Renewed Threat Appears To Adenauer Government

BONN (Reuters)—West German Chancellor Adenauer returned here by air from Washington Friday night to face a renewed threat to his coalition regime over "der spiegel" affair.

Adenauer said his talks with President Kennedy were marked by "sincere friendship."

Adenauer's chief spokesman said the 86-year-old chancellor "considers this (Spiegel) crisis very serious."

Adenauer arrived home after his ruling Christian Democratic Union warned its junior coalition partner, the Free Democratic Party, against any new ultimatum.

CDU parliamentary leader Heinrich Von Brentano met FDP leader Erich Mende and warned him against bringing the threatened cabinet crisis to a head.

But Mende told reporters when he arrived in Berlin for a private conference his party did not intend to put farward an ultimatum because coming negotiations over Berlin mean West Germany needs "a fully active government and a constructive opposition."

MAY ASK RESIGNATION

The FDP is preparing for a party congress in Nuernberg next Monday amid unconfirmed reports it will demand the resignation of Defence Minister Franz Josef Strauss for his actions in connection with the government's charges against the weekly news magazine Der Spiegel (The Mirror)—a persistent critic of the defence minister.

The opposition Social Democrats have already called for the dismissal of Strauss.

Der Spiegel publisher Rudolf Augstein and three senior staff members are being held pending the investigation of charges of suspected treason, arising from an Oct. 10 Spiegel article on the allegedly poor performance of West German troops in a NATO exercise.

The magazine was alleged to have printed defence secrets in the article and also to have bribed government officials to obtain them. An army counter-intelligence colonel is also under arrest.

Army Unit Rotation Underway

OTTAWA (CP) — Rotation of Canadian army units between Canada and West Germany began Friday after being postponed Oct. 24 because of the Cuba crisis.

Troops of the 1st Battalion, Royal Canadian Regiment, from Camp Ipperwash, Ont., left by RCAF Yukon transport plane from Trenton, Ont., for Dusseldorf. They will replace the 1st Battalion, Canadian Guards, in the 4th Infantry Brigade Group in Germany.

The next Yukon flight is scheduled for Saturday night with further flights each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday until the 900-man battalion has been airlifted to Europe.

Members of the Fort Garry Horse at Camp Petawawa, Ont., will begin leaving for Europe late this month to replace the returning 1th Canadian Hussars.

In all, some 8,300 soldiers and their dependents will be involved in the rotation. Some 5,400 will go by air, the remaining 2,900 by sea.

MP Complains House Query Is Unanswered

OTTAWA (CP)—The question "if not, why not?" occupied the attention of the Commons for 30 minutes.

J. W. Pickersgill (L — Bonavista-Twillingate) Oct. 22 asked whether a benevolent fund has been set up for former Canadian prisoners-of-war captured at Hong Kong as recommended by the Commons veterans affairs committee and "if not, why not?"

Veterans Minister Churchill Oct. 31 replied in writing with a simple "no."

Mr. Pickersgill contended again Friday that Mr. Churchill should have replied to the "if not, why not?" part of the question.

He suggested Mr. Churchill could be called to the bar of the Commons for disciplining for not complying with a Commons order that a reply be made to the question.

SAYS AGAINST RULES

Mr. Churchill said the question was contrary to the rules because it was improperly phrased and that Mr. Pickersgill didn't know how to put a question.
