Perez Stops Willie Pep

NEW YORK (AP)—Young Lulu Perez of Brooklyn stopped 31-year-old Willie Pep in 153 of the second round on the three-knock-out rule at Madison Square Garden Friday night. Pep weighed 127 1/2, one pound more than Perez.

Referee Al Berli halted the fight after the former featherweight champion for the third time with a vicious right to the head.

A left and right dropped the former ring great for nine shortly after the round began. Swarming after the ring-scarred Hartford, Conn., veteran, the flashy Perez clipped Pep with a right uppercut that snapped Willie's head back and brought a roar from the crowd.

Another right dropped Pep right on his pants. He shook his head and then got up at the eighth count. Lulu stormed after him again, throwing punches with machine-gun speed. As Willie backed against the ropes, Lulu smashed over another right and Willie hit the deck for the third time.

Little Sands And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Saunders and family, Murray River, visited relatives in Little Sands on Sunday.

Mrs. Hazel Lee, Charlottetown, P.E.I., accompanied by Mrs. Mary MacNeil, formerly of Little Sands, now one of the employees of the staff of the Provincial Sanatorium, Charlottetown, left by plane on Feb. 15, on a short visit to New York City and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Nicolle, Newcastle, N.B., arrived in the city on Feb. 13, to visit Mr. Nicolle's mother, who is a patient in the P. E. Island Hospital. They left on return Sunday evening for Newcastle. Mrs. Nicolle, Jr. formerly belonged to Little Sands. Her many friends in town and country wish this Christian lady a speedy recovery. Her husband Mr. H. Nicolle, Sr., also resides in Charlottetown.

The following account of Broadview Farm Forum meeting at Little Sands was related by one of the members. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. Hugh MacNeil on Monday evening. The condition of the roads and the bad weather reduced attendance. While listening over the radio to the King's County Board of Trade meeting to hear the views of the Broadview Forum of Little Sands in regard to trade with the U.S. announced on the CBC. Several interesting topics were discussed which would take too much space to give in detail. Altogether there was an interesting meeting with a delicious lunch served at the close.

UNITED CHURCH Continued from page 1. The regular meeting of King's County Hospital Nursery Club was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. D. M. MacDonald. There were 30 members present. The treasurer presented the report of the successful carnival held recently. The buying committee reported purchasing one and a half dozen baby shirts. The same committee was instructed to buy a bottle sterilizer and a bolt of flannel. Seven crib sheets were completed during the evening. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Jan Bennett, and the lunch committee will be Mrs. Marion MacDonald and Mrs. Mae Jamieson.

PERSONALS Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hecobotham, Halifax, were recent visitors to Montague, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Campbell.

Mr. Donald Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Stewart, Montague, enlisted in the RCAF at Summerside Tuesday. Mr. Stewart will leave for St. Johns, Que., on March 17, to begin his initial training.

Dutch Lad Befriends Fellow Immigrant MONTREAL (CP)—The paths of a Norwegian farmer and an 8-year-old Dutch boy crossed at Montreal's Central Station Wednesday and the farmer will never forget the meeting.

Edvard Mydland, en route from Algard, Norway with his wife and two young children to work as a farmhand near Edmonton, discovered shortly after arriving here he had lost his wallet. It contained nearly $200 and was all the money he had.

Unable to make himself understood, he and his wife did not report the loss but searched frantically through the station concourse to no avail.

The billfold had been picked up by Robert Lampe, 8-year-old native of Gelsenkirchen, the Netherlands, who was also passing through the station with his mother, Mrs. Alice Lampe. They were also new arrivals to Canada, en route to see relatives in Toronto.

Robert immediately turned it over to the green light attendant who found two baggage checks in it.

Minutes later Mydland reported to the green light and said he did not know how he was going to get his bags out of the checkroom because he had lost his billfold. His passport confirmed that the overjoyed farmer owned the wallet, and a meeting was arranged between the man and boy.

Since neither spoke the other's language, the farmer used the sign language and a handsome reward to show his gratitude to his tiny fellow immigrant.

Fast Disappearing Ice In Montague River

With continued mild weather, the ice in the Montague River is fast disappearing, and already the seaway is open to the lowest basin beyond MacEachern's Point. It has been noticed that scarcely at any time this year has the river ice been safe for travel to any great extent. Previous mild spells also opened the first basin.

Of greater importance, however, is the fact that the Georgetown Harbour is free of ice and at no time during the winter was the pack so thick that safe travelling might be considered. This is perhaps the first winter that the Georgetown Harbour has been in this condition, and may possibly serve as a strong contention for having Georgetown sit up as a port of winter call, not only for ferry traffic, but for pot-boats and pulpwood boats as well.

A source, well known for his knowledge of the sea, stated that the harbour might well have been used all this winter by potato and pulpwood boats, thus providing a movement of produce, and a source of employment.

Several years ago the question of establishing Georgetown as a ferry port for an extended fall season was mooted, and received the active support of the King's County Board of Trade, together with the other organization.

With an open harbour season such as at present, negotiations might possibly be resumed with a view to using the facilities of this year-round harbour, first to establish an extended ferry schedule with Nova Scotia, and second to bring in large shipping boats for the movement of produce.

The effect economically for King's County, might not be inconsiderable, and with public approval following due and proper consideration of the project in all its aspects, it might well be possible to secure the full support which it so possibly deserves.

Urged a "determined stand against bingo and raffles," noting that the law governing bingo is "not being observed in many cases."

Asked members of the church to "refrain from race-track gambling and to endeavor to create a public opinion in opposition to it" and reduce the number of racing days on tracks in their areas.

More Money

Continued from page 1. ous industries with actual 1953 investment in brackets: Agriculture, fishing, forestry and the construction industry $563,000,000 ($635,000,000); mining, quarrying and oil wells $312,000,000 ($280,000,000); heavy manufacturing $622,000,000 ($725,000,000); other manufacturing $213,000,000 ($215,000,000); trade, finance and commercial services $347,000,000 ($400,000,000); utilities $1,239,000,000 ($1,168,000,000); housing $1,122,000,000 ($1,086,000,000); institutions $409,000,000 ($301,000,000); government departments $811,000,000 ($789,000,000).

Will Increase

Continued from page 1. that his department, "after further consideration," has decided to employ more full-time workers to put the short week into effect.

Another change from the original plan is that, instead of everyone having Saturdays off, it will be a "rotation" system in which the carriers will get different days off each week. The new employees will join in the rotation method along with the old ones.

Mr. Cote did not estimate the number that would have to be hired to work out the scheme but a senior official of his department said about 600 would be needed.

Some of those taken on permanently, it was expected, would be those in the so-called "liquidation" staffs now used to permit a six-day delivery with a 44-hour week.

Initially, the Postmaster-General told the Commons that representatives of the Letter Carriers' Association had endorsed the casual help plan late last year.

Employees' Support

More recently, he said Friday there had been a "reaction" against the proposal and it now appeared the use of permanent workers has the support of the department's employees.

To Commemorate Paardeberg Day

The dwindling ranks of the Boer War veterans tomorrow will celebrate Paardeberg Day, 54th anniversary of one of the bitterest battles in one of the hardest military campaigns in modern times.

There are just four of the veterans left in the area, Lieut. Col. W. C. Cook, and Messrs. T. Ambrose Rode, Harry Hyde and Charles Hine. One other veteran is still in the Province Mr. J. E. MacDonald, Kensington. Another group of three who served with the Islanders are Emmett Bowness, Calgary, Herbert Brown, Detroit, and Lorne Stewart, Winnipeg, who visited his former home last summer.

Two other city men gave their lives in the fight, Alfred Riggs and Roland Taylor. The two were close personal friends prior to the war and had planned on studying together at the ministry together. Mr. Taylor was the first to fall in battle and the funeral service for him was conducted by Mr. Riggs who wrote an account of it back home. However, a short time before the letter was received word arrived of his death as well.

Two of the present veterans, Messrs. Rode and Hyde, went over to South Africa in the First Contingent. Mr. Rode, who lives in Milton, enjoys good health and hopes to be present at the observance tomorrow and again at the Legion Home Tuesday when the veterans will be honored by the Canadian Legion as they have been in the past years.

Mr. Rode landed in South Africa on October 25, 1899, and the general orders show that his outfit took part in ten battles even though the war was almost over except for guerrilla fighting. Mr. Hyde was in the same contingent of which Rev. Thomas Fullerton, father of Guy Clerk James Fullerton, was the unit padre. Mr. Hyde is now a retired pensioner of the Canadian National Railways and is an ardent gardener. His garden each year is one of the show places.

Col. Cook is another active member of the group and is well known as a photographer here. Mr. Hine, unfortunately, has not been in good health for some time and has been confined to hospital for over a year.

French War Crime Trial Collapses

PARIS (Reuters)—The trial of Hitler's police chief for occupied France collapsed on its third day Wednesday after the judge slipped up on a point of law.

Ex-general Karl Oberg and his wartime aide, Col. Henri Knochen, were being tried on war crimes covering deportation of 240,000 political prisoners and Jews, mass executions, beatings and torture.

Judge Jean Reynard was rejecting a defence plea based on the Geneva convention of prisoners of war.

Oberg and Knochen have lost their status as prisoners of war and are war criminals, he said.

KINLOOS, Scotland (CP)—Fourteen RCAF Sabre jet fighters, the first in Europe equipped with the Canadian-developed Orenda engine, arrived Tuesday, completing a transatlantic flight started Feb. 10 from Montreal.

The arrival of the jets, which are scheduled to continue to No. 4 fighter wing at Baden-Soellingen, Germany, today, inaugurated "Operation Random," successor to "Operation Leapfrog" which had equipped the RCAF's 1st Air Division in Europe with Mark II Sabres.

The new Mark V Sabres, faster and able to climb more speedily, will replace the older models in the four-wing air division. The older types will go to North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies.

Thinks Snowman More Than Myth

TORONTO (CP)—Sir Edmund Hillary, 34-year-old New Zealander who was the first man to stand atop Mount Everest, believes the "abominable snowman" which Tibetan natives say inhabits the heights of Everest, is more than just a myth.

In an interview on his arrival in Toronto Wednesday the famed mountaineer said: "There is no doubt some strange creature inhabits the heights of Mount Everest and makes tracks in the snow, but we don't know what, it is."

Bar Association Meets At Halifax

HALIFAX (CP)—The Canadian Bar Association decided at its annual meeting Tuesday that abuses of authority by members of the federal income tax department "have not yet reached the stage where they constitute an infringement upon civil liberties."

The decision came after Gerald Teed of Saint John, N.B., asked the association to investigate two cases of alleged discrimination against individual taxpayers by officials acting in excess of their authority.

President John MacAuley of Winnipeg said that representations to senior officers of the department usually brought prompt action in such cases.
