

The Daily Examiner

DECEMBER 16, 1885.

The Local Government yesterday passed an Order in Council, rescinding the regulation of the Boards of Health in this Province which forbids travel between the various precincts, and ordering that all persons producing certificates of vaccination and freedom from infection be allowed to travel in any direction they desire.

Farmers' Clubs.

If farmers wish to cultivate the soil successfully, and at the same time keep pace with the progressive spirit of the times in all other branches of industry, they must avail themselves of every opportunity of becoming familiar, both with the theory and the practice of their calling. Few, it is true, are able to avail themselves of the advantages of a thorough scientific training in the art of farming. There are, however, various means of self-improvement within the reach of every one. Newspapers and books upon farming should find a place in every farmer's home. They cost but little now-a-days, and cannot be too highly prized. But for genuine self-improvement and wholesome practical results, there is nothing can take the place of the well-conducted Farmers' Club. We are glad to see that some of our farmers are already alive to this fact. Farmers Clubs have been already organized in the three counties, Prince, King's and Queen's. In all three, especially the latter, there is room for more. East of Cardigan we are not aware of any having yet been organized. It is never too late to do good, and now is the time to organize. We would like to hear of one being started at St. Peter's Bay, another at Dundas, another at Annandale, another at Bay Fortune and Rollo Bay, another at St. Margaret's, another at Fairfield and North Lake, another at South Lake and another at Red Point, with two or three besides at other central points in the eastern sections of the country.

It is not necessary, in this connection, to refer at length to the incalculable benefit Farmer's Clubs prove to every settlement in which they are introduced. No one knows it better than the farmers who patronize them.

No Fears of Another Uprising.

The Pioneer Free Press gives the opinion of the Premier of Manitoba (the Hon. John Norquay) as follows:—

"Speaking of the late rebellion of half-breeds, which ended in the execution of Riel, he said that the revolt has spent itself and he anticipated no further disturbance. He believed that the death of Riel left the half-breed Frenchmen without a leader, and this, in addition to the fact that they had had all the rebellion desired, would prevent another uprising for some time to come. While he considered Riel as a scoundrel who was actuated by a love for notoriety and had not the interests of the half-breeds at heart, having offered to sell out for $35,000, still there was some feeling over Riel's execution existing among the French sympathizers. This discontent, he thought, would soon die out, as the people must acquiesce in the end, as nothing else was left for them to do. He was of the opinion that good results would follow the exhibition of military force in quelling the uprising, and its influence would tend to quiet the discontented half-breeds. He did not believe, he said, that there was any threatened uprising on the part of the Indians, not even a prospect of guerrilla warfare on their part. He admitted that the race feeling, engendered by the execution of Riel, might induce the French members of the Ottawa parliament to withdraw their support from Sir John Macdonald, but if a lack of confidence was attempted, and the premier found it advisable to go to the people, he would be sustained in a most decided manner. His losses on the part of French followers would fall short of the gains which he would make from the English districts. Mr. Norquay doubted that the opposition would give the premier an opportunity to go before the people, they knowing the situation, and therefore were apprehensive of the result."

Another Interpretation.

The Fishing Gazette, of New York, interprets the President's language concerning the fishing interests, to mean that he has a strong leaning towards reciprocity. "The fishing interests being intimately related to other general questions dependent upon contiguity and intercourse would," it says, "lead one to infer that the fisheries question was not to be considered in itself alone, but that its interest were to be mixed up with others and, if necessary, the rights of fishermen sacrificed to what might be 'in all their equities' considered of greater importance."

The Montreal Herald predicts that "the Parliament of Canada will assemble on Thursday, the 25th of February."

The order of the Crown of India, conferred on Lady Randolph Churchill, was instituted in 1878. It includes some twenty-six ladies, besides the wives of Indian Princes, all of whose husbands have held appointments connected with India, and is conferred, almost as a right on the wife of the Secretary for India, which Lord Randolph now is. It is always conferred in England by the sovereign in person.

The doctor said, speaking of the death of Vanderbilt, "It is the easiest death a man could experience, momentary and painless. It is only a blur upon the mind, and then a blank and you are dead."

THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

DEATH AND CONDITION OF PATIENTS.

Dr. Jenkins this afternoon made the following report:—

To the Chairman of the Board of Health:

SIR,—I have to report that Mary McTague died last night. She was attacked with bronchitis and pneumonia of both lungs, and her strength being reduced by a severe attack of the disease, she sank rapidly.

Mrs. Waughan has bronchitis, and being in a state of prostration from hemorrhage of long standing when attacked by the disease, she cannot long contend against the complication.

Christy Bell is very weak. Mary Ann Doyle is progressing favorably, as is Mrs. Parkman.

In the Mens' Ward, Crockett is very low; McDonald's case is severe, but his strength keeps up so far.

I have, etc., J. T. JENKINS, Health Officer

PATIENTS IN THE CITY.

To Dr. Johnson, Health Officer.

SIR,—Since my report yesterday there is one new case—Mrs. Charles Hartz—which is a mild one. Mr. Hartz is convalescent, Mr. Johnson is doing very well, and Mrs. McMahon is better this morning. All the other patients in town are doing well.

Capt. Walsh has a bad attack of bronchitis, but has not developed smallpox. JAMES WARBURTON.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

The Mayor acknowledges with thanks the following donations for use of smallpox patients:—Rev. Mr. Shenton, parcel magazines, etc.; Miss Hobkirk, lot illustrated papers; Patrick Berrigan, 1 pair chickens; Children of Mary Society, a parcel underclothing; A. Friend, a parcel underclothing; Mrs. Jackson, 5 lbs potted-head; Mrs. L. Beer, half dozen crocks marmalade and 2 parcels clothes; Annie F. Murphy, 4 bottles preserves; 1 parcel underclothing; Mrs. Conductor McDonald, Souris, 4 crocks preserves; Patk. Berrigan, jar buttermilk; Mrs. J. J. Davies, 2 gesso, bed, bedding, bedstead, and lot reading matter; Jas. Burke, Southport, 1 doz. celery; Jas. Byrne, 1 case sherry wine; Mrs. James Eden, Pownal Street, 15 lbs. beef and package lemons; Mrs. Walter Lowe, can beef-tea, crock preserves; Mrs. Jas. Smallwood parcel fruit; A. Lord, Esq., package books; Theo. L. Chappelle, Esq., parcel illustrated newspapers; W. H. Stewart, illustrated papers; Mrs. R. R. Fitzgerald, parcel underclothing.

FROM SOURIS.

On the authority of the Chairman of the Souris Board of Health, we are authorized to state that the restrictions to which persons leaving or arriving at Souris by rail were subjected, have been removed; that the hotels are now at liberty to accommodate the travelling public; that there is no smallpox at Souris, nor is there likely to be any unless it is brought to the village again from outside, which, under present circumstances, is not at all probable; that the Walsh girl, though quite recovered, is still kept in the hospital, where she will remain for safety sake a week or two longer; and that there is not the slightest danger of persons coming to Souris being exposed to the infection.

A QUERY.

SIR,—One thing puzzles me. How do the doctors manage to escape the smallpox? No doubt THE EXAMINER knows all about it.

Yours truly, ENQUIRER.

[This is a question not to be asked or answered by one not initiated into the mystery of the physician's art.]

Destructive Fire in Summerside.

CLARK'S STEAM MILLS DESTROYED—LOSS $7,000—NO INSURANCE.

A DESTRUCTIVE fire occurred at Summerside last night. The steam mills of Mr. Theo. Clark, the largest and best equipped in Prince county, were totally consumed with their contents.

The mills were situated at the east entrance of the town, close to the railway crossing. They had been running on full time, and the proprietor was doing a rushing business.

The fire was discovered at half past eleven o'clock, but before the firemen arrived at the scene the flames had full possession of the building, and all the brigade could do was to protect surrounding property.

Mr. Clark had the contract for fitting and furnishing the Summerside Post Office. In the mills were the fittings and furnishings ready to be put together. They, with the balances of his stock, plant, etc., were destroyed.

The upper story of the mills was occupied by Mr. Mark Doull as a furniture factory, Mr. Doull's stock and plant were also destroyed.

Mr. Clark's loss is estimated at $7,000. He had, we learn, no insurance on the stock, plant or premises. His warehouse and office, opposite the mills, were saved.

At the Annual Meeting of the Victoria Toboggan Club, held on the 14th inst., the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year:

President—Capt. Maxwell, R. N. Vice-President—R. R. Fitzgerald, Esq. Directors—L. E. Brecken, J. J. McKane, W. C. Hobkirk, D. C. McLeod, H. V. Palmer.

The meeting passed a resolution authorizing the Directors to contract with the Electric Light Co., for the provision of two Electric Lights, to be used at the hill during the coming season.

NOTES.

Not the promissory, but facts about WELCOME SOAP, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure Goods," but does possess the value of legitimate Washing Qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of the genuine over Soaps of doubtful character. None should be deceived even by Red and Yellow Wrappers, or any of the imitations of the WELCOME, as a pair of clasped hands is stamped on every bar. Made by CURTIS, DAVIS & Co.
