

THE SHIFT IS "IN"

The slender shift is fashion that's definitely "in" for spring 1963 with the young crowd. This one is in zephyr, light printed silk with oriental slit seams, button-down collar, cuffs and the ever-popular shirt-front closing. This dress will be one of many shown at the National Collection Show in Montreal today.

ELLEN'S DIARY

One Day's More Than Time Enough to Found A World

February! So by this we have more than time enough to found a world. This gift of February our diary's leaf from the calendar will be a world to treasure. Pleasantly crisp with frost. Fields: stubble, pasture, meadow and plowed land lightly covered with snow. Fleecy clouds moved on a sea of cool blue.

"If the winter weather keeps like this folks agree we can have little complaint." "Now, Ellen, you know where to find us if anything happens go to astray." James said after afternoon, picking up his axe to work with the younger farmer, the wood's work. "We're just back there" he nodded.

"I don't know whether I should like to help them or stay and split some blocks from the woodshed. There is a way," James said after looking over the fields, a horse-drawn load of sticks was being drawn to the heap which grew there.

"I believe I'll stay home" he decided. "The exercise here will supple me up, he grinned happily for the morning's horse game. I wonder," he offered turning to eye the slow sun. "If it will fine then?" "It will be fine," she said. "We are getting quite a amount of snow here this winter. One wrote us recently from another Province. 'This morning, with more falling weather threatening, I found myself poring over a seed - catalogue. It's one way of transporting oneself from reality! The little ones are amusing themselves at the same time with a Spring - 4 Summer number from a mail order store, obviously delighted with the various colors and pictures shown there. And though, how delightful - what great gifts such books are, even if one would never know the pleasure of ordering some from one of them from their pages. There is a joy, just in looking in window - shopping from the woodshed. There is a way to say after school, looking over the fields, a horse-drawn load of sticks was being drawn to the heap which grew there.

KINGSBORO

A number from this area attended the reception at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis MacDonald, Souris East to extend their good wishes to the long ago.

"One poor day!" Remember whose and how short it is! It is God's day, it is Columbus' One day, with life and heart, it is.
