IN MEMORIAM

HIGGINS — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Reuben Higgins, who passed away, March 2nd, 1963.
We tell our lonely, aching hearts,
God took her from us for the best.
That only He, the Great Physician,
Could ease her pain and give her rest.
Alas, the hours without her are
Too empty to be measured,
And we wish a thousand times each day
For the dear one that we treasured.
Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by her children and grandchildren.

McCABE — In fond and loving memory of Mrs. Bernard McCabe who passed away March 2, 1956.
Ever remembered and ever loved by the family.

TAYLOR — In loving memory of William Taylor who passed away March 2nd, 1956.
Those whom we love go out of sight
But never out of mind.
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.
Often in the hush of the evening
When shadows creep in from the west
We think of you dear Papa
Whom God has called to rest.
Lovingly remembered by daughters, Eveline and Peggy.

WOOD — In loving memory of Mrs. Alfred Wood who died March 2, 1960.
Beautiful memories are woven in gold,
This is the picture we tenderly hold.
But in our hearts your memory is kept
To love and cherish and never forget.
Lovingly remembered by husband and family.

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of our brother Robert (Tic) Williams who passed away on March 1st, 1960.
Somewhere back of the sunset
Where loveliness never dies.
He lives in a land of glory
Mid the blue and the gold of the skies.
And we who have known and loved him
Whose passing has brought sad tears.
Will cherish his memory always
To brighten the passing years.
Always remembered by sisters Tillie, Guelda and Mary.

Discipline No Problem With Eskimos

SASKATOON (CP) — A husband and wife teaching team say Eskimo children receive no discipline in the home, doing what they want when they want, but there's no trouble keeping order in classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Meakin of Saskatoon spent one year teaching 35 children in a tiny Eskimo settlement, Wakeham Bay, on the Quebec side of Hudson Strait.

The couple found that all 125 Eskimos in the community could benefit from their teaching.

All but five of the 18 Eskimo families in the settlement lived in government-constructed plywood homes. But the Eskimos, who had lived in snow houses just two years before, had little knowledge of housekeeping or how to use such conveniences as oil cookstoves.

Mr. and Mrs. Meakin spent considerable time showing the women how to bake bread, scrub floors and keep their houses clean. They had difficulty persuading the men that the living room floor was not the ideal place to skin a seal.

One duty the couple had which isn't associated with the teaching profession was supervision of baths for their pupils every month or two. The government-built houses had bathtubs, but they weren't used frequently.

The Eskimos were curious about world affairs, particularly the space program, which they associated with superstitious beliefs.

The Meakins say carving and handicrafts now rank third, behind hunting and fishing, as a source of income at the settlement.

2,000-Mile Trip Is Made For $60

WINNIPEG (CP)—Late last year, two young Winnipegers shoved a canoe into the Red River here and pointed its bow south.

Two months, two days and almost 2,000 miles later, the two were in New Orleans. They made the trip on $60.

In an interview back home Alan Maclean, 21, talked about his trip with Gary Newsham, 22.

They took with them a tent nine feet square and two sleeping bags.

They paddled up to 10 and 11 hours a day and both lost weight.

People along the inland water route were good to them, and they were made honorary citizens of New Orleans.

They followed the Red River to Grand Forks, N.D., then shipped th canoe to Minneapolis on a potato truck. They hitch-hiked.

At Minneapolis, the canoe was put in the Upper Mississippi River. They followed it south past Cairo, Ill., Memphis, Vicksburg and Baton Rouge to their destination.

On their return journey, they took a bus as far as Minneapolis and hitch-hiked home from there.

Maclean's most exciting recollection is of hunting in the swamps near Baton Rouge. Newsham got caught in quicksand up to his armpits. Once they became lost in a fog.

"I wouldn't have missed it for the world," said Maclean, but he added he "wouldn't want to do it again."

Porters Eligible To Be Conductors

MONTREAL (CP) — Porters, mainly Negro, now are eligible to become sleeping car conductors on the CNR, it was announced here.

Following negotiations with the CNR, sleeping, dining and parlor car workers were merged under one seniority classification system, the railway and the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway, Transport and General Workers (CLC) announced in a joint statement.

The statement said the merger will provide equal opportunity for all employees to be promoted to senior positions.

Previously, one group comprised of conductors, stewards, chefs and waiters—mostly white —and the porters had separate agreements with the CNR. Under former seniority provisions, only members in the first group were eligible for promotion to senior positions.

The two groups voted to merge last week. The decision affects 843 employees.

GLENN STALLED

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Lt.-Col. John H. Glenn Jr. must remain in hospital for the time being to recover from a brain concussion, his physicians say. The decision thus may cancel the tstronaut's retirement from the Marine Corps until April 1, and postpone for the same period the start of his campaign for the Democratic U.S. Senatoral nomination. He suffered the concussion in a bathroom fall last Wednesday.
