

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

HIROHITO'S DAUGHTER WEDS COMMONER

Japanese Princess Taka, 20, second daughter of Emperor Hirohito, poses in the wedding gown she wore at her marriage in Tokyo to Toshimichi Takatsukasa, 26, a $20-a-month museum attendant. The princess became a commoner to marry far below her station. The bridegroom's father is chief priest at Tokyo's leading Shinto shrine. Hirohito and his empress attended the ceremonies.

Even as the 1950 International Trade Fair opened in Toronto, plans were being laid for a fourth world trade fair in Canada. Mary Patterson, Yorkshire, is shown.

Official opening of fair was made by Hubert Guerin, French ambassador, right, seen with Hon. C. D. Howe, trade minister, Jean Trueman, left, and Mary McIntyre. Mr. Guerin said Canada is making it possible for world trade to expand steadily. This year's fair is much larger than last in number of countries represented, includes exhibits from 34 countries.

Princess Margaret is seen in her uniform of commodore of the Sea Rangers when she visited Portsmouth recently. She inspected the old frigate Foudroyant, headquarters for the Sea Rangers' training.

Two score Japanese Canadians, many evacuated from B. C. during war, have pledged to support any national move to gain legislation abolishing racial discrimination at conference held recently in Hamilton, Ont. Seen dressed in their native costumes Anita Nakamura, left, A. Tabata and M. Hashimoto were among those who took pledge.

INSIDE TRILBY — Trilby, a circus elephant appearing at Gary, Ind., shows everything down to her tonsils as she opens wide to let trainer Frank Noel check her gum after extraction of a five-pound tooth. With help of 8,000,000 units of penicillin, the gum is healing nicely.

NECKING PARTY — Ingrid and Roberto, giraffe lovers whose passion runs high, bussed each other as they arrived at a Brooklyn, N. Y., pier from Kenya Colony in Africa. The pair is en route to the Jacksonville, Fla., zoo.

ATLANTIC PACT AT WORK—One step in co-operation of Atlantic Pact countries is well under way—giving American "know how" to European allies. Here a U. S. officer gives technical details of a light tank to officers from France, Italy, Belgium, Norway and Greece. This training center at Eschwege, Germany, is one of several at which European military personnel are given instruction in operation, maintenance and repair of U. S. equipment sent them under the mutual defense program. (Photo by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Bert Ashworth).

QUADS PERK UP SLEEPY EYE, MINNEOTA

—Three tiny girls and one boy, born to farm couple, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Seifert, have brought the drowsy little town of Sleepy Eye, Minn., just about the most excitement it ever had. In Sleepy Eye's municipal hospital, above, nurse Mrs. Thomas Yet-ter looks over the quads, who are "doing nicely." The father, a former athlete and sandlot baseball manager, said the addition of four to their previous six "sure creates some problems." He offered $10 to anyone who suggests the names used for the four, and said, "It looks like I'll have to do a little more farming and play less baseball."

Nineteen-year-old Bob Laur, seen above, of Tillsonburg, Ont., was instantly killed, along with his passenger, Dalton Muir, 18, when their light airplane crashed on farm, two miles north of Tillsonburg airport. Laur, one of youngest licensed pilots in Canada, was practising crop dusting, which calls for flight from 30 to 40 feet above the ground, when the accident occurred.

The building of $90,000,000 Inter-provincial oil pipelines from Edmonton to Superior, Wisconsin, is a job for big machines. Here, one of largest trenching machines ever to operate in Canada, is seen digging out a five-foot ditch, which would ordinarily take 500 men to complete. The 1,150-mile pipeline, which is expected to be completed by fall, will be used to market Alberta oil to U.S.

BLUE-AND WET-MONDAY — It's washday as usual for Cherry Webb in a residential section of flooded Winnipeg, Manitoba. And even though the weather's not with her, she has the full moral support of the neighborhood youngsters.