Fisheries Boat For Carnival

Word was received yesterday morning from Ottawa that the Fisheries Patrol ship, the converted minesweeper "Cygnus" will be stationed at Summerside during the Lobster Carnival and will carry visitors on sight-seeing trips out of the harbor and for a short trip along the Island shore line. Tentative plans call for the ship to leave the Marine Wharf at Summerside at about 10 a.m. daily. A large number of persons can be taken on the trip but a second will be offered if crowds become too large.

Lot 11 A.Y.P.A. Meeting Held

St. Peter's Jr. A.Y.P.A. met at the home of Russell Palmer on Friday evening. Meeting opened by singing "Jesus Saves" followed by scripture reading by Janet Palmer and Psalm XXII read in unison led by Glenn Hardy. Study period for next meeting is to be conducted by Glenn Hardy. Devotional session then closed by singing "When He Cometh" followed by prayers. Roll call answered by eleven members opened the business session. One new member was welcomed. The president, Janette Banks, gave a brief report on the Diocesan Conference with she attended at Halifax on May 17, 18 and 19. It was moved and seconded that we send a "Get Well Message" to Venerable G.R. Harrison. June Palmer invited the members to her home on June 6th for next meeting. The committees were appointed for next meeting. Since there was no further business the meeting then came to a close by singing "Blessed be The Tie That Binds" and was dismissed by the president. Lunch was served by the hostess. Banks assisted by the hostess.
