HAPPENINGS

His worship Mayor J.E. Morrison officially opened the Rotary Am's Tea and Bazaar for Retarded Children on Wednesday afternoon in the New Fire Hall, Summerside, which was introduced by Mrs. C.E. Cornejo, Summerside, of the Rotary Am's. This highly successful occasion had a capacity attendance and had many original and interesting features, as fortune telling by Madames Arcati and Firenze, the Christmas Tree, the Suffle Tree, the Suffle Table, the "Four Corners" gift table; candy and bake tables. There was also a wonderful display of the work accomplished by the Retarded Children with the Misses Jane Graham and Marjorie Woodside in charge of the booth. The Hall was most attractive with its lighted red candles and Christmas motif decorations.

Mrs. Lowell Compton entertained at bridge at her home in Summerside on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. D.J. MacLeod arrived last week at her home in Summerside after visiting in Belmont, Massachusetts, where she was accompanied on her return by her sister, Mrs. H.A. Stewart of Westport, Massachusetts, with whom she will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell and children, Janice, Heather and Mary Ellen, of Charlottetown, returned to Summerside on Monday, Dec. 3, after a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley MacPhee, Summerside.

Mrs. James A Hill left Summerside on Wednesday, Dec. 3, for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloydminster, Alberta to be with her sister, Mrs. Bert Hill, Summerside.

Miss Marial Macdonald of Charlottetown has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lowell Compton in Summerside.

Miss Nora Green arrived on Wednesday from Ottawa, due to the serious illness and death of her sister, Miss Anne Green, Summerside.

Mr. Alan Millman of Moncton, N.B. visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Silliphant, in Summerside this week.

blighted wild winds that come and pass as they pass and re-pass, as though they were searching vainly for something; a lost summer perhaps. Other "Autumn Questions" there are, Margaret Schumacher tells of these in her pretty verses.

"Through rascal leaves, the squirrel rattles, the heaving bronze acorns, winnowing, the bluejay sounds a raucous warning. His need for dwindling seeds turned bold. While through the frosted glances of morning, one last glimpse of gold." Until Monday — — Diary

MR. AND MRS. GERALD L. MACCALLUM

Pretty Wedding Unites Young Couple At Trinity

Trinity United Church in Charlottetown was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding recently, when Edith Marilyn daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Taylor, Charlottetown, became the wife of Gerald Lloyd MacCallum, Dunstafnage, P.E.I.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Clayton C. Lewis. The wedding music was provided by Royton Minto, ARCO, organist, who accompanied Miss Shirley Boies, who sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "Because" during the signing of the register.

Baskets of white and gold gladioli adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with miniature white satin bouquets.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her floor length gown of embroidered silk organza over tulle, featuring a high neckline, light pink sleeves and a bustle back skirt held in place by tiny velvet bows. Her youthful veil of tulle illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms.

Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Sterling MacLure, sister of the bride, as matron of honor and Mrs. Trevor Campbell, friend of the bride, as bridesmaid. They wore identical tulle gowns with bell-skirts and matching headbands and accessories. Their bouquets were of tawny gold roses.

The groom was attended by his brother Roddy, as best man and the ushers were Sterling MacLure, brother-in-law of the bride and Winston Macdonald, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter a wedding dress of pink tone silk brocade with matching feather hat and a corsage of tawny gold roses. Mrs. MacCallum was wearing a chocolate brown crepe dress with beige marouh hat, and matching accessories. Her corsage was of orange roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for 100 guests was held at Stanhope Beach Inn where a three-tier wedding cake topped with a tiny vase of lily of the valley centers, the bride's table. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Roy MacCallum and responded to by the groom.

Miss Patsy Connolly, friend of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Helen MacEACHER entertained the guests with several piano selections during the reception.

For a honeymoon trip to New York the bride wore a two-piece grey wool suit with white feather hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained at miscellaneous showers given by Mrs. Trevor Campbell, Mrs. Jean Ramsay and Mrs. Ethel MacManus. Miss Shirley Boies entertained for her at a supper party where she was presented with a lovely hostess gift. The office staff of Canada Packers also presented Miss Taylor with a gift prior to her marriage.

Upon return from her honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. MacCallum were guests of honor at a community shower in Dunstafnage. After the wedding rehearsal the bridal party was entertained at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd MacCallum.

HAS BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Eleanor Stewart, Charlottetown, celebrated her 83rd birthday recently with a dinner party at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mrs. John Rogerson, Hampton. Attending the affair were her three daughters and their husbands, Mrs. and Mrs. Vernon Mann, Charlottetown, Myrtle; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, Charlottetown, (Amy) and Mrs. Rogerson (Laura). Also attending was her niece, Mrs. Mary Bragg, Charlottetown. Still very active Mrs. Stewart has just finished looking out for which she dyed the wool and went up town to pick out her pattern. She lives with her daughter, Mrs. Mann at 18 Elston Street, and last year received second prize for a hooked mat she entered in the Provincial Exhibition.

Stirling Chapel, Summerside, has received word that her mother, Mrs. Harry Chapell, is seriously ill in hospital in Trenton, Ont. Mr. Chapell left for Trenton yesterday.

The Bedoune "Half Century" Club met at the home of Mrs. James Henderson on Monday, November 26. Twelve members were present. The opening poem was read by Mrs. Ernest Johnson. Following roll call, the minutes of the last meeting were read. The usual club business was conducted and the meeting adjourned for the December Christmas meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. G. Hayes, Summerside, on Tuesday, December 11. The program was provided by Mrs. Charles and Mrs. George Henderson.

Miss Ann Young, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, 59 Spring Park Road, was hospitalized on Wednesday morning at the Children's Hospital in Halifax.

Master Ian Wilson of Moncton, N.B. spent the weekend in Quebec as the guest of Althea Noonan.

Mrs. Ralph Sears has left on her return to Summerside, N.S. after spending the past couple of weeks as the guest of Mrs. Dan and Mrs. Noonan and family of Bedoune.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woolridge, Covehead, recently spent a pleasant weekend in Mass. U.S.A. where they were hosts to guests of Mr. Woolridges and Mrs. Frank Flynn at a Mr. Flynn Luncheon. They also visited another Aunt, Mrs. D.

Tour Of Dairy Highlights Annual Meeting Of Institute

ALBANY — The highlight of the annual meeting of the pleasant Circle Women's Institute, Albany rural, held in November, was a tour of the Amalgamated Dairy Plant in Summerside. The tour was under the leadership of Mr. Elmer Gamble, a member of the staff, who explained the operation of the equipment and the output of the various products. At the conclusion of the tour, the business meeting was held in the afternoon. The annual report was presented and the election of officers held for the year 1962-63. The following were read and approved: president, Mrs. Ralph Dawson; vice-president, Mrs. Eldon Large; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Walter Gamble; directors: Mrs. John Muttart; Mrs. Hazen Dawson; Mrs. Hedley Muttart; Red Cross conveners, Mrs. Ellis-wood Noonan; Mrs. Joseph Dawson; auditors, Mrs. Alan Kough; Mrs. Lorne Cameron; social secretary, Mrs. Orville Cole.

At the close of the business period, lunch featuring the dairy products — cheese, ice cream, and trim-milk, was served by Mrs. Elmer Gamble, assisted by Mrs. Elliswood Noonan.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended by Mrs. George MacKay to Mr. Gamble for conducting the tour and to the manager, Mr. Wright, for the use of the facilities.

THE SOUTH WINSLOW WIFE South Winslow Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. D.A. Cole.

The meeting opened by repeating the Mary Stewart Collect and roll call was answered by nine members who paid their membership fees and donated articles to the Unitarian Service Committee. The minutes of the last regular and annual meetings were read and approved. Correspondence was read and discussed and it was decided to pay the annual fee to the Musical Festival Association.

Committees reported a number of new ones were appointed as follows: sick, Mrs. Dan Cole and Mrs. Orville Turner; school, Mrs. Ernest Stutes and Mrs. Ethel Turner.

Old business was discussed and the birthday box was opened. The following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Mrs. Kelf Ford; vice-president, Mrs. Dan Cole; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Benoit Jenkins; (re-elected); directors, Mrs. George Mackay and Mrs. Allison Ford; auditors, Mrs. Dan Cole and Mrs. Orville Turner.

It was also decided to have the birthday box for the coming year and also to have a surprise package at each regular meeting.

The Christmas meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Orville Turner with roll call to be exchanged "secret pal" gifts not to exceed $1.00. Lunch committee to be Mrs. Orville Turner.
