

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE

The Canadian Magazine, for October, is true to its name. The frontispiece is a very fine likeness of Chief Justice Sullivan of this Province, and refers to an article in the Premier of Prince Edward Island Since Confederation, by the editor of THE EXAMINER. With portraits of Pope, Owen, Davie, McLeod and Peters. Another illustrated article that is particularly interesting to persons in this part of Canada is that on "The Universities of Nova Scotia" by Miss A. Reade. These include King's, Dalhousie, Acadia and St. Francis Xaviers, from all of which there are graduates at work in this Province. The article on the "Royal Society of Canada, its History and Work," by the Honorary Secretary, Mr. Bourinot, with portraits of its President and other distinguished members, is deserving of careful perusal; and this article on "American Trade Relations" will attract the attention of all who are interested in the condition and course of Canadian trade. A "Dominion School System" is advocated by John A. Dresser, on the ground of economy and efficiency, on the principle that "union is strength," as well as from "a nation-building point of view." "Mr. Dresser maintains that the consciousness in the mind of the school boy or girl of being an integral part of the whole vast system, the competitive spirit to which it would give rise and the wide sympathies that it would evoke, would do more to weld together the component parts of the nation of the next century than could be accomplished by acts of legislation or by overturned by the localism of the petty politician or of the over-zealous prelate." The remaining articles, stories and poetry with the current thought by the editor are all well worth reading and combine to make the Canadian Magazine for October sought out by intelligent Canadians.

Economy and strength are combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month.

What's the matter with a bond concert one of these nice warm evenings?

ENGINEERS.—Engineers will meet at the Drill Shed at 8 o'clock tonight.

LECTURE.—Remember the lecture to be delivered by Rev. Mr. Geggie, of Truro N. S., on the 26th inst.

The Mexico Medicine Company introducing the M-x-o Remedies, open a free concert course in the Market Hall tomorrow night with a first class variety company.

DIED IN MONCTON.—A Moncton despatch says: Hiram Lea, second son of Paul Lea, died today. The funeral takes place Wednesday afternoon. He died from epileptic fits and was only 18 years of age.

POLICE ITEMS.—Lawrence Hennessy, drunk, $2 or 10 days.

William Prond received a summons for violating the Liquor Regulation Act. It is set for trial at 10 o'clock. He is charged with selling on the street after the closing hours on Saturday.

APPOINTMENT.—His Excellency the Governor General has been pleased to make the following appointment, viz.:

OTTAWA, 23rd December, 1896.—Peter McMillan, of the village of Annandale, in the province of Prince Edward Island, Esquire: to be Sub-Collector in Her Majesty's Customs.

OPERA HOUSE.—The entertainment given by Mr. Ausbach in the Opera House last evening was not as largely attended as was expected, but the performance was greatly enjoyed by those who were present. Ausbach is certainly a very clever magician, and he will doubtless have a full house at the matinee on Saturday afternoon.

SHAKESPEAREAN.—We have very much pleasure in announcing that sufficient patronage having been promised Mr. Williams will give his Shakespearean recital in the Kindergarten Hall on Oct. 22. In aid of the new P. E. I. Hospital. The seats have been placed at the low price of 50c each, and as the speaker is good and the object good, a large sum ought to be netted.

FREDERICTON DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTION.—Mr. Geo. E. Powers, of the above institution, is in the city and will make his usual annual tour of the Island. During the past year forty-three pupils have been in attendance, including a boy from Charlottetown. In September last their fine brick building was totally destroyed by fire, but the work is being continued at old Government House which has been granted for two years by the New Brunswick government. Besides the loss of the building most of the furniture was destroyed and only partially covered by insurance. On account of their heavy loss by fire the institution this year is particularly in need of funds, and it is hoped the appeal will meet with a generous response.

EVANGELIST GALE ON DECIDING.—What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul? Mr. Gale last evening spoke on this all-important question. He told the vast audience of the simplicity of Christ's talk to the people of Palestine. Christ always spoke on subjects familiar to the audience which he was addressing. Would you, said he, take the world in place of your two feet or hands? and yet some of you are giving your souls for the gain of the world. We believe that the soul is immortal therefore we must dwell somewhere at death. Where shall it be? Christ said more about Hell than about Heaven, for he knew everyone believed in Heaven; but they were in danger of lying on their oars and trusting in a merciful God. Mr. Gale speaks at 7.30 this evening.

PERSONAL

We regret to learn that John Brecken, Esq., is still seriously ill.

Miss Josie Cairns, of this city, left yesterday morning for Florida where she intends to spend the winter.

Among the many visitors to the Island, who are delighted with its attractions in the way of fishing, shooting, etc, are Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Dunn, of Haverhill, Mass. They have spent some time at Souris and other points of interest, and are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dixon.

Mrs. Simon McLean, of Davenport, Washington, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. J. Lewis, of St. Peter's Road, left for home on Tuesday morning. She was accompanied by Master Gower McLean, son of Mr. A. A. McLean, who goes west for the winter.

Quite a large number of the friends and relations of Rev. Benjamin Chappell assembled at the railway station this morning to say good-bye to Mr. Chappell, who with his estimable wife and family are returning to Japan after enjoying a very pleasant holiday on the Island. They will first spend a short time with friends in Pennsylvania.
