Twelvetrees Brothers' Soap Powder

(an entirely new invention.)

IS the cheapest, safest, best, and most effectual article for all washing purposes, a packet of which is equal to ten Penny-worth of Soap!!

The saving of Time and Labour is so astonishingly great, that a WEEK'S WASH can be accomplished BEFORE BREAKFAST —no rubbing being required.

This wonderful Article is MORE SERVICEABLE THAN SOAP, as it produces a better and much quicker lather, and is adapted for purposes for which Soap cannot be safely or effectually used.

It will not injure the hands, or the most delicate material; but whilst it is incomparable for permanently whitening linen, after they have become discoloured by age, or injured by bad Washing, it is also unsurpassable for imprurting the colors of FLANNELS, BLANKETS, WOOLLENS, COLORED PRINTS, MUSLIN and LACE. LIST OF British Periodical Publications.

FORWARDED by mail, under the provisions of the late Post Office Law, at merely nominal rates.

1. The London Quarterly Review (Conservative).
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
3. The North British Review (Free Church).
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal).
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

These Reprints have been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly increasing, notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class, and from the numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other periodicals. Thus Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unsurpassed in variety and interest of Tales and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns, both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand.," and other serials, of which numerous republications are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott and Co., so that Blackwood is the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

SECOND EDITION of OLIVE FORESTS; AND HEAD-ATACK CLEARINGS; OR, TRAVEL, LIFE, AND ADVENTURE in the BRITISH NORTH AMERICAN PROVINCES," by Lieutenant-Colonel Sleigh, C. M. late of Her Majesty's 77th regiment, Richard Bently, New Burlington Street, London.

REVIEWS.

"Colonel Sleigh has had every opportunity of making himself thoroughly acquainted with the scenes he describes. The information he has imparted is varied and extensive. To those who want information on the state of public opinion, many of the author's statements will be as amusing as instructive. As a book of Travels the work possesses great interest. The author misses nothing of interest in his way, and notes down humour and force. The description of his crossing Northumberland Straits, and the perils undergone in the "icy passage," is graphic enough, and is calculated to make "gentlemen of England who live at home at ease" thank the fates that they live in a country of railroads and Lucifers. We can recommend Colonel Sleigh as an admirable guide through the Provinces, and whose opinions as to the political evils of the Colonies and their remedies are entitled to great respect."—Daily News, July 9th.

"Colonel Sleigh's adventures are many and amusing. He has seen almost every degree of American society. As an officer quartered for a few years in every province of ten years passed in every class and in every part of British North America, it may well be supposed that his views are founded upon a thorough knowledge without the power of expressing it is valuable only to the owner. This power however the author possesses in a high degree. He expresses himself with the utmost facility of wide observation and of deep reflection. Colonel Sleigh truly says the system under which the Colonies are governed contains some principle radically wrong. The opinion of a man of such evident talent and experience must have considerable weight."—Standard, May 28th.

"Colonel Sleigh's work is both instructive and amusing. The whole of the volume will repay perusal with interest, as much from the information it conveys as well as from the general tenour of its observations. It is therefore recommended to public attention as the latest, and perhaps also the most authentic, work upon the British Colonies hitherto published."—Observer, June 5th.

"Colonel Sleigh has claims to be heard on the social and political questions of the day. The volume before us which can be granted to most writers. We refer therefore to this volume of Travels and Adventure with more than usual confidence,"—Leader, July 2d.

"Colonel Sleigh's title to his work we hardly think does full justice to its contents. There is a considerable mass of information in his volume contained; it is also a volume of Travel, Life, and Adventure, in the British North American Provinces."—Bentley's Miscellany, July.

"Lieutenant-Colonel Sleigh has a good right to be heard about the British North American Provinces. He was born on the shores of the St. Lawrence, and at different periods of his life has resided for a long time in those Provinces. He was quartered as an officer in Nova Scotia, Cape Breton, and Lower Canada, and even as early as the autumn of 1832 he crossed the Icy Straits to Prince Edward Island—an expedition of the dangers and difficulties of which he gives a very graphic account. The political intelligence, the commercial progress, and the industrial resources of the Colonies engage, however, the largest share of his attention; and upon these subjects his information and opinions are entitled to respect. He also his impressions of the United States, and he does not hesitate to express his clear opinion that the connection of the Provinces with the Americans is essential to the welfare of both. That connection can continue that the Provinces which are now British should remain so. Yet he regards their retention as next to impossible unless measures are conferred upon them more suited to their advanced condition than those which they at present enjoy. To do justice to the Colonies, and at the same time to maintain the integrity of the Empire, he proposes a legislative union of all the Provinces; the appointment in England of a separate Secretary and Under Secretary of State, to attend exclusively to affairs of these Colonies; the establishment of a Regency, to be held by a Prince of the blood royal; the organization of a Provincial Army; and the admission of the French Canadians to suitable honours and dignities; and all his propositions he supports by arguments drawn from experience and from a long acquaintance with the feelings of the Colonists themselves. The book demands an attentive perusal, and the reader who studies it with any care will find himself well repaid."—London Morning Post, July 21st. 2n5d

VETERINARY PRACTICE.

Under the Patronage of His Excellency Sir ALEXANDER BANNERMAN, Knight.

GEORGE LORD, begs leave respectfully to intimate to his friends and the public in general, that he has resumed his practice in the VETERINARY LINE, under the patronage of His Excellency Sir ALEXANDER BANNERMAN, Knight.

After a successful practice of 7 years—14 in England and 13 in America, in the course of which he has been directly instrumental, through his skill, in saving, for their owners, the lives of many valuable HORSES and CATTLE, he trusts that, in again soliciting a renewal of PUBLIC PATRONAGE, he may be permitted to say that he considers himself to be as well qualified to prescribe MEDICINE and perform OPERATIONS, in the capacity of a HORSE and COW DOCTOR, as any individual who has ever practised in that line in this Colony; and he, therefore, presumes that he may confidently look forward to a renewal of that patronage which he formerly enjoyed in this Island.

Halifax, 12th July, 1853.

ARCHIBALD SCOTT, Esq.

SIR,—As the Agent of various Fire Insurance Companies, I beg to call your notice my PATENT ARTIFICIAL SLATE. This composition has been upwards of, three years extensively used in New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island, the Canadas and Nova Scotia, principally for covering shingled roofs, as you will perceive by the accompanying extracts or certificates. It has been severely tested, and proved most successfully its fire proof qualities under most extraordinary circumstances; so much so, that I am of opinion that Fire Insurance Companies will encourage its general application to all kinds of wood building (where the color would be no objection to its being used, such as the back walls of dwellings in the city, out houses, ware-houses, &c., as well as the roofs) by lowering the premium of insurance on such buildings as are covered.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. W. ROSS.
Patentee and Manufacturer.

Halifax 14th July, 1853.

SIR,—In answer to your note of the 12th inst. I consider the use of your "Artificial Slate Paint" on shingled roofs, as greatly diminishing the risk against Fire—I have frequently reduced the premiums on Buildings in the Country, upon its application,

I am, sir, your ob't servant,
ARCH'D. SCOTT.
Insurance Agent.
