

CLASSES CANCELLED NOVEMBER 7

By Mark Ledwell

No, not because of an anticipated snow storm, but rather due to an anticipated "great event" here at UPEI. If you have not already noticed the bright red posters and white pins around the campus, don't panic; you'll be well acquainted with them in the next few weeks. Actually, the pins and posters are a part of an intense campaign undertaken by the Students for Symposium '79 at UPEI. Officially, the campaign began on Monday, October 22 with a press conference at Robertson Library Lecture Theatre. On Thursday, October 18, this committee obtained permission from the Senate to postpone all classes on Wednesday, November 7 so that all students at UPEI would be able to attend the upcoming symposium. The question is, why is this Symposium '79 demanding so much attention.

Maybe that can be answered by looking at the thinking behind Symposium '79. The concept is simple: to bring all students together so ideas can be shared concerning why we are students here at university. And no, it won't take a great deal of effort to get there; the agenda you see below is designed to meet the needs of the average student. One more thing:

this is a new idea for Canadian universities and its success depends on you. So, don't let yourself down but plan to attend Symposium '79. Look forward to lots of fun and interesting discussions that any student can participate in or just listen to. Make this a day where we students take over the university and, for once, let the big guys who hand out the grades sit back and watch. Let's do it!

RUMOUR HATH IT

Rumour Hath It.....

- the girls field hockey team finished their season with a perfect record. (no wins, no goals)
- Shelly still can't believe that she ate a spaghetti dinner, drank 8 beer, ate 3 double cheeseburgers, french fries, onion rings, and two pop. (and later on in the night chased it down with pizza.)
- Ann K. was seen dancing with a teddy bear Saturday night.
- U.P.E.I. football players have one more game left.
- a great band, Taboo, is playing at next week's Pig.
- the Home Ec. dinners are scrump-dilly-shous.
- Rabbi's half brother, Tattoo is a regular on Fantasy Island.
- Rob M. likes to sleep in fields by the airport.
- there was a brawl in the Sun Office.
- Todd flashes in the Sun Office.
- it was Victor who thought that the count was 1348 at the Pig, not Bruce.
- the soccer team is on a winning streak.
- Vince Mulligan attends sporting events in his Bermuda shorts.
- Marty H. has the highest score in pinball.
- Second Floor Bernardine is running low on vaseline

Names of speakers and other details will be announced next week. If you have any questions, at all or feel the need to get involved, don't hesitate to get in touch with any of the committee members: Rory Beck, Alan Buchanan, Marsha Gaudet, Larry Green, Bob Kelley, Mark Ledwell, Dan LeClair, Barry MacDonald, Holly MacDonald, Kent Osborne, Joanne Peters and Don Stewart.

Rum flavoured.
Wine dipped.

Crack a pack of Colts along with the books.
