Maroons In Finals

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Windsor Bulldogs took a giant stride towards their first Allan Cup final berth by defeating the hard-trying Moncton Hawks 5-2 before 3,055 fans here Saturday night.

The victory gave the OHA champions a 3-1 stranglehold in games in the best-of-seven series for the Eastern Canada senior hockey title. The fifth game will be played here Monday night.

Jerry Serviss, a centreman converted from defence, set the pace for the Bulldogs, lifting them time and again with his sparkling checking and scoring two goals.

Walter Pawlyshyn, Jacques Begin and Lou Bendo scored the other Windsor goals.

For Moncton, which played its best game of the series in an attempt to tie the blings up, Jacques Allard and Al Planagan did the scoring. Allard's was a gift from Windsor goalie Wayne Rutledge who waded at his right side of the net and pulled it into the cage.

Jean-Guy Morissette, in his easiest game of the series, faced only 24 shots while Rutledge kicked out 21 of the 22 directed his way.

Windsor took eight of its 15 minors handed out by referee Norm Warner in the fast, hard-hitting contest.

Ernie Terrell Scores Upset

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ernie Terrell, fighting with a cut over his right eye, upset fourth-ranked heavyweight Cleveland Williams Saturday night in a 10-round bout at the arena. Terrell won by a split decision.

Terrell, 27, and Williams, 30, weighed 187 1/2 and Williams weighed 210.

Judge Jack Styles scored it 4-6-4 for Terrell. Referee Pete Tomasco also had 4-6-4 for Terrell. Judge Pete Pantaleo scored it 4-6-4 for Williams. The Associated Press had Williams out in front 4-6-5.

The fight matched two of the tallest men in ring history against each other. Terrell is six-foot-six and Williams six-foot-four.

For Terrell, gaining his 32nd victory in 38 pro bouts, this was by far his biggest win. He had lost to Williams last April 2 by a technical knockout. Williams now is 55-51.

Monties Sideline Penguins; Score East-0 Win Sat.

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

Guardian-Patriot Sports Editor

When Toy Tot Gallant's dramatic goal sent Friday's game between Ottawa and Penguins into overtime, it proved the last gasp of the Maritime Junior hockey champions. There was nothing left for overtime, nor for the third game Saturday which Monties won 6-0 to clinch the series in three straight games.

Third period: 5. Windsor, Pawlyshyn (Bendo) 0-04; 7. Windsor, Serviss (Begin) 9-37. Penalties—Pawlyshyn 3:08, R. Gaudet 5:40, Micallef 10:27. Saves: 15-48 O. Gaudet and 19-21.

you didn't have to watch much of Saturday's action figure out the winner. The Monties were full credit for their convincing clincher.

Penguins left Ottawa Sunday at noon and will arrive in Charlottetown tonight. They're naturally disappointed but they can take consolation in knowing that they were the cream of the Maritimes. They didn't fade for want of trying. They faced a superior club and lost a hockey series. It's as simple as that.

Penguins scored a goal Saturday late in the third but the referee disallowed it, maintaining a man was in the crease. The loyal Ottawa 1's 1's a 1's a 1's a 1's were never in the baby Birds were never in the baby Birds after that.

It was only a 1-0 hockey game after the first 30 minutes but Monties were robbed outright by young Carl McQuaid's spectacular goalending.

The 16-year-old St. Dunstan's High School led had everybody applauding him for his remarkable feat. He was beaten only in the second and final games in the third but the youngster didn't have a ghost of a chance on any of the half dozen.

It's true that Penguins suffered a few good chances and were outlucked on a few more. However they were solidly bounced by a much superior outfit Saturday night. After that overtime thriller of Friday, hopes were high for an O.I.D. Spain triumph Saturday.

Even in defeat, the baby birds had a host of friends and hit Charlottetown tonight with loads of peace.
