New Mutual Fund Shares Now Offered

Shares of a new Mutual Investment Fund - Balance Mutual Fund of Canada Ltd. - are currently being offered by the sponsor of Commonwealth International Corporation Ltd. and Leverage Fund of Canada Ltd. Objectives of the new fund will be to provide a reasonable return on the shareholders investment, payable quarterly; to conserve the value of the investment and to secure a reasonable growth of both principal and income through participation in an extensive group of carefully selected securities. Investment policy includes holdings in Government of Canada and other bonds, in preferred and common stocks and is to maintain a broad diversification between investments in different industries and in individual companies. Bylaws stipulate that not less than 20 per cent or more than 75 per cent of the Fund's investment assets must be in bonds, debentures or preferreds at all times and that investment in preferreds cannot exceed half the total amount thus required to be invested. The Fund will retain Mutual Fund Statistical Surveys Limited to supply statistical information and to advise generally in regard to investments. Officers and directors are: F. J. Brennan, President; D. W. Partidge, vice-president; J. C. Rogers, vice-president; W. H. Wert, secretary-treasurer; P. L. Pratley; C. I. Hall; W. H. Griffiths; Arthur Legueux; J. S. Lightcap; R. W. Robertson.

BALANCED MUTUAL FUND OF CANADA LIMITED
A single investment gives you an interest in many companies in different industries and in three classes of securities - Bonds, Preferred and Common Stocks. The balance between these three classes is changed from time to time by the management in anticipation of expected changes in economic and market conditions. ASK FOR FULL PARTICULARS. F. J. Brennan & Co. Ltd. E. M. BAGNALL - Manager 142 Richmond St. Charlottetown Telephone 1470
