YES, THAT'S SNOW

Expect Twenty Speed Boats Aquatic Day

Over twenty speed boats are expected to compete next Wednesday afternoon at the West Prince Day of Trade Aquatic Day.

Included in the display of speedy craft from Alberton are two newly designed boats one equipped with two twenty-five horse power motors and the other powered by a thirty-five H.P. engine.

First place winners last year were Cecil Sonier in the over 16 H.P. class and Roy Leard in the 16 and under class.

Entries for the three-mile swim and other events are coming in good according to the secretary C.R. Leard.

An innovation this year will be a sing-song in the evening to the music of local players, broadcast over the public address system. A floating camp fire near the bridge will add to the festivity of the occasion.

Cruises up and down the river will be provided during the afternoon and evening by two large lobster boats operated by Phillip Kinch and Roy Fraser.
