

A NAME LACKIN'

Sir.—The Summerside Farmer gives a list of possible candidates for the Liberal nomination in West Prince, but formidable though this list of aspirants for political honors may seem it lacks the name of one man whose claims upon the party are unquestioned, and who, it is well known, is anxious to serve his country in the capacity of a federal representative of the people.

KILDARE.

DEAR SIR.—The Summerside column of this morning's Guardian contains an item regarding the junior hockey championship of P. E. Island. In reply we beg to state that the Star hockey club of Summerside have no claim whatever on the championship, inasmuch as they were given an opportunity to compete for the championship and trophies, and either from fear of the result or some other cause, declined.

DEPARTURE OF MR. E. A. EARLE.

At the railway station, last night, the platform was crowded with the friends and acquaintances of Mr. E. A. Earle, of the Merchants Bank of Halifax, assembled there to say goodbye. Their esteem for him, thus expressed, shows the high regard in which Mr. Earle is held, and his popularity in social circles, as well as with the many business men with whom, during his service in the bank here, he has been brought into contact.

For upwards of eighteen years Mr. Earle has been a chorister in St. Peter's Cathedral, entering when a little boy and attending regularly and punctually ever since. The breaking of this old and tender association with the church and its members was particularly trying.

TO ERNEST A. EARLE.

DEAR SIR.—We at present or in the past associates with you in the choir of this Cathedral Church, wish to give expression to the very sincere regret with which we view your departure from among us to enter into a sphere of greater importance and responsibility in the profession of your choice.

Our long companionship, of almost a score of years, would of itself naturally engender a desire to assure you of our personal regard for you, and of our heartfelt well-wishing for your future happiness and success.

But to this is added a sense of personal loss which we feel has come to us in the severing of the long existing bond of companionship in the duties of the chairman's office.

Your constant and loyal regard for all which that office demands, and your regular attendance at both the practices and the services of the Church, have been an admirable and valuable object lesson which will not lose its effect for long time to come.

That you may have a constant reminder of our regard and of our well-wishing, as well as of the regret which this parting engenders, we ask your acceptance of the accompanying watch and chain, which we trust will be a useful companion throughout a long continued career of happy prosperity.
