

Blanchard Expository

- there is a new Irving girl in 201, right Christine?
- Judy C. hits the big 20 today. Happy Birthday Jude the Dude.
- Some girls value "programs" dearly.
- How do we get "turnered" around?
- Brad B. and Alan M. were "Loss Cos" (Cosmo) in Moncton.
- Earl G. had a "fined" trip back to C'town.
- Aion has been really

- "comfie" lately.
- Ruthie got it but lost it again.
- tonight could have such a "punch" that everyone will be "shining".
- Any stud ranches in Saskatchewan, Helen?

- I guess the guys out west are best aye Lorna?
- Janet made a purchase so she will no longer be em-bare-ass-ed.
- another week of classics over and done with.
- NHL scouts are coming down to recruit Walter J. , the star of the Canada Winter Games.
- Anne Marie Aylward has a handicap or should we say a nightcap.
say a Mitchcap.
- Gretchen in 320 is shy, at least according to a certain someone.
- Carla Conn won the Moonshine Mama award.
- Carla we miss you!!
- Jennifer M. is on the wagon believe it or not.
- Joan D. in 211 has quite a bite!!!
- Chris R. wants to be a cowboy... must have been influenced by the Saskatchewan girls.
- Sue M. likes RCMP officers.
- want to join a new club? It's called WHCT Club. Info to come.
- you better watch your step, or should I say Foote.

Player's Extra Light.
Enjoy the taste of Player's in an extra light cigarette.

YOUR HANDSHAKE MIGHT COST YOU A JOB

OTTAWA (CUP)--- According to a recent survey, employers have some unusual reasons for rejecting job candidates.

In '50 Reasons For Rejections In Interviews', number 20 is "a limp, fishy handshake," number 22 is "loafs during vacations," number 35 is "low moral standards," number 30 is "parents make decisions for interviewee," and number 39 is "spends too much time at the movies."

Guess we should leave at intermission.

