LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Who are the Irresponsibles?

SIR,—The Herald has said that some irresponsible persons were endeavoring to influence Dr. Jenkins against appointing Judge Alley, of the County Court, as Revising Barrister, &c. If this reference is made to the opinions of Liberal Conservative electors, it is both mean and unmanly. Who has a right to remonstrate with Dr. Jenkins, unless it be his friends and supporters? The responsibility emanates from them to the representative, and if the representative will not listen he alone is responsible. There is no doubt Judge Alley is quite competent to do the work of Revising Barrister. Any barrister in Charlottetown is quite competent to do it. In fact, any sheriff or any man who is competent to take the votes at an election is competent to register votes, and it is a pity that this Act was framed limiting the revising or registering officers to either a County Court Judge or Barrister. This is always the work of lawyers. They appear to create work for themselves, and no matter how much butter is on one side of their bread, they must apply it to the other side. The appointment of the County Court Judges in any of these Counties I would say, is quite objectionable. They are paid handsomely for all they do, and I do not see any necessity of supplementing their salaries. I quite agree with you as to your remarks in reference to Judge Alley, and would say that his appointment would be a mistake. George Alley is quite a different man out of office from George Alley the County Court Judge. As recorder of votes he is just as fond of splitting hairs and mystifying matters as he is in the County Court. If it is left to Judge Alley to hold a Registration Court where he pleases, he will do as he did before: meet wherever he holds a County Court, and expect the electors to meet him at a certain hour, and if not there, then he would close up and depart. A Revising Barrister should hold courts of revision for the accommodation and convenience of the electors, and should not be too stiff in even meeting them in every school district. Would Judge Alley lower his dignity by doing that? Unless the Franchise Act clearly specifies what he is to do, and binds him down to do it, there is no elasticity about his person to show that he has any desire to be accommodating to the electors. The man who wanted power enough to enable him to commit any person for contempt of court if they spoke crooked to him while on his way to or from a court, is not the man to be placed in any position of authority more than he has got. He has enough, and let him be content. I would decidedly say that it would be unwise to appoint any of the County Court Judges; and if they are appointed, they should be compelled to do the work for nothing. Under the circumstances let suitable Barristers be selected, and the appointment be given to them. This will give the Liberal Conservative electors, generally, satisfaction, and I don't see that Judge Alley or his friends have any reason to be put out. Your views meet the approval of the supporters of the party, so far as I can learn, and suitable steps should be put forth to convey the wishes of the party to the Government.

Yours truly,
A CONSERVATIVE.

Cattle Raising.

SIR,—I subscribed for your paper about a year ago. Herewith I enclose amount of subscription for 1886. My reason for taking your paper was my interest in the farming of your Island Home.

You have just reason to be proud of your position as agriculturist. Your horses are a by-word of honor to your judgment and position as traders; your sheep, too, are well up to the standard of excellence. In fact, it is a great boon indeed for us Nova Scotia farmers to be able to make drafts from your herds and flocks to improve our stock.

I often think if you were by some means to withdraw from Nova Scotia, all the horses at present in it that were imported from the Island, or their immediate descendants, those left would be but a poor lot. Go on; if we cannot keep pace with you in improvement, at least, we can follow in the distance and take what advantage we can from your improvements.

One thing, though, I cannot quite understand in a class of farmers such as you are, for counting cost and breeding only that which catches on to public opinion, and as a consequence causes the dollars to roll into you,—why you overlook the good qualities of the little Jersey Cow, and give her such a poor place in your Exhibitions? I think it is pretty well acknowledged the world over that she can hold her place—in returning to her owner returns for feed given—with any of the breeds; and as a distinct breed, I think I am safe in saying, she stands about second, and when butter is a consideration she has no rival that can stand next her, all things equal. A few years ago, not over seven years, in Ontario, where they thought that unless a cow—after her usefulness for the dairy was ended—did not finish up her work of good by giving to her last owner a carcass of fat beef, was good for nothing.

The Ontario folk have changed their opinion and; now they claim that there is no breed of cows that can excel the Jersey; and Professor Brown, of Guelph Agricultural College, in one of his recent reports, claims her to be the only thoroughbred cow that it will pay to keep as a thoroughbred for practical farm work, outside of the value of her calves; and you all know what a Durham man Professor Brown is, and no doubt he gave the Jersey a pretty severe test before he gave his verdict to the world. At the Toronto and Hamilton Shows of 1885, an open competition, the Jersey stands ahead in returning more to her owners for feed consumed than any of the other breeds. The very best stock for general farm purposes are Jersey grades, and one of the very best cows in New Glasgow is a Jersey-Durham cross, and she came from your Island.

I cannot understand why it is that your farmers, who make a specialty of butter-making, do not use the Jersey breed in their herds. My word for it, it will pay in more and better butter.

Yours, &c.

The Hon. D. Ferguson.

SIR,—A writer in the Patriot, signing himself "Farmer," makes some unjust allusions to the Honorable D. Ferguson. Such insinuations are unworthy a man of the class to which "Farmer" professes to belong. He abuses without stint and seems to have a particular liking for the occupation he has chosen. Evidently he is actuated by the worst of motives. He cannot conceal his malice. Slander is his stock in trade. To damage Mr. Ferguson in the estimation of the farmers is his object.

As is well known, Hon. Mr. Ferguson is a practical farmer. He has contributed largely to the agricultural exhibits of the Province, in the most important branches. For a number of years he has taken a leading part in the management of the Exhibitions. In doing so he has shown himself worthy of public confidence, and his actions have met with general approval. Even those who are politically opposed to him are free to admit that he has done more than any other man to advance the best interests of the Island. For his efforts in that direction he deserves the thanks of the whole community.

By giving the foregoing publication you will oblige

Rustico Items.

Considerable produce has already been shipped from this port. Prices are as follows: Oats, 30 to 31 cts; potatoes, 14 to 15 cts.

The great necessity of a tug boat is being consulted by traders here. This is a move in the right direction.

The schooners Eddy and M. A. Jewell, owned by Messrs Laird and Battenburg, discharged cargo and sailed for Miramichi last week.

Notwithstanding the very dense fog which prevailed last Friday, some large catches of mackerel were taken by the seines. Much difficulty was experienced in making the harbor. Many of the boats were run ashore, and one especially did not reach the harbor until 11 p. m., the day following.

The Break Water has greatly improved the harbor. Foreign vessels have on different occasions sought refuge in it. Over eight feet of water is said to be on the bar at low tide. It is to be hoped that Rustico Harbor will soon be provided with a life boat, which I presume would be promptly granted by the Government if applied for. The very great necessity of a life boat at Rustico Harbor has been frequently felt, yet nothing has been done in the way of procuring that which would have on several occasions saved life and property. In case of a vessel being stranded at or near the harbor and a heavy sea rolling what steps can be taken to save the suffering crew from the jaws of death without such service on our shore. Men here are at different times undergoing great peril and hardships while attempting to board stranded vessels with skills which were by no means suitable for such hazardous undertakings. Such go to prove that Rustico should no longer be destitute of a well equipped life-boat service.

Last week a rumor was current to the effect that a gold mine was discovered in the vicinity of Wheatley River. The unfortunates who were for a time very anxious to hear from head quarters concerning the real value of the ore which was then being prepared to be forwarded to Charlottetown, to undergo an analytical process, when to the utter surprise of the prospectors they were informed that their much prized ore was but fragments of a stone plate which had succumbed to the intense heat of a neighbors cooking-stove. There is no doubt it bore a very metallic appearance. The sad disappointment is very embarrassing indeed.

South Rustico, Oct. 6.

Advices from Prisco, Peru, state that the Montoneros occupying Ica number 250. Canete also fell into their hands after an hours' fighting. The celebrated Montonero Paezco was taken prisoner.

A band of Mussulman and Christian brigands near Smyrna have captured a young Englishman named Fred Charnand. They say if £9,000 ransom is not paid the prisoner will be killed.

The Czar has called a meeting of governors of the various provinces to be held during the present month, in order to confer with them respecting the internal condition of Russia.

A Scotch boy ran away from home and became penniless. "Why don't you write to your father and ask for aid?" said an acquaintance. "Because he is 'so near' and yet so far."

The Standard complains bitterly of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's lack of a programme and says it is useless to denounce the Liberal programme if he has nothing to substitute.

Louis Kossuth, from feeble health, has been compelled to stop teaching English at Turin and has gone to live in the Alps on a farm, where his sons will hereafter support him.

As a part of the marriage ceremony in Servia the bride has to hold a piece of sugar between her lips as a sign that she will speak little and sweetly during her married life.
