

Mr. Gladstone in London.

As a token of the estimation in which Mr. Gladstone is held in London the Corporation of that Metropolis have requested that he will sit for a marble bust, to be placed in Guildhall among those of his most illustrious predecessors.

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commoners of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, desire to offer to you, in the name of our fellow-citizens, the expressions of our cordial respect and our high admiration of your great qualities, intellectual and moral, and of your lengthened and self-sacrificing services to your country.

The State of Ireland.

A Press correspondent states that the hierarchy have now taken a determined stand against the League. In Dublin an archdeacon priest has been silenced, and others warned by Archbishop McCabe for joining the League and advocating its doctrines.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The World's London special says:—Tenant farmers in all parts of the country are making application to the Land Court for the settlement of rents, and the sub-commissioners will start this week for various points in Ulster.

Parliament's Burden.

The passage in Mr. Gladstone's speech at the Guildhall in which he said he should like to see the minor Irish business transacted at Dublin instead of at London, if that could be done without endangering unity, has revived the discussion on the break-down of the machinery of Parliament.

A South African correspondent of the "Times" recently gave an account of an interesting and pathetic ceremony which took place last month at Bronker's Spruit, the scene of the terrible slaughter of the 94th. This ceremony was the consecration of the graves of those who fell in that disastrous combat, by the Bishop of Pretoria, who arrived in his full ecclesiastical robes, proceeded from grave to grave over the great extent of the field.

The Canada Temperance Act.

The case of W. R. Watson, Esq., charged with a breach of the Scott Act, was concluded in the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon. Mr. Shaw, in absence of Mr. McLean, appeared for the defence.

The case of Mr. P. G. Fraser, druggist, was also concluded to-day. Mr. Martin appeared for the defence. William Flynn was placed on the stand and testified that on Tuesday last he went into Mr. Fraser's store and asked the clerk—Fred. Evans—for a bottle of gin.

The evidence of this witness showed that whatever doubt might exist about Mr. Fraser selling liquor as a medicine to Mc Donald, there was no doubt the clerk sold it as a beverage to Burke, and the court therefore, imposed a fine of $50 and costs on the defendant.

ARREST OF JADDEUR BODREAU IN MONCTON LAST NIGHT—HIS SUMMER'S WORK BETWEEN N. B. AND P. E. ISLAND.

Larceny on an Extensive Scale.

ARREST OF JADDEUR BODREAU IN MONCTON LAST NIGHT—HIS SUMMER'S WORK BETWEEN N. B. AND P. E. ISLAND.

Last night a warrant was issued by Stipendiary Magistrate Wortman for the arrest of Jaddour Boudreau, on the complaint of Napoleon White. The arrest was made by Policeman Thibideau about seven o'clock last night, and Boudreau lodged in the lockup to await examination.

New Zealand in 1876 produced 1,770,363 bushels of wheat, 5,888,683 bushels of oats, 620,699 bushels of barley, and 17,895 tons of potatoes, the total acreage under cultivation being 152,982.

The King of Italy in view of the cool relations which have arisen between his Kingdom and France, in consequence of the aggressive campaign of the latter in Tunis, feels the need of cultivating the friendship of his old enemy, Austria and visits Vienna in a neighborly way.

Post Office Duties.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—In an article on "Post Office duties" in your last issue, it is stated that three of the employees of this office were on duty for upwards of eighteen hours each on Friday last.

This does not, however, give a fair idea of an ordinary day's work; for, taking the week's average of each clerk's time, it will be found not to exceed ten hours.

Yours, etc., A. A. MACDONALD, P. M.

Our Unpatriotic Patriot.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—The Patriot has become chronic in his hatred to the trade and commerce of our own nation. His intense hostility to the policy of the Government of our country has become so virulent that it knows no bounds.

In his paper of yesterday he states that the National Policy prevents our merchants from bringing back return cargoes from the States in exchange for potato shipments and making a profit on them.

October 29, 1881.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

GENTLEMEN.—You think that John Bourke is the informer of P. G. Fraser; but you are mistaken. I was sent down for a pint of bitters by Marshal Flynn. If I had known as much then as I do now, I should not have gone for it.

A UNIQUE recommendation from the Liverpool District came before the Nova Scotia Conference at its last annual meeting. A single statement in the District Minutes covered the case of two young men, recommended for reception as candidates for the ministry. They were twin brothers, fine specimens of physical vigor, and so resembling each other, as quite to perplex those not intimately acquainted with them.
