

MR. AND MRS. D. E. MacNEILL AND THEIR ATTENDANTS

Dartmouth, Nova Scotia is Setting For Wedding

A lovely wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, 51 North Street, Dartmouth, on Friday evening, February 21st at 6:30 p.m., when Miss Marguerite May, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey E. Smallman, became the bride of Mr. Donald Eden MacNeill, son of Mrs. Florence MacNeill, of Charlottetown, P.E.I. The marriage was performed by the Reverend Earl D. Ward, minister of the Dartmouth United Baptist Church, Mrs. Gordon Steele, aunt of the bride played the wedding march. The marriage was performed before the fireplace, which was flanked by yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her street length gown of turquoise and white silk bengaline, with which she wore a close-fitting French model white hat with rhinestone trim and a cluster of tulle net at the back. She wore three-quarter length white gloves and black leather shoes. The bride's corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Lester Shatford attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a dress of charcoal grey with pink carnations. Her corsage was of matching pink carnations. Mrs. Smallman, mother of the bride, chose a model gown of brown and white flowered silk with brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

The groom's mother wore a grey dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Lester Shatford acted as the groomsmen.

At the reception which immediately followed the ceremony the toast to the bride was proposed by the Reverend Ward, and a fitting response was given by the groom. The bride's table looked lovely with its cutwork cloth and beautiful floral arrangements of daffodils, tulips and chrysanthemums. The bride's cake centered the table, with lighted tapers on either side.

Mrs. Rudman Burley, aunt of the bride, poured. Servers were Miss Marilyn Doty and the Misses Lillian, Anna and Marilyn Smallman, sisters of the bride.

Out-of-town guests in attendance were Mrs. Florence MacNeill and Mrs. Ronald Wilson, mother and sister of the groom respectively.

Following a short honeymoon trip the happy couple will reside at 2 Elmwood Avenue, Dartmouth.

Where Have The Farmers Gone? Read This Article

With James' help at times — it was not he, who rocked him to sleep? We enjoyed a ball of baby-sitting today taking care of "Wee Alex."

In the rest of the family in the house across the lane must be a trip to town this afternoon. This outing was mainly to meet granddaughter's appointment at the dentist's, though it had its interesting incidentals besides.

There was, perhaps to be the most important item of all, a pair of sturdy white boots brought home to replace those scuffed and worn by the active lad who before long will be making first steps. He creeps smartly, and now easily draw himself up beside chairs and couches. He can also get himself into awkward places from which a quick rescue must be made!

However perhaps to Mack, a hand-size shovel was the most engaging souvenir of the trip, a clean shining thing to be of much assistance to him clearing away the March snow from the verandah and yardpaths about. Or a new all else, contributing as we have to no small share to the well-being of farm and family, though the roundabout ways, were not the best of "store feed" for the animals. The truck carried home the end of most moment? It may be back of those, we smile, weighing everything, were the farmers' uniforms of blue denim — the overalls, however, the most important items of all?

HAPPENINGS

A very pleasing feature of the Canadian Club dinner Wednesday evening was the presentation to Mrs. T.W.L. Prowse, wife of the retiring lieutenant-governor with a bouquet of red roses. The flowers were presented by Mrs. T. W. Mitton, who beautifully thanked Mrs. Prowse and the governor for all their many kindnesses at Government House to Canadian Club speakers and Canadian Club executive.

Mr. Kenneth Bruce Stewart of Bedouge spent a short time in Charlottetown recently and was registered at the Queen Hotel.

A model meeting of Beta Sigma Phi was held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Donald MacLeod. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. J. O. Hornby. An interesting and informative talk on retarded children was given by Mrs. Alan Johnston.

Miss Helen Cox discussed briefly the Aims and Purposes of Beta Sigma Phi. The program "How is your Conversation?" was presented by Miss Frankie MacMillan and Mrs. Wm. Thompson. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Jack Balcom and Mrs. Leigh Donald.

Mrs. Harry Miller has returned home from Montreal where she spent the winter with her daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. George Young were the guests of honor at a party given by the relatives at Mr. Young's home, 69 Prince St.

when he finished the reading, isn't it the truth, E e huckeh "And isn't it the truth, Ellen" he chuckled.

And March, the minx, continues to bring farm-folks her quiet or wind-blown gray days.

Until tomorrow — Diary — Goodnight. . . .

During the evening many lovely gifts were presented to the couple. The accompanying good wishes were read by Miss Thelma MacFadyen. Oldtime violin music was furnished by Mr. Jimmy Doucette, accompanied by Mrs. Affleck on the piano, stepdancing and monologues by Mr. Dick Turpin, Monologues by Mrs. Robert Acorn, step-dancing, Mr. Charles Young, Mr. Neil Young, Miss L. Young and Mrs. R. Ross, solos by Mr. Jack Nelson, solo by Mrs. Helen Carmody accompanied at the piano by Miss Lena McLure. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.
