BERLIN medical men now call the Koch lymph "tubercule."

Mr. T. C. JAMES will preach at Covehead Sunday next, 2nd inst., morning and evening.

It is not what one says, but everybody who knows it praises Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

Very Superior for Catarrh and Bronchitis, is the verdict for Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

"For sixty years," says a Baptist doctor, "I have known of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment."

DR. BAYNES lectures at Hunter River on Monday evening, in the interests of the Union Church, on "Mental Phantasmagoria."

Philharmonic Concert on Thursday 19th inst.

This Board of Trade recently sent for and have just received copies of the New York Engineering News containing illustrated descriptive articles of the St. Catharines.

Mr. P. J. QUINN, representing Manchester, Robertson & Allison of St. John is in town on his annual trip. He is registered at the Hotel Davies.

News has been received by telephone that the Steamer "St. Lawrence" in the south of White Sands and that some of the passengers have landed there. The department here does not appear to know how many passengers are on board, or anything else about her.

Mendelssohn's Hymn of Praise Thursday 19th.

On the Prosecution of D. W. Henderson on the 16th inst. before Benjamin and Robert Jenkins J. P.s at Mount Allison. Amelia Morris of Alexandria was convicted and fined $50 or 60 days or two months imprisonment for violation of the C. T. Act.

YESTERDAY morning evidence was taken in the charge against John M. Quaid, but judgment was reserved for one week pending enquiry into the point raised by Mr. Peters that the Magistrate could not now convict owing to the repeal of the Act. The case against Mrs. Train was further adjourned one week.

The literary and musical entertainment in the Lyceum last evening under the auspices of the ladies of St. Vincent de Paul Sewing Society was a very pleasant affair. All the performers did well, and several were successful. The troupe song by Mr. Richard Johnson was particularly fine. The hall was well filled, the receipts amounting to over one hundred dollars.

The item in yesterday's issue respecting the suit of Judge Alley against E. H. Norton was with regret to say not strictly correct and calculated to convey a false impression to the minds of our readers. The suit was not a matter of any public interest. While the question of damages to the heating apparatus came up in the trial, the matter really at issue was a claim for damages amounting to $5.25 and judgment was given for $3.25 and cost costs to be paid by defendant.

We chronicle with deep regret the death yesterday of Mr. Robert H. Crawford, another of the old residents of Charlottetown. Mr. Crawford was a good and highly respected citizen, and for many years a consistent and useful member of the Christian church. For several years, while Mr. W. R. Frame was editor, Mr. Crawford was bookkeeper and manager of the GUARDIAN PUBLISHING CO., and was a reliable and faithful officer. We tender our sympathy to Mrs. Crawford and family in their sad bereavement.

SPEAKING of Jno. Hearty who has been elected President of the Brick-layer's and Stonemasons' Union, the Dyer Daily News, says Mr. Hearty has been identified with Union No. 1 since its inception, and has five times held the position of Treasurer. He was born in Charlottetown P. E. Island Dec 27, 1856, but came to the United States in 1874. At the last annual convention of the international union he was elected first vice-president and on the death of President A. J. McDonald, he succeeded to the presidency to which office he has now been elected.

THE Grand Orange Lodge of P. E. I. met here on Tuesday. There was a large attendance. A resolution endorsing the action of the temperance workers was passed. The following are the principal officers: the commanding officer, Grand Master, J. H. Bell, city Deputy, M. L. Matheson, Bradshaw; Junior Deputy, J. J. Bethune, Rose Valley; G. Chap., Paul McPhee, Long Creek; G. Secy., M. McLeod, North Milton, (re-elected), G. Treas., Jos. Wier, Milton; G. Lecturer, Angus Deacon, Brookfield; G. D. C., Angus McLeod, do. The next 12th of July celebration will probably be held at O.L.Ary.

Social and Presentation.

A very pleasant social gathering took place at the residence of R-bert Ellis, Esq., Jr., at O'Leary Station, on the evening of Jan. 28th. The lower rooms and halls of this spacious and comfortable home were filled to overflowing with an happy and company as could be easily be got together in any quarter of this fair Canada of ours. The quiet words of kindly recognition and the ceaseless hum of cheerful conversation indulged in all round, must be allowed to tell their own tale in this regard. Music, dancing, and about one hundred guests sat down at the table—and such a table is not often spread, even on occasions similar to this. Great credit is due to the ladies who furnished the repast, and especially to "the lady of the hour" who knows so well how to make her guests feel at home, and whose efforts in this direction have been so successful heretofore; so at least it was said by some present who ought to know, and doubtless it was felt by all to be true.

After the tea was over, William T. Rogers, Esq., stepped to the front, and in the name of those present and others, presented an address to the Rev. J. R. Coffin, and he ded to him an envelope containing $50 as a token of the good will and kind feelings that exist towards him in the community, and as expressions of their sincere regard for him as a minister of the Gospel. The Rev. gentleman responded briefly to the address, and generously expressed his gratitude to the generous donors of any denomination, for this new and unmerited mark of their kindness and esteem.—Cont.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GUARDIAN]

A ZOLLVEREIN.

Proposed in the Imperial Commons.

The Scheme Overwhelmingly Opposed.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—In the House of Commons on Tuesday, Howard Vico moved that at the earliest opportunity the Government invite the several British Colonies to a conference to discuss the question of forming a Zollverein. He contended that Imperial Federation could only be obtained through commercial federation. The matter was criticized by Sir Lyon Playfair, Mr. Lowther and Mr. Goschen, as they seemed to think that the colonies would not consent to a conference on the Free Trade basis. Goschen thought a conference would merely be an imitation to follow a will-o-the-wisp. The motion was withdrawn.

A FLOOD THREATENED

More Trouble at Johnstown.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Feb. 18.—It is believed that there will be a flood in the Susquehanna river of twenty feet at least, and more trouble is feared at Johnstown, the scene of the last terrible accident. Heavy rains have fallen.

Drowned at the Wharf.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 18.—The steamer Sherlock collided with a wharf to-day and sank. Many persons were drowned.

The Newfoundland Trouble.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Commenting on the Newfoundland trouble the Standard says: Lord Selkirk was, no doubt, bound to show tenderness, which, however, tends rather to enhance than diminish the anger of the Newfoundlanders. The incident is very regrettable, and we can only hope the papers promised will restore equanimity.

The Military Social.

Col. Moore is to be congratulated on the military social of last night. The "boys in blue" turned out in full force and one of the jolliest and most agreeable evenings imaginable was spent. Among those present we noticed Brigadier-General Col. Irving, Col. Dogherty, Capt. S. F. Hodges, Major Purdy, Major Captain W. A. O. Morrison, (Adjutant) W. A. Weeks, H. McF. Daison, A. Longworth, D. Stewart, D. L. Hooper, Sergeant Major Allan and lieutenants, non-coms and gunners galore. Col. Moore presided in a whole-souled and dignified way and seemed delighted to have his boys about him. A very interesting programme was carried out. The Artillery band first gave an overture in fine style. Then Mr. J. mes Davison sang "The Red, White and Blue" as only Mr. Davison can sing it, and the boys joined in the chorus with a will, ending up with three ringing cheers for the red, white and blue. Capt Weeks then delighted the audience for a few moments with a comic reading. Mr. B. Brenner marched in with shouldered brown and added contributions to delight with two character songs, the one called "The Awkward Squad," at the mention of which Col. Moore remarked, "and we've all been there." Gunner McLeod then rendered an appropriate recitation. Adjutant Morrison gave some choice selections on the violin. Mr. T. A. McLean who always chose well and recites if possible better, gave Marjorie and Douglas, and a short extract from William Tell. Mr. S. F. Hodges created great merriment by his clever rendition of "Bridget and the Haythen Chinese" a song by Mr. Davison followed, and then came ten minutes recess for refreshments. Mr. C. C. Warren then gave a short speech and a recitation in capital style. A song by Lieut R. V. Lutzworth, a fine address on "The Discipline and Duty of Soldiers" by Col. Irving, another song by Mr. Davison, an interesting address by Sergeant Major Allen, on his experience in the Russian War referring especially to Sebastopol and Balakava, and a speech and recitation by Lieut. F. W. L. Moore, and an address by Col. Moore made up the balance of the programme. The social closed at 11 o'clock with a Long Syne, the national anthem and four cheers for the Queen.

Carrier Pigeons.

It will be remembered that some time ago a number of carrier pigeons were brought here from Antwerp and placed in a loft at the marine and fisheries wharf, arranged for the purpose. Some of the birds were afterwards taken to Sable Island, to be useful in case of wreck, and the remainder were still retained here. A few days ago one of the pigeons was taken to the post office and set at liberty, as a sort of a trial trip. It got clear of the post office buildings and has not been seen since. Enquiries are being made, but no trace can be found.—Halifax Chronicle.

Died.

At South Granville, June 10th, 1889, Murdoch Corbett, aged 82 years.

At the same place Dec. 27th, 1890, Ann McLeod, widow of the above, aged 87.

She emigrated from Sutherlandshire, Scotland, in 1840, where for many years consisted members of the Presbyterian Church, and died deeply regretted by a large circle of friends and relations.

Fell asleep in Jesus, at his late residence Hillsborough Street, on Wednesday morning, 14th inst., Robert Halidane Crawford, in his 71st year.

[Funeral] will be held at the house Friday, at 4 p.m. Friends are invited to attend without further notice.

Died at Charlton Point, Feb. 5, after a short illness of eleven days, which he bore with patient resignation to the divine will, Hector Campbell, in the 72nd year of his age. He leaves nine children and two grandchildren to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate father. He died in full assurance of entering the kingdom long prepared and made ready for the people of God. Patriot please copy.
