LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

BEER BOSS, white sale begins first of February.

THE TUNNEL WANTED.—It is just one week to-day since we had a foreign mail.

DOY'S FURRY IT.—Cheap advertising like cheap shoes, cheap lawyers, cheap doctors, is dear at any price.

AT THE CATER.—Crossing both ways today. The foreign mail is expected in Charlottetown about half-past five this afternoon.

REMOVES THE SNOW.—Every household should attend to this important matter at once. Owners of unoccupied houses and vacant lots should do likewise.

ANOTHER CALENDAR.—Mr. W. C. Kennedy has kindly handed THE EXAMINER the calendar of the London and Lancashire Life Assurance Company for 1895.

Y. M. C. A. BIBLE CLASS.—The subject for consideration at the Y. M. C. A. Bible Class to-morrow, under the leadership of Dr. Anderson, will be the Book of Genesis.

COURT OF APPEAL.—The argument in the case of Stone vs. Mayles was concluded yesterday afternoon in the Court of Appeal and Equity. The case stands for judgment.

THE STANLEY LEFT GEORGETOWN this morning about seven o'clock, but did not get outside until ten or eleven o'clock. Her arrival at Picton was not reported up to half-past two this afternoon.

INTERESTING LECTURE.—For the benefit of the "Y," Rev. U. G. Miller will lecture next Tuesday evening in the Christian Church, commencing at 8 o'clock. Subject: "Power and Influence of Woman in the World."

SEATING RACES.—The challenge mile race between Harry Moore, of Crapaud, and Fred Rattray, of this city, will take place on Friday evening next. Master Cook and Armand will also skate a mile race on that evening.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The adjourned meeting of the teachers' institute will be held at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 7.30. Besides the regular lessons in music and drawing an important discussion will be taken up. All the teachers are requested to attend.

TICKETS for the Y. M. C. A. grand oratorio concert next Thursday night are now on sale at Johnson & Johnson's Drug Store, Dodd's Medical Hall, Reddin Bros., Hazard & Moore's bookstore and by members of the committee. Seats in any part of the Opera house for 25c. Secure tickets early and save crush at doors.

DEATH OF MR. MATHEWSON.—It is now stated that the death of Mr. Donald Mathe-wson, of Emerald, was caused by heart trouble, from which he had been suffering for some time, and was not caused by choking with food, as at first reported. Mr. Mathe-wson was taken suddenly ill while at the dinner table. His funeral took place today.

AN ISLAND HORSE ARBOUR.—The Spirit of the Hub (Boston) says Tom Bowman, a provision dealer in Roxbury, has a black pacer which was bred on Prince Edward Island and which sometimes restores on Little Chief, 221. He is very fast and has been a quarter over Beacon Park, taken out of a Goddard buggy, in 35 seconds. He is a royal little sleigh horse, and Bowman knows his horse a prize.

A CONSULTATION HELD.—We understand that Mr. John Montgomery, of Malpasque, is not improving in health, but rather the opposite. Last Friday Dr. Kier, Dr. Fay, of Charlottetown, and Dr. McNeill of Kensington, held a consultation on the advisability of removing the tumor, but they concluded that the patient could not stand the operation. Mrs. Montgomery, we are pleased to learn, is getting better.—Farmer.

LECTURE AT WEST ROYALTY.—In the West Royalty schoolroom, on Monday evening last, under the auspices of Mayflower Division, Sons of Temperance, the Rev. Wm. Hanly delivered, before an attentive audience, his popular lecture on "Astronomy." The lecture, delivered in pleasing language, was thoroughly appreciated and calculated to make the audience inclined to more study of the heavenly bodies. At the close of the lecture a hearty vote of thanks was presented to the rev. lecturer. Mr. Walter Burke presided.

MOVEMENTS OF THE TRAINS.—The train from Tignish did not get here until 6.30 yesterday afternoon. The train for the West was unable to proceed further than O'Leary yesterday evening. It left there this morning, however, and got to Tignish at 2 o'clock. The Georgetown train was detained at Mount Stewart all night on account of the drift. On the way out this train was also detained at Revalty Junction for about two hours, and two other engines and some shovellers had to be sent out from the city. It got through to Georgetown this morning at 11, and left there on return an hour later. It will leave Charlottetown for Georgetown about 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Souris branch is now clear of snow, and the train will run in this city about 7 o'clock. The mail special to Cape Traverse left at the usual time last night.

KEEPING APPLES.—A correspondent of the National Stockman who cares for a large quantity of apples, yearly, says: "I have found a cool, moderately damp cellar the best place to keep them. After rejecting all unsound fruit I store it immediately in cellar if it is a cool one, not in an outbuilding constructed of heavy lumber, the object being to keep them cool. They must be cool if expected to keep. Warmth hastens ripening and eventually decay. When there is danger of freezing, remove to the cellar. I have kept them on shelves, in barrels, in small, medium and large boxes. I have succeeded best in using boxes. I kept about ten bushels, having kept them until May with a loss of only three bushels in 500. In a continued experiment of sixteen years I saved one-third more using the ten bushel boxes than with barrels. The reason is obvious.

THE CARNIVAL LAST EVENING.

The Best in Recent Years—Prizes Awarded for Costumes.

The Carnival in the Hillsborough Rink last night was the most successful held in this city for many years. The Rink was effectively and artistically decorated with hunting and Chinese lanterns, and the tableaux were very fine. It is estimated that there were between eight hundred and nine hundred spectators present, and there were about one hundred and twenty-five skaters in costume on the ice. The costumes as a rule were good, some of them being very striking. The Lady of the Seventeenth Century, Hermione, Clytie, Japanese Lady, Queen of the Golden Isles, Grecian Lady, Two Little Girls in Blue, Erin, Hope, Barbonniere, Seven of Diamonds, Gypsy Queen, Tambourine Girl, Silver Thaw, the Scotch Lassie and Juliet, were perhaps the most attractive and the best of the character impersonations by the ladies. Of the characters taken by the men and boys, that of The Coming Woman was capital both in design and in execution. It was the Japanese Student, the Cavalier, Robert Emmet, Herald, the Arab Soldier, Bluebeard, Robinson Crusoe, Spanish Dress, South Sea Islander, Spongy, the Press, Court Jester and the Astronomer were among the best. The card representations were also good. Dog Days attracted considerable attention; and the Surveyor of the Murray Harbor Railway evidently has an eye to business in the near future. Miss O'Looney and her Baby, and Hard Times furnished considerable amusement during the evening. Robinson Crusoe's goat was evidently unused to such festive scenes, and was at a loss to know what to do with the commands of Crusoe, who was monarch of all he surveyed and whose right there was none to dispute—except his goatship. The management awarded prizes for the best and most original costumes, and selected Messrs. Percy Pope, Thomas May and W. C. Harris as judges. They submitted the following report:

"Best fancy costume—Lady, Miss D. Hobbie, in the Japanese costume, equal."

"Best fancy costume—Gentleman, Mr. Jack Owen."

"Best comic character—Lady. This class was not fairly represented, but we recommend Laura McIntyre (Japanese) as most quaint."

"Best comic character—Gentleman. This class was not fairly represented, but we recommend Edwin on Crusoe and Goat, particularly the latter, as most original."

"Most original—No award can be given under this class as the only character worthy of consideration was Mr. Rogers who declines to compete. If the management will to award the fifth prize we would suggest blue beard as one of the most striking characters on the ice."

The management have accepted the suggestions of the judges and will award the fifth prize to Bluebeard.

The names of those in costume who handed in their names will be found below, but the list is necessarily incomplete.
