Six Round Trips Made Yesterday By The Fairview

With a thorough knowledge of harbour conditions and the ability to take advantage of every lead, Capt. Jerry Doucette was able to guide the "Fairview" on no less than six round trips to Rocky Point yesterday. Three of the trips were made before noon, the ferry being nosed over the difficult route thrice again before nightfall.

Except for a brief period of illness, Captain Doucette has been holding the "Fairview" to her course in fair weather and foul since he brought her to Charlottetown on her maiden voyage on December 14th., 1935, fresh off the stocks. A native of Rusticoville, the Captain took command after an apprenticeship in the coastal service which carried him into every harbour from Newfoundland to Boston, gaining the special experience which comes to those who are in the coastal trade.

Speaking of his experience during the winter months while endeavouring to keep the service open between the city and Rocky Point, Captain Doucette recalled that during the winter before last, the ship was in operation daily except on February 15th, up to the end of that month. The one-day stoppage was made to permit repairs being made to the ship, more particularly to overhaul the engines. The winter of 1936-37 was another open season for good seamanship and more favourable conditions when the "Fairview" carried on except between February 12th and 28th. Then, as on the more recent occasion, she was laid up for engine repairs.

The earliest closing date for navigation between the city and Rocky Point was December 22 which the Captain is able to check from his records.

Truman Delivers State-Of-The-Union Message To Congress

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 — (AP) —President Truman today warned Russia's Premier Stalin to steer clear of war or risk destruction of the Russian homeland by awesome new United States atomic weapons perhaps even dwarfing the hydrogen "hell"-bomb.

And to the incoming Republican administration of President-elect Eisenhower, Truman bade God-speed in coping with the grave problems that lie ahead. With it he coupled this admonition:

"We must stick to our guns and carry out our policies."

In a farewell "state-of-the-union" message to Congress, the President addressed himself directly to Stalin as he cautioned the Soviet Premier that vast strides in the development of U.S. atomic weapons and growing Western military strength would doom Russia in the event of another great war.

Bluntly, the President told Stalin that war between the East and West would spell "ruin for your regime and your homeland."

Such a war is not possible for rational men, he said. He declared it could send Western civilization down to ruin along with Russia.

Less than 100 of the 433 House of Representatives members were on hand as the clerk read the message. Many lawmakers paid no attention. Some read newspapers; others chatted.

FRANKFURT, Jan. 7—(Reuters) —A self-styled German fakir, who has been living without food in a glass cage here since Oct. 25, today decided to extend his fast until Sunday. Willie Schmitz originally planned to leave his cage tomorrow, after living 75 days on mineral water and cigarets.

To Hold Tuxis Model Parliament In Charlottetown

The Tuxis and Older Boy's Parliament, sponsored by the Maritime Religious Council, expect to hold a Model Parliament in Charlottetown during the Easter holidays. This decision was reached at the recent meeting of the Parliament held at Mount Allison University, Sackville, N. B., which was attended by six representatives and two observers from this Province.

The director of the Parliament was Whitney Dalrymple. Officers were: Speaker, Charles Cheeseman, Fredericton, N. B.; Premier, Fred Bezanson, Halifax; Deputy Premier, Tom Denton, Saint John, N. B. Parliamentary rules and rules of debate were followed throughout the sessions.

A number of resolutions dealing with youth were discussed and approved, including the banning of indecent literature, the importance of missions, the sanctity of Sunday, Christian leadership and the importance of youth in the church and community.

Representatives from this Province were: John Montgomery, Bedeque; Kenneth Blakeney and Murray Mayhew, Kensington; Harold Bernard, Hunter River; Milton Ward, Hampshire, and David Stewart, Montague. Observers were William Moase, Kensington and Allison Profitt, Freetown.

Hepburn Funeral Held Yesterday

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Jan. 7 — (CP)—Mitchell F. Hepburn was buried today after a funeral attended by friends and many of his former political foes.

The funeral for the colorful farmer-politician who served as Liberal Premier of Ontario from 1934 to 1942 was one of the largest in this city's history. But, at the request of the family, the service was kept simple and it lasted less than half an hour.

Premier Leslie Frost was present, together with four former Premiers T. L. Kennedy, George Drew, George S. Henry and Harry Nixon.

Rev. Harry Rodney, conducted the service at Knox Presbyterian Church, said Mr. Hepburn, who died Monday at 56, had such a gift of making friends that he could win even persons who differed with him politically with his famous smile and warm handshake.

"We shall leave appraisal of his political greatness to others more at home in that field," said Mr. Rodney.

To the Hepburn family Mr. Rodney offered this comfort:

"Death opens the door to the greatest experience that man can know. Those whom we know and love pass on through it to a greater realm of life that is eternal."

The heavy walnut casket was lowered into the ground of St. Thomas Cemetery not far from the snow-covered grave of the grandfather whose name Mr. Hepburn bore to political fame.

Active pallbearers were personal friends of the former Premier. They were Magistrate E. Donald Smith, T. Edward Neely, Robert W. Rankin, George Ponsford, Lewis S. Johnson and Stewart Black.

Representing Prime Minister St. Laurent was Robert McCubbin, Liberal member of Parliament for Middlesex West and Parliamentary Assistant to Agriculture Minister Gardiner.

Anti-God Drive In Czechoslovakia

LONDON, Jan. 7—(Reuters)—If mother believes in God, the best thing to do is to laugh at her, Czech youth was advised tonight by the Communist state radio.

The old folks don't seem to have much knowledge of what is going on today, a character remarked in a play broadcast by Prague radio on the problem of religious belief. But the youth's conclusion was that there is hope for them yet.

The play was part of a new "anti-God" drive recently launched in Czechoslovakia.

The Communists, believing that man alone shapes his own destinies, want to wipe out religious "superstitions" from the minds of the youth.

In Russia the Communists have had 35 years in which to mould the minds of the young. In other Iron Curtain countries, where the Church formerly exercised considerable influence, the Communists have had only a few years in which to enforce their ideas.

The fathers and mothers, brought up to believe in God, do not discard their old beliefs overnight. With the state controlling all schools and children's organizations, it is far easier to teach atheism to the young.

The play broadcast by Prague radio touched the core of a problem common to other Iron Curtain states — the conflict between what the children are taught at school and at home where the parents are "believers".

Contrary to popular belief, witches are not harmed by having their hands turned backwards.

25th Anniversary Of Ch'town Legion Branch

The twenty-fifth anniversary of receiving their charter will be celebrated this evening by the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., at a special dinner at the "home", Grafton Street.

The dinner and program which has been arranged by the Branch executive under the president, Charles Sinclair, will have as guest speaker Major T. E. MacNutt. Provincial and civic dignitaries will be present. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Legion will do the catering.

The Legion as an organization has been a voice in the progress of the City and Province since its organization. Not only has its resolutions dealt with national matters, but with provincial and civic affairs, ever having in mind its duty and obligations to those who had served in the defence forces.

It was at the close of the First Great War that a branch of the Great War Veterans Association was established. It was out of a union of such associations that the Canadian Legion emerged. It is a far cry from those pioneer days, but the faith and vision the early leaders had in such an organization have been well borne out and the fruits of their efforts realized.

The records show that it was on a June evening in 1926 in a resolution moved by Major MacNutt that the Great War Veterans Association of Prince Edward Island formally placed itself on record as being in favor of the objects and aims of the British Empire Service League and merged itself with the Canadian Legion.

Prison Terms For Safe-Cracking Job

GLACE BAY, N.S., Jan. 7 — (CP) — Three men and three women who returned from Toronto to their native Nova Scotia for a $7,500 safe-cracking job, today were sentenced to penitentiary terms.

The three women earlier pleaded innocent but today changed it to guilty and received suspended sentences.

Ralph Connolly, 23, and Thomas MacDonald were sentenced to four years each and Charles Giffin was given two years.

The three women, Evangeline Giffin, Irene Kyle and Mrs. Ellen Mair, were arrested with the men near Fredericton Dec. 16.

British Bank Profits Increase

LONDON, Jan. 7 —(Reuters) —A leading British bank surprised financial circles today by announcing payment of a 16-per-cent share dividend, a rise of one per per cent and the first increase for 21 years.

The National Provincial Bank, one of Britain's "big five" banking houses, changed its dividend for the first time since 1932, when it dropped from 16 to 15 per cent.

Bank profits have increased since a government order that higher interest must be charged on loans.

Crosses Atlantic In 19-Foot Boat

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 — (AP) —An Englishman in a 19-foot sailboat today completed a cross-Atlantic trip he described as "just a holiday."

Patrick Ellam of London said the toughest part of the voyage that started in England in September, 1952, was sailing up New York Bay yesterday.

"I had freezing spray on the sails and some was going down my neck," Ellam said.

The idea of the trip, he said, was to prove that little yachts like his British-built "Sopranino" do not have to be transported by steamer across the ocean but can make it under their own sail power.

The "Sopranino" has no engine. Ellam was accompanied on most of the trip by Colin Mudie, another Englishman.

Mudie decided to stay ashore when the little cutter-rigged craft reached Cuba. Ellam continued on alone.

Ellam said the craft sailed from England to Casablanca, thence to the Canary Islands, followed a 2,700-mile run to the Barbados, in the British West Indies, thence to Cuba and Miami, Fla.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7—(AP)—President-elect Eisenhower today named John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State College, to replace Mrs. Anna Rosenberg as assistant secretary of defence in charge of manpower and personnel.

The 51-year-old educator is taking a leave of absence from the college to accept the appointment, it was announced by James C. Hagerty, press secretary to the President-elect.

27 Arrested As Violence Threatens In Montreal Strike

MONTREAL, Jan. 7 — (CP) — Police arrested 27 men and seized a truck loaded with sticks, stones and bones as violence threatened today in a strike of 200 private operators of trucks hired by the city for garbage and snow removal.

The men, arrested in three sections of the city, were charged with intimidation and conspiracy.

The strike began Monday after the truckers rejected a city offer of $2.25 hourly for operation of the truck and a chauffeur's wages. They were receiving $1.80 and asked for $2.75.

The trucks had not been in operation since the strike began. There was no collection of garbage yesterday—Feast of the Epiphany—and there is little snow on Montreal's streets.

Leopold Lavoie, technical adviser to the Professional Association of dump Truck Owners, said the arrested men were members of the Association and were conducting legal picket operations. They were taken into custody for no apparent reason, he said.

In addition to increased hourly rates, the Association asked for an exclusive contract with the city. Mr. Lavoie said hiring of truckers indiscriminately by the city was an important factor in the dispute.

The increased rate of $2.75 hourly was demanded for hours between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. the truckers requested $3.50 after 5 p.m. and for Sunday, holidays or emergency work, such as clearing of the streets after a heavy snowfall.

Alfred Belanger, assistant director of police, promised protection to truckers until the dispute is settled

Fine Christmas At Orphanage

Yesterday at St. Vincent's Orphanage, some forty children trooped joyfully back to school after Christmas holidays that were made doubly happy by the friendliness and charity of individuals and groups all over the Island

Among the events arranged for ther enjoyment they will long remember the Maritime Major Hockey League game that they attended, the Girl Guides supper at Parkdale, the Notre Dame Academy Christmas concert, and the visit of Santa Claus arranged by Holman's Ltd.

A lasting place in their gratitude is given to a group of St. Dunstan's College students who must have made real sacrifices to provide, as they did a year ago the Orphans' Christmas dinner. Almost equally appreciated were the visit of the students and the sing-song which they all enjoyed together.

Outstanding monetary donations contributing to the well-being of the children came from many individuals and from the following groups: The Centennial Y's Men's Club, the O'Connell Picnic Fund, the Canadian Legion, Charlottetown, Alpha Y's Men's Club and the Clarke Fruit Company, various subdivisions of the C.W.L. and branches of the Women's Institute, the George Roger's Estate, and the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Generous gifts in kind were received from the Kinsmen of Charlottetown and Summerside, the Women's Auxiliary of R.C.A.F. Station, Summerside, the Vocational School, Charlottetown, the Queen Hotel, Summerside, Canadian Legion, Summerside, many parishes and schools throughout the Island and from various business houses.

A gift which has been a constant source of entertainment and promises happy memories of Christmas throughout the year is the two modern record players donated by the Kinette Club of Charlottetown. Greatly appreciated also is the large donation of knitted articles annually received from Egmont Bay parish.

FAMINE FARE

During a famine in China in the 16th century, thousands of natives boiled leather sides for hours and then ate them.

DORSTEN, Germany, Jan. 7—(Reuters)—A huge Roman military camp dating back 2,000 years has been found here by a scientific team of the Muenster State Museum of Early History. Workmen of the Westphalian Lippe Water Works digging a deep ditch to lay a new pipeline found an amphora, a Roman wine jug, three feet high with a capacity of about six gallons.
