

U.P.E.I. THEATRE SOCIETY

MEET DAVID MOSES
THE DIRECTOR OF
NEXT SEMESTER'S
MAJOR PRODUCTION

A MUST for all who wish to be involved.

FRIDAY
NOVEMBER 22,
3 P.M.

ENGLISH LOUNGE

Health Centre Hours

Monday:	Dr. Tweel	10:00 - 1:00
Tuesday:	Dr. MacKenzie	1:30 - 4:00
Wednesday:	Dr. Stewart	10:00 - 1:00
Thursday:	Dr. Reid	9:30 - 12:30

nurse is available from 8:30 - 4:30 Monday to Friday. Phone 566 0616 for an appointment and we do our best to accommodate your needs.

Don Mullin-Zimmermann, R.N. U.P.E.I.
Health Nurse

Billy Bathgate

Billy Bathgate is the story of a typical Brooklyn kid in 1935 New York. Billy becomes involved with the mob and works for them during the summer while they await trial. This was a movie I had wanted to see since the first previews. It features high calibre names like Dustin Hoffman and Bruce Willis, so I figured I could count on quality acting, besides, I love a good gangster movie. I am sure we all remember how rainy it was on November 11, and I walked from Blanchard to the mall in that rain to see Billy Bathgate.

Generally the movie lived up to my expectations except for one detail: I felt as if I had walked in late and left early. What I saw was great, but it was just a slice of Billy's life, with no direction. It was like a high school essay: "My summer job as a gangster" and I'm sure we all remember how exciting those essays were. You could feel the movie building toward a great potential, the acting was great and they really made it look authentic. I think the writer just burnt out near the end.

I would still recommend you to see this movie, just don't have high expectations and go during the week. It is not worth the full weekend price. (Also, can anyone out there settle an argument: the person I saw the movie with, I won't name names, insists there was actually a famous person named Billy Bathgate. If this is true, does anyone know who he was?)

Al

APARTMENT FOR RENT

ONE BEDROOM APARTMENT IN PRIVATE HOME, CLYDE RIVER, TEN MINUTES
FROM TOWN. LAUNDRY FACILITIES AVAILABLE, BEAUTIFUL VIEW, MAY BE
FURNISHED, $395/MONTH. FOR MORE
INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL
DURING THE EVENING

675-2419