That Tired Feeling

Means danger. It is a serious condition and will lead to disastrous results if it is not overcome at once. It is a sure sign that the blood is impoverished and impure. The best remedy is

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla. Which makes rich, red blood, and thus gives strength and elasticity to the muscles, vigor to the brain and health and vitality to every part of the body. Hood's Sarsaparilla positively Makes the Weak Strong. "I have used six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a general tonic and have enjoyed the best of health. Although I had a strain of work I have had no sick spells for many months and no lost time, so I am doubly repaid." THOMAS S. HILL, 201 Brimley St., St. John, New Brunswick.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the Only True Blood Purifier. Prominently in the public eye. Hood's Pills cure habitual constipation. Price 25c per box.

WONDERFUL DAHOMY. Land of Amazons, Human Sacrifices Mermaid and Tame Whales. An interesting and well-illustrated book on Dahomey is written and published by Wm. H. Murray, which makes it the preeminent of a well-known French resident at Philadelphia.

GRAVELL'S COCOA. BREAKFAST—SUPPER. "By a thorough knowledge of natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

FOR SALE. All that valuable property known as the Dune Homestead, situated at the West End, between Sidney and Richmond Sts., and fronting on the Hillsborough River. Size of lot, 200x150 feet. Together with a determination on their part never to be struck speeches.—Boston Transcript.

MERRY MOMENTS

New Boarder—What's the row upstairs? Landlady—It's the professor of hypnotism trying to get his wife's permission to go out this evening.—Space Moments.

"I hear, Miss Impecunious, that you have the bicycle craze." "Yes, that is I, I have the craze, but I'm sorry to say that I haven't the bicycle."—Harper's Bazar.

Proud father—This is a sunset my daughter painted. She studied painting abroad, you know. Friend—And that explains it. I never saw a sunset like that in this country.—Tit-Bits.

Landlord Logic—Prospective Tenant—I like the top floor best. Why doesn't the fire escape go lower than the third floor? Agent—It isn't needed. The first three floors are empty.—Harper's Bazar.

Little Miss Muggs (haughtily)—My sister never goes out without a chapron. Little Miss Freckles (disdainfully)—My sister wouldn't be allowed to, either, if she would like sister.—Chicago News.

Father—Fritz, I saw you last evening helping home an intoxicated student. Don't do it again. It makes a bad impression. Fritz—Oh, that's all right. I only did it to get even with him.—Pileague Blatter.

Fig—Wonder why it is that these professional pugilists are such confounded talkers. Frog—Perhaps it is because of a determination on their part never to be struck speeches.—Boston Transcript.

Debtor (apologetically)—The payment of that account is a source of constant anxiety to me, I assure you. Creditor—Very likely. You're afraid you might cheat yourself and pay it.—Chicago Record.

Author—I've got a great scheme to make a fortune. I am going to write a book on the financial question. His friend—Well? Author—And then I'm going to write a reply refuting it.—Chicago Record.

"If I could run a race a horse called 'Money,'" said the gloomy man at the races. "Bet on it." "Why?" "Because that's the only thing that's sure to go fast enough around here."—Washington Star.

Mrs. White—And do you mean to say that you and your husband always agree about everything? Mrs. Black—Always; except of course, now and then when he's out of humor or pigheaded, or something of that sort.—Boston Transcript.

"I'm very much afraid," his mother said, "that this pie needs more screaming." "Mamma," said the boy in an audible undertone, "that isn't what my mother means. It's the pie that's screaming. My piece needs lengthening."—Washington Star.

"Keep out of debt, young man," said the philosopher. "People will think better of you for it." "Perhaps," said the young man, "and yet I've noticed that the more I owe people, the better they always seem to be."—Washington Star.

"Only think," exclaimed Fenderson, "of the many uses to which paper is now put!" "I know," replied F. Bass. "I was at the theatre the other night and I was told it was all paper. And it was a fine, substantial looking structure, too."—Boston Transcript.

Roddeter—I say, old fellow, can you lend us a pair of scales for a few days? Married chum—We have a pair, but sorry to say they are out of order; they tick high. Roddeter—But if I were living out there I shouldn't care to live twice as long.—Judge.

Old Gentleman—Do you, think, sir, that you are able to support my daughter without occasionally hovering on the verge of bankruptcy? Sutor—Oh, yes, sir, I am sure, sir. Old Gentleman—Well, that's more than I can do. Take her and be happy.—Tit-Bits.

Annals—By and by and death, but the e are some insults too eat to be bare! Saphira—Well, what now? Annals—I don't mind being called a pretty big liar. I'm used to that. But a fellow just accused me of being the author of the Cuban war news.—Buffalo Express.

IF YOU Want a wife, Want a cook, Want a partner, Want a situation, Want a servant girl, Want a farm, Want to sell a house, Want to rent a house, Want to see a play, Want to sell property, Want to sell or trade, Want to find a pair, Want to sell or trade, Want to sell or trade, ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

SUMMER SEAS.

Painless Dentistry! TESTIMONIALS. I E. McDonald, D.D.S.—The seventeen (17) teeth you extracted for me on Thursday, May 7th, at Doctor Roberts' office, caused me less pain than I have suffered many times in having my own teeth extracted. With grateful thanks, ROSE VALLEY, May 31, 1895.

Doctor McDonald, Dentist.—I fear Doctor—For two years I have been a constant sufferer from toothache, always in dread of having my teeth extracted. Hearing of you, I determined to try your method, and now, after having you extract six for me, I can conscientiously say you are the only one who ever extracted a tooth for me without pain. With grateful thanks, MRS. JAS. DEVEREAUX, Kettle's Cross, May 31, 1895.

McKinnon's English Ointment. Mr. NEIL McKINNON.—Dear Sir,—For five years I was a sufferer from eczema. Physicians could not help me. At last I bought a box of your Ointment, which helped me wonderfully, while two boxes made a complete cure. I can recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. ALEX. McKAY, St. John, Oct. 10, 1893.

W. B. MALLETT HAIR DRESSER. Shaving, Hair Cutting, Shampooing. Having lately renovated and refitted my Shop, I am now prepared to give satisfaction in all kinds of Barber work. ap8—17 3m
