

SPANISH TREASURES

BY TRACY ADRIAN
It looks as though Fran Bennett, talented Hollywood starlet, really discovered a Spanish treasure when she wears these impressive costume jewels which were inspired by the authentic pieces worn

Trainor-McCooley Wedding Solemnized In Hamilton

Baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums against a background of ferns decorated the altar of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church on November 17th, 1956, at 11 o'clock a.m. when Rev. Fr. J.E. Trainor, O.M.I. brother of the groom, officiated at the double ring ceremony of Noreen Emma Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCooley of Grand Falls, N.B., to Ralph Joseph, son of Mrs. Joseph J. Trainor and the late Mr. Joseph J. Trainor of Charlottetown, P.E.I.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Edward A. McCooley of Port Erie, Ont., wore a white ballerina length gown of Italian lace over satin and nylon net. The fitted bodice trimmed with iridescent sequins around the scalloped neckline. A lace cap held in place her finger tip veil. She carried a white Prayer Book adorned with a white orchid and streamers.
Wearing a pale blue ballerina length gown and carrying a cascade of snowdrift chrysanthemums, Miss Mary McCooley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mr. Gerald McQuaid, brother-in-law of the groom was best

COOK'S CORNER

ICE-BOX BUNS
1/2 cup lard
1/2 cup white sugar
1 cup boiling water
Stir and let cool. Dissolve 2 pkgs. yeast in warm water, adding 1 tsp. sugar to mixture. Add this to cooled lard, sugar and water. Mix in 2 well beaten eggs and 1 tsp. salt and 6 cups bread flour. Keep covered in cool place until ready to use. Let rise about 3 hours and bake in oven at 400 deg.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Always paint radiators when they're cold.

WOMEN

Lena Caroline McLure, Women's Editor. Phone 8588
Page 8, The Guardian Thursday, Dec. 13, 1956

HAPPENINGS

As the father, the late John F. Duffy, was revered in Charlottetown, so apparently was the son in New York. Walter Winchell in his column says of the late Fred Duffy: "One of the grandest guys left us Saturday night, Fred P. Duffy, Executive Manager of the Hotel St. Moritz. Made us all cry when he suddenly got very tired and went to sleep. Every staffer and permanent tenant at the St. Moritz mourns."

The marriage took place quietly on Saturday, November 24th, at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, in Westmount, P.Q., of Margaret Elizabeth Ross, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, and Leonard John Sherwood, son of Mrs. L.J. Sherwood of Montreal North, and the late Doctor L.J. Sherwood. Reverend J.D. Wilkies officiated at the ceremony.

Favors at the Business and Professional Women's Christmas dinner party held in Charlottetown were very much commented upon. One of these favors was in the form of a small red stocking. It was made out of lightweight Christmas red oilcloth. The edges were in buttonholing stitch in white cotton thread. On each little stocking was a jolly Santa Claus sticker. Each stocking contained after-dinner mints and a miniature candy stripe walking cane. These little favors were most colorful and certainly an added attraction on any table.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beer arrived Tuesday night by plane from Ottawa to attend the funeral of their father, the late Mr. Pope Beer. Arriving also by plane to attend her father's funeral was Mrs. W.J. Ready of Quebec and her two children Jane and Billy. They were expected Wednesday.

Mrs. Martin H. Bushell has returned to Halifax. She had been spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K.M. Martin, Ambrose Street.

Mrs. Ralph DeGrasse was hostess to her Bridge Club on Tuesday evening.

WIFE PRESERVERS

Rub a protective cream on your hands before you do a paint job or a particularly dirty chore. After the work is finished, wash it off immediately with soap and water, removing both cream and grime.

years. I have a good job and am in contact with many fine men; but men mean nothing to me—mainly (I guess) because they are all married, and I can't marry anyhow.

LET'S EAT

Sober Gingerbread Man Now A Lighthearted Guy

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN
The taste-test kitchen was fragrant with Christmas smells—cinnamon, clove, ginger—those favorite spices that now in many countries are being measured or weighed to flavor Christmas puddings, cakes and cookies.

"What's doing, Chef?" I asked. "I have been deeply involved in a personality problem," he said, "to make the usually soberlooking matte illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

The book sets forth a simple diet that restores and maintains blood sugar balance, thus eliminating the terrifying symptoms of hyperinsulinism. But it also recognizes the value of plastic insights. In preparing people to deal constructively with their "cares, difficulties, troubles" and unconscious fears.

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

years. I have a good job and am in contact with many fine men; but men mean nothing to me—mainly (I guess) because they are all married, and I can't marry anyhow.

LET'S EAT

Sober Gingerbread Man Now A Lighthearted Guy

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN
The taste-test kitchen was fragrant with Christmas smells—cinnamon, clove, ginger—those favorite spices that now in many countries are being measured or weighed to flavor Christmas puddings, cakes and cookies.

"What's doing, Chef?" I asked. "I have been deeply involved in a personality problem," he said, "to make the usually soberlooking matte illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

The book sets forth a simple diet that restores and maintains blood sugar balance, thus eliminating the terrifying symptoms of hyperinsulinism. But it also recognizes the value of plastic insights. In preparing people to deal constructively with their "cares, difficulties, troubles" and unconscious fears.

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

PSYCHOSOMATIC
Quoting the famous Dr. John A. Schindler, chief physician of the Monroe, Wisconsin, clinic, the author, points out (page 192): "Psychosomatic illness isn't produced by a bacterium or virus. It is produced by the circumstances of daily living... cares, difficulties, troubles. Whenever one has such a thick, impenetrable layer of e.d.t., that he can't get above it into a realm of joy and pleasure occasionally, he gets a psychoso-

matic illness." Then the doctors discuss "the mechanism whereby (severe) life situations contribute to setting up the vicious circle of hyperinsulinism." — (hyperinsulinism being the medical term for "blood sugar starvation").

WHO PROTECTS HER?
In your case, the first panic spell may have had a blood sugar origin. But the fact that it is now indelibly associated in your mind with being alone in the street suggests that it also ties in with an acute anxiety neurosis, having to do with your lifelong lack of family security.

Meeting opened in usual manner with the new president, Mrs. Roy Crossman presiding. Roll call was answered with an exchange of Christmas gifts by eight members. Two members paid dues. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

Reports of committees were then heard and new ones were appointed. Sick, Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. Eddie Trowsdale School, Mrs. Wilson Moore Educational, Mrs. Roy Gallant, Mrs. Eldon Leard; Social, Mrs. Heber Canfield, Mrs. Robert Mayhew; Lunch, Mrs. Vera Moore, Mrs. Wrixon Moore, Mrs. Robert Mayhew. Mrs. James Moore invited members for Jan. meeting to be held Wednesday, Jan. 2nd.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

Correspondence was then read and discussed. It was decided to get apples and oranges to treat the school children at Christmas. School committee to get same. It was also decided just to treat the members for the following year who were sick.

The educational committee gave a paper on "Do We Nag." Meeting adjourned and a contest was put on by the social committee prize being won by the President.

WESTMORELAND W.I.
Mrs. Robert Mayhew was hostess to the Westmoreland W.I. which was held Thursday evening, Dec. 6th.

FROM MOORE & McLEOD LTD. FIRST FLOOR

CHRISTMAS TREASURES to give pleasure

Here on the Main Floor of Moore & McLeod Ltd. are gifts that will be greeted with rapture on Christmas Morning. We invite you to come in and look over these items where a full complement of experienced salespeople will give you courteous attention and assistance.

BLOUSES

Dainty Blouses for Mother — teenage daughters—sister, in cotton printed rayons in short — three-quarter and long sleeves — also smart cotton stripe Jerseys. All gift boxed and priced at only —

2.98

JEWELLERY

By "CORO"

Beautifully gift boxed sets, also necklets, earrings, pins and bracelets—all gift boxed.

From 1.00 to 9.95

GLOVES

FABRICS

From 98c to 2.98

WOOLS and ANGORAS

97c to 3.95

LEATHERS

2.00 to 6.50

HANDBAGS

Literally hundreds to choose from — Plastics—Leather and Cordes in clutch — tote and various other styles.

1.98 to 18.95

###