Red Wings Call Up Rookie Centre

DETROIT, Oct. 27 (AP)—Detroit Red Wings today called up rookie centre Alex Delvecchio, who has been with their Indianapolis farm club this season.

The 20-year-old Fort William, Ont. youth is rated one of the Wings' best prospects in years. He will report for the Wings' National Hockey League game at Toronto Saturday.

The Wings sent rookie Larry Wilson of Kincardine, Ont., to Indianapolis to replace Delvecchio.

BACK TO NORMAL

KAMSACK, Sask. (CP)—Owners of boats located on Madge Lake have been warned to make sure their craft are high and dry. The lake now is higher than it has been for six years, and snow this winter will raise the lake to its proper level which hasn't been reached for some time.

BUYING OATS

To be loaded in cars at any station on Prince Edward Island. Also buying mixed grain at our warehouse in Kensington.

The man who licked cancer

"You have about 7 weeks to live," said the doctor. But young Lt. Rosenberg asked God to help him stay alive and in the Navy he lived.

November Reader's Digest tells how a doomed man fought off 3 "fatal" attacks of cancer, that persuaded Congress to pass a law so he could return to Navy duty.

Read Rosenberg's amazing history—proof that prayer and faith can heal, told by a man who knows because the miracle happened to him.

Get your copy of November Reader's Digest today: 45 articles of lasting interest, condensed from leading magazines, current books.
