

SUCCESS AT READINGS

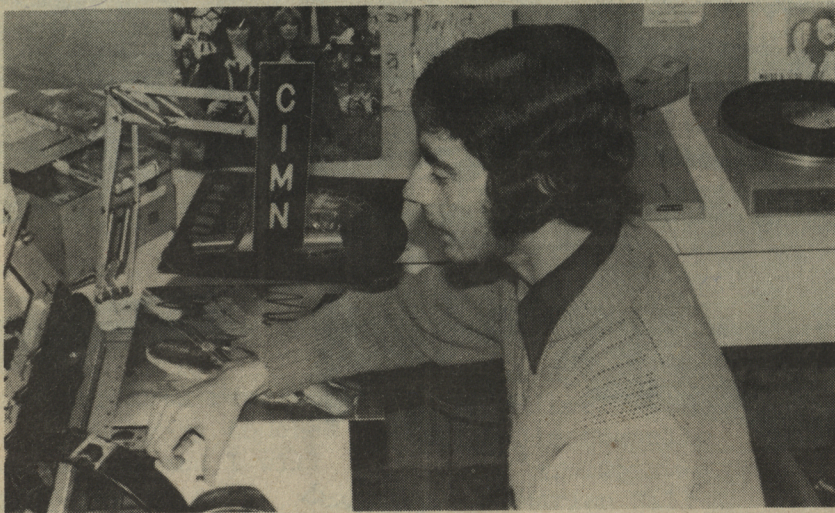

Who ever said UPEI students are totally apathetic? Surely a myth instigated by empty halls; however, if last Tuesday evening in Marian Hall is any indication, the mystics are wrong. The OPEN READINGS thrive on variety, both in speakers and audience. To date, each week has witnessed a significant increase in numbers attending and quality as well. The only major change has taken place in the coffee and donut end of things - there are not as many to go around as before. So, watch the posters in the library and in Main building for details on who will open the evening. If you have any comments or wish to find out more, contact me, Mark Ledwell, on campus. Remember, if you don't have time, make time; it's worth it.

CAMPUS COMMENT

By Ann Higdon and Todd MacLaughlan
THE QUESTION OF THE WEEK
What do you think of Communism in Canada?

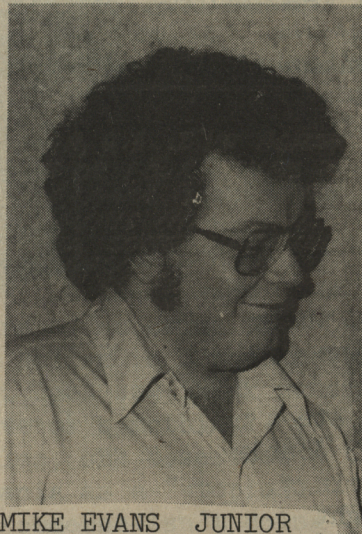

SHELLEY TAYLOR SENIOR

I don't think it should come into Canada. I don't think it ever will. Canada's a free democratic country.

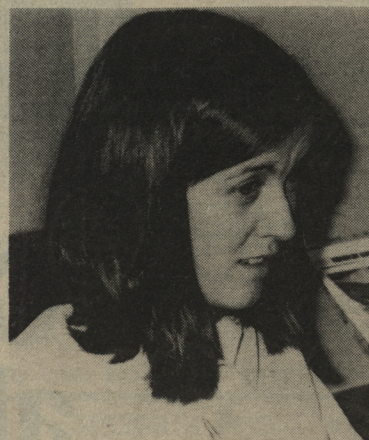

CHRIS MACKINNON JUNIOR

I don't think there should be any communism in Canada. I think we're doing just fine. I like the way I'm living right now, with the little bit of freedom that I have.

MIKE EVANS JUNIOR
Kaborsch, Kaborsch,
CENSORED Kaborsch.

FRANCOISE FLEURY SOPHOMORE

In this society we have a lot of work to do to reach communism. A lot of their ideas are good, but their means are not so good.

LIM LAI SENG
Sophomore
No comment.

DANNY SENTNER
Senior

I think they have a right to exist. I don't agree with their ideology or their tactics. But I think within our supposedly democratic society everybody should be allowed to express his or her point of view.

JOHN GALLANT JUNIOR

I don't think we should allow communists to enter this country.
