maritime Provinces:—

Burgess, Donald McLean, Isaac Murray, Thomas Duncan, N. McKay, James Allan, E. A. McCurdy, John McKinnon, D. McKie, Ministers; Hon. D. Laird, Messrs. C. Robson, R. Murray, John Stewart.

NEWFOUNDLAND NEWS.—The fishery at St. John's and the neighborhood has not been good; from other parts the reports are more favorable. The new Governor, Sir J. H. Glover, visited Harbor Grace and was warmly received. A magistrate and force of police have left St. John's for Bay of Islands, to enquire into the reported murder of Carter (a Nova Scotian) and arrest the Indian who killed him. Hon. Nicholas Stables, an old merchant and member of the Legislative council of Newfoundland, died on the 18th inst.—Herald Chronicle.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday at noon, a young man named Carrier, belonging to Cardigan, was returning from fishing in a small sailboat, when a squall struck her sail and capsized the boat, precipitating him in the water. Mr. Michael D. McDonald and the ferryman, Mr. Hercules McDonald, who were crossing Cardigan Ferry fortunately saw the boat upset and immediately put off to his rescue. Although a long way off they succeeded in reaching the boat before he became exhausted, and relieved him from his perilous position. Much praise is due the timely exertion of these men, and their speedy assistance is a good lesson for other ferrymen.—Advertiser.

MARRIED.—At Verone River, on the 21st inst., by the Rev James Phelan, P. P., assisted by the Rev. Wm. Phelan, W. J. Broderick, Esq., of St. Louis Illinois, to Miss Annie E. Stephens, of Orwell.

Beer and E. W. Carey. By Cable to Peake Bros. & Co., brig "Zelma" sailed from Plymouth for Charlottetown on the 1st inst. Barque "Mosselle" sailed from Dunkirk for Charlottetown, on the 3rd inst.

Orders for the mobilization of the Servian militia have been issued, and the army is expected to take up its position on the frontier by the end of next week. It is surmised that the Governor report which has not yet been made public, will strongly implicate the Chinese Authorities in the Margary murder.

A Constantinople correspondent of a London paper reports almost incredible losses having been incurred by the Bahi-Bazouks, or Turkish irregular soldiery. Von Arnim is to be allowed to go to Calcutta unmolested, and from thence to undergo the term of imprisonment imposed upon him.

THE METHODIST ACADEMY.

THE ANNUAL EXAMINATION.

A public examination of the pupils attending the Methodist Academy was held on Thursday last. There were present W. McKechnie, W. E. Dawson, W. Weeks, H. Lawson, J. H. Fletcher, P. R. Bowers, Esquires, Dr. Johnston and many others—ladies as well as gentlemen—who evidently took a lively interest in the proceedings. The examination was conducted by the Principal. Many of the classes were closely questioned by H. Lawson, Esq. The pupils, generally, acquitted themselves well. They showed that they had been carefully and thoroughly instructed. Those who had been studying history displayed both knowledge and intelligence; and altogether acquitted themselves in a manner highly creditable to their teachers and gratifying to their friends. The junior classes were exceedingly interesting. The reading of many of the little ones might be imitated with profit by many who imagine that their education is complete. As a whole, the examination was very satisfactory. When it was over—

W. E. DAWSON, Esq., expressed the gratification he felt at the results of the past year's labor, as shown by the examination, and his great regret that the school was about to lose the valuable services of Principal Carscadden, Miss Allison, Miss Hamilton, Miss Stanley, and Miss Coles. He believed it would be very difficult to supply the places of those efficient and esteemed teachers. Still, the trustees would do their best. He trusted that by the last of next August arrangements would be made which would entitle the school to the continued support of the public. The school would certainly be re-opened during the last week of August or the first week of September.

REV. THOS. DUNCAN said that, like Mr. Dawson, he had been greatly gratified with the result of the examination. He thought the last class examined (Miss Hamilton's juveniles) by no means the least interesting. He regretted that Principal Carscadden, and other teachers, had found it necessary to leave the scene of their labors—labors which he felt it impossible adequately to gauge or estimate by the examination, thorough and highly satisfactory as it had been. He alluded to the proposed union of the Presbyterians and Methodists in the work of educating the young ladies of the Province. He trusted and believed the union would be speedily accomplished.

W. McKECHNIE, Esq., said that he would not like to go away without giving expression to his approbation of the manner—as shown by the examination—in which Principal Carscadden and his assistants had performed their duties. He had three or four children attending the school, and from his observation he had come to the conclusion that the teaching had been thorough. He was very glad to hear that the Presbyterians were about to unite with the Methodists for the purpose of maintaining a first-class school for young ladies; and he would be very glad to avail himself of the institution in the education of his daughters.

P. R. BOWERS, Esq., complimented the teachers on their success. The junior classes, at least, compared very favorably with those of any other educational institution at the examination of which he had been present. It would, he thought, be great cause for regret were the institution allowed to go down. In building up the character of its pupils and enabling them to face the battles of life, he felt that it was doing a good work. He sincerely hoped that the institution would live and flourish.

H. LAWSON, Esq., said the examination had pleased him much better than he anticipated. He had heard reports to the effect that education imparted in the Methodist Academy was not thorough. He was agreeably surprised to see by the reading and intelligence displayed by the pupils in their answers to his questions, that they were able to stand the test—that the instruction had been deeply and thoroughly implanted. The class in Literature and History had done exceedingly well; and the junior classes were highly creditable to their teachers. He had never heard better reading, by pupils of the same age, than by those of Miss Coles; and Miss Hamilton's class pleased him exceedingly. The Methodist Academy he thought a great credit to the Methodist body.

W. E. DAWSON, Esq., made a few remarks in reference to the allusions of Messrs. Bowers and Lawson. All reports respecting the probability of the school going down, were, he said, without foundation. The school would go on. He was glad to hear Mr. Lawson's refutation of the report circulated in the town, respecting the character of the instruction imparted. He believed that the Academy and the character of its teaching were second to none in the Province. On behalf of two or three pupils of her class, Mr. Dawson then presented Miss Stanley (who is about to leave the institution) with a pair of plated napkin rings and a bell-call—as tokens of esteem.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.—In the evening the large Hall of the Academy was filled to overflowing with an interested and appreciative audience. The entertainment was very pleasing. It showed that many of the pupils had gained proficiency in the elegant studies which "soothe and elevate mankind." The following programme was rendered:—Opening Chorus—"Happy to greet you." Duet, Instrumental—"The Misses Wright." Trio, Instrumental—"Misses Longworth, Johnson and Brydges." Miss Wright, Misses Wright, Misses Longworth, Johnson, and Brydges. Duet, Vocal, Misses Dawson and McCurry. Solo, Instrumental—"Miss Wright." "Vocal," "The Flower Girl," "Essie Lewis." "The Shoemakers Chorus." Juveniles. Duet, Instrumental—"Misses Johnson and Beer." Trio, Instrumental, Misses Murray, Knight, and Lewis. Trio, Vocal, Misses Brown, Finlay and McLeod. Solo, Vocal—"Miss Wright." Trio, Instrumental, Misses Pascoe, Irving and Hughes. Duet, Instrumental, Misses Boyd and Weeks. Chorus—"Song of the Roses." A very pleasing feature of the entertainment developed half at this stage. The various countries of the world were represented by as many young ladies who in turn came upon the stage, decked in appropriate and recited or sung a few stanzas of national or patriotic songs. The representations were:—Canada—"Miss Stronach." United States—"Miss Wright." Russia—"Miss M. Johnson." Germany—"Miss Pascoe." Turkey—"Miss A. Weeks." Austria—"Miss Cavanagh." France—"Miss E. Brown." Switzerland—"Miss C. Lowden." Spain—"Miss H. McDonald." Italy—"Miss Minnie Dawson." Greece—"Miss Beer." Ireland—"Miss E. McCurry." Scotland—"Miss Scott." India—"Miss Scott." England—"Miss Scott."

The music was of a high character. Some of the pieces played were exceedingly difficult. The singing of the juveniles was, perhaps, the most pleasing feature of the entertainment. The greater number of recitations were really good. Those of Miss George Lowden and Miss Weeks were exceedingly well rendered. The programme, as a whole, must have left a very favorable impression upon the audience.
