

ELLEN'S DIARY

Roses Red, Violets Blue
I Love One, That Is You

Now out of the sunshine and shadow of the unfolding new year St. Valentine's Day is here. It comes to honor the memory of this early Christian martyr, and although historians declare there is no connection between the practice and his name, to encourage, we think, those whose hearts would send sweet missives to the one they love best.

"To Mother" a lad or a little girl will print the inscription on a first Valentine with painstaking pen. And later with the passing of the tender years, it will be the object of a young affection of another sort the rite attended by a shy smile or with a casual air, the Valentine will go.

"Among my keepsakes—and I may say I treasure it highly"—a matron neither young nor old, offered with a sincere smile not long ago, "is the first Valentine sent me by my lord and master after as they used to tell it, he took a notion to" me! It's no mean affair neither" she chuckled. "If it were any indication of his sentiment, it certainly spoke volumes! Big! And really an ingenious and pretty work of art. Decorated with every symbol of the occasion—hearts and doves and a fat little Cupid with his quiver and bow. And the verse "she giggled girlishly.

"Roses are red, violets are blue I love but one, and that is you!" "It's quaint now and ageing" she smiled, "but come the Day, I'll perhaps drop another tear of happiness in its lace."

So shall the young dispatch today in a nice "sign and portent" of romance to follow. Or maybe only to be recalled as an hallowed incident after the years have cast their aged antlers down the trails of time.

And we older grown, may perhaps today unbind a slim or more imposing packet of kept souvenirs tied about with a fraying pink ribbon and one more keep a tryst with the past. Alone? It is likely, for who is interested much in history long made? But perhaps Granddaughter who has a yen for ancient times may come by, and to her from our treasures we shall weave a tale of the golden roads which wound through the childhood years. Piecing them together, one with another.

And one will be from a first admirer. We shall tell her of it. "He was a nice boy" we shall remember. "Age? Oh about thirteen or so." And we will chuckle recalling "Your great-grandfather always called his daughters' boy-friends, Courtiers".

"When did we see him last?" In the schooldays. Though he remained on the Island, eventually married and reared a family... and died not too many years ago, our paths never crossed. Strange too." And we shall see a pity for age in her eyes. Youth is alive and living. It knows so little, nor should it, of graveyards and death. Only of fetching sun-flecked paths leading on ahead.

So St. Valentine's Day is here again, returning memories of dear departed days and ways, to those of us now older-grown and making exciting and precious memories for those who now walk gaily, blithely, the enchanting paths of youth.

Until tomorrow — — Diary — — Good-night.

MR. AND MRS. C. H. STEWART
Double Ring Ceremony

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Roebuck.

Miss Kathleen Dunning played suitable music previous to the ceremony and the wedding march Carl Somers sang "The Lord's Prayer" prior to the wedding and "Oh Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a floor length gown of swiss embroidered peau de soie. The fitted empire bodice featured a scalloped neckline encrusted with sequins, buttoned in back with dozens of tiny covered buttons. The bell-shaped skirt, meeting a full gathered, black belted out over hoops. Her shoulder length veil of bridal illusion was draped to a demilille bow of encrusted sequins, seeded pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Clive Jardine who wore a pink ballerina length gown of net over taffeta with bustle back and large pink bow and streamers. She had matching net gloves. Her hat was a bandeau of sequins with net draped over it. Her corsage was of pink roses.

baggage tan. Her corsage was red roses. Miss Kathleen Dunning was in charge of the guest book.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home for approximately 50 guests. Guides Will Observe
Thinking Day, Feb. 22nd

The following article on Thinking Day has been sent in by the Guides.—Those of you who are new to Guiding may wonder why we are constantly referring to "Thinking Day." To Guides all over the world, this month of February is very important because it contains the Special Day, when we take time out to remember our Sister Guides all over the world.

But why February 22nd, you ask? Well, on February 22nd, 1857, Robert Baden-Powell, the founder of the Guide and Scout Movements, was born. Then on February 22nd, 1889, Olave Soames, who was later to marry B-P and is now Olave, Lady Baden-Powell, our chief Guide, was born. And so at the World Conference in 1926, the suggestion was made that the day be observed as a "Thinking Day" when Guides and Girl Scouts all over the world would take special time to think of each other. The idea was gladly adopted. Six years later, at the Seventh World Conference in 1932, it was suggested that all Guides and Girl Scouts contribute a penny on Thinking Day to help World Guiding; and this suggestion also won rapid acceptance.

Nowadays the day is observed all over the world. In most countries, Guides take part in Special Ceremonies, Church parades, or community bonfires. They exchange special postcards with their pen-friends, or make special gifts for foreign Guides. So now you know about Thinking Day and the World Friendship Fund.

There are 42 countries where we have Girl Guides or Girl Scouts, with a total membership of 4,277,560. The World Friendship Fund has been a great help to foreign countries, who have been anxious to join the great sisterhood of Guides, and have been prevented through the shadow and aftermath of war.

A very lovely idea is being carried out this year, and we hope all over our Island you will see "Lights in the Window" the week preceding Thinking Day. As a tribute to our Founder during Centenary Year 1957, The Guides, Brownies and Guiders of the British Isles planned to have a "Light in the Windows" on February 22nd, and not only a light in their own window, but a light in the window of everyone they could find who had ever had any connection whatsoever with Guiding. Of course, this is

Science Now Shrinks Piles Without Pain Or Discomfort

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain And Itching As It Shrinks Hemorrhoids

Toronto, Ont. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain and itching. Thousands have been relieved with this inexpensive substance right in the privacy of their own home without any discomfort or inconvenience.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was promptly relieved. And while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of even 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a famous scientist in- stitute. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for Preparation H sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
