

The men who do daring deeds in battle, are men whose arteries pulsate with the rich, red, vital blood of health.

The same is true of the men who win success in the battles of work and business. When a man's liver is sluggish, his digestion impaired, and his stomach weak, his blood soon gets thin and impure. The blood is the stream of life. If it is impure every vital organ in the body is improperly nourished and becomes weak and diseased and fails to perform its proper functions in the economy of life.

The victim suffers from loss of appetite and sleep, wind, pain, fullness and swelling of the stomach after meals, bad taste in the mouth, foul breath, imaginary lump of food in the throat, headaches, giddiness, grossness, heavy head and costiveness.

All of these conditions and their causes are promptly cured by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It brings back the keen edge of appetite, makes the digestion perfect and the liver active. It makes rich, red, pure blood, filled with the life-giving elements of the food that build healthy tissues, firm flesh, strong muscles and vibrant nerve fibers. It invigorates and vitalizes the whole body, and imparts mental power and elasticity. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, strengthens weak lungs, stops bleeding from lungs, spitting of blood, obstinate lingering coughs and kindred ailments.

Costiveness, constipation and torpidity of the liver are surely, speedily and permanently cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. They never gripe. They stimulate and strengthen the jaded organs until a regular habit is formed and may then be discontinued without a return of the trouble. They stimulate, invigorate and regulate the stomach, liver and bowels. Medicine stores sell them, and have no other pills that "are just as good."

THE DOCTOR'S COMMAND
BY JOHN A. STEUART.

That stage we could not bear to tarry. Two miles ahead was Kilgour, and a little beyond was The Elms. So we sped on without drawing rein, our hearts beating short and fast, with the expectation which the returning exile alone knows. The carriage horses were lathered and blowing after their forty miles, though Fatima and Hassan, with more trying work, did not show a wet hair. But no consideration for blown horses could have induced us to delay. The coachman, rather against his will, whipped up, and instead of slackening the pace increased.

As we rolled, bumping and shaking, over the mountain road in the midst of many whirling thoughts, suddenly old Duncan's parting words flashed upon me. "God bless ye, take it. It will be the siller pipes I learned ye to blow on. Aye, the seas ye'll can gie a skirt at times to mind ye of old friends, and when ye come back ye'll can march to your own quick step."

Why shouldn't I? In less time than it takes me to write this sentence the silver pipes were out of the green bag. "You shall be played home like a hero, Gordon!" I cried, leaping upon the dicky to the great discomfort of the coachman, who was evidently unable to make up his mind whether we were great folks or simply maniacs. The scream of the pipes made the horses almost as wild as I was myself.

TWIN TORTURERS!
Lumbago and Rheumatism made Harmless by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Lumbago and Rheumatism cause endless pain and suffering. Every man and woman who runs chances of getting wet, or catching cold, is liable to suffer from one or both. Our hospitals are full of sufferers from these diseases; none are more painful. Every nerve is on fire; every joint is a centre of agony; every muscle an area of torture. To move hand or foot makes the victim shriek with agony.

Rheumatism makes more cripples than all the railroad accidents that ever happened. Twisted, mis-shapen caricatures of humanity, who cannot walk without misery, are to be seen every day. The kidneys are to blame. If they are healthy you needn't fear Rheumatism or Lumbago. Dodd's Kidney Pills keep the kidneys healthy and cure Rheumatism and Lumbago. Dodd's Kidney Pills ALWAYS CURE.

Pure Spices are Profitable

But bad spice is acominable. This is a truism that no competent housekeeper should forget. Half the trouble of cooking is past if you get the right brand of Spice, and while there are many that are fairly good, it is always safe to take one which is invariably uniform. That one is
