Address Presented to the Vener- able Archdeacon Read by the Diocesan Church Society.

At a special meeting of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Church Society of Prince Edward Island, held in St. Paul's Schoolroom, on Monday, 17th June, 1878, it was resolved unanimously—"That in prospect of the departure of the Venerable the Archdeacon—J. Herbert Read, D. D.—from this Province at an early day, that the Rev. Alfred Osborne, T. B. Reagh, and Mr. H. J. Cundall, be a Committee to draw up a suitable address on the occasion, and that the said Committee, with Messrs. John Ings, Thomas DesBrisay, and R. R. Hodgson be a deputation to present the same to the Archdeacon on behalf of this Executive Committee.

(True extract.)

WILLIAM C. DESBRISAY,
Asst. Secretary D. C. S.
CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. Island, June 21st, 1878.

To the Venerable J. Herbert Read, D. D., Archdeacon of Prince Edward Island, and a Vice-President of the Diocesan Church Society.

VENERABLE AND DEAR SIR,—We, the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Church Society, hearing of your intended departure for England at an early day, beg to record our sincere regret that domestic affliction has rendered it necessary that you should, for a time at least, be absent from our midst.

The committee not only fully appreciate the personal care and attention which you in your position as a member of the committee, and as one of the Vice Presidents, have always bestowed upon the business of the Society; but we also recognize your earnest and unremitting endeavors to forward the work of the Church of England in this Province.

Your long and arduous Missionary services, extending over a period of more than thirty-five years—many of them spent amid privations and discomforts unknown to these later days of pastoral work—have earned for you the esteem and affection of all persons with whom you have been associated. Your invariable success bears evidence of your self-denying zeal and energy in the Master's work; and we are satisfied there are many witnesses to the benefit of your faithful ministrations.

The Committee, moreover, freely testify that your interest in the affairs of the Church has not been limited to your own parish, but has been cordially extended to the other parishes in your Archdeaconry.

Permit us, dear sir, to express our sympathy with you and Mrs. Read in her affliction, and we trust the visit to your native land may be beneficial to her, and that by the blessing of Almighty God you may both be restored to us in renewed health and vigor.

Signed on behalf of the Executive Committee,

ALFRED OSBORNE,
Curate of St. Paul's.

T. B. REAGH,
Curate of Milton.

H. J. CUNDALL,
JOHN INGS,
THOS. DESBRISAY,
R. R. HODGSON.

The deputation, accompanied by F. L.
Haszard, Esq., waited upon the Archdeacon at 12.30 p. m., on the 21st inst. On the presentation of the Address the Venerable Archdeacon made a most feeling reply. He thanked the Committee of the "D. C. S." for through the deputation, for the kind expressions contained in the address,—spoke of his long residence in this Province, and the grief to him to sever friendships of so long standing. He wished success to the "D. C. S." and hoped the Committee would ever be faithful to the doctrines and principles of the Church of England.

The New York "Herald" is being pretty well laughed at for a mistake it has fallen into through the hasty acceptance of what it feigns to consider as news. It appears that on the day of the October elections the "Herald" published a very lengthy cable special, giving the views of the principal politicians and editors of Paris. The following month the Figaro reproduced these interviews, at the same time giving the "Herald" great credit for having this cable special,—made a fortnight previously, and sent by steamer. There was one mistake, however, the Figaro made. The "Herald's" cable special gave, with other information, the presumed circulation of the different Parisian papers. Some of them very much under the mark, and when the Figaro republished this, it made them angry. The Univers instituted a suit for damages against it. In the evidence it came out that the "cable special" was sent by a reporter of the Figaro, and the several of the gentlemen whom he professed to have interviewed would not even admit him to their offices, and the opinions credited to them were simply the products of his imagination, based on the reading of their papers. The Figaro has been compelled to pay damages to the Univers, and to print the decision of the court on its first pages as a brand, while in the minds of many, heretofore faithful in the reliance placed upon the "Herald's" cable specials, has been shaken.

POLITICS IN MANITOBA.—A Winnipeg correspondent writes as follows to the Mail: "Politics are quiet here just now. It is only in Selkirk that the Government will be able to find a champion, and there is a fixed determination to keep the head of the railway and Kittson line ring out of the House, the excitement of the contest will centre in the action of Selkirk. Dr. Schultz has never been so strong in his constituency as at present; and Mr. Morris is all right for Marquette. Dubuc has received great encouragement from the electors of Provencher."

The Mark Lane Express says of crops:—
"The wheat plant generally looks sickly tion of cereal crops is highly critical, nothing but a continuation of normal weather can present another addition to the succession of an unproductive and unremuner-ative season."

Continental advices promise a fair average yield, but, in Eastern Russia, thousands of acres of grain have been cut to pieces by the succession of unusually heavy hail

A banquet of one hundred covers was Montreal Star: "Mr. Cartwright's policy is jug-handled, for instead of having made Canada a cheap country to live in, it has made it a cheap country to live out of."

True, O Star! If the Bureau of Statistics is to be believed nearly 120,000 Canadians left their country for the States between the 1st January, 1874, and the 31st December last; in other words, as many people as Montreal can boast of.

The London Figaro says "Signor Runcio is a handsome man, and many opera goers thought on Saturday a lucky man. At any rate, a young and good-looking tenor has rarely received so many kisses as Alfredo did on the stage of her Majesty's Theatre.
The Princess of Wales shook with laughter, but Miss Minnie Hauck, like a true artist, would not give in hugging her stage-lover again and again, until Alfredo, fairly out of breath, ran away. Mile. Zare Thalberg, who was sitting in Titiens' old box, clapped her hands in girlish delight; and Mr.
Mapleson has received due notice from three 'first tenors' that unless each is permitted to play Faust to the young American lady's Marguerite, he will be expected to choose between swords and pistols."

Recently, when presiding at one of those cookery lessons which are now becoming fashionable in England, Mr. Gladstone told this story:—Somebody, travelling in the United States, saw in a hotel yard a heap of ox tails, all thrown away as refuse. The ex-Premier at first looked upon this as another proof of how wasteful the American people are, but afterwards he heard the explanation. Throwing away ox-tails as useless is an old English habit, which the first emigrants to America took with them long ago. But at the time of the French Revolution many refugees from over the Channel came to England, and in their saving, methodical way, taught the English the value of ox tail soup. But the Americans, not having learned this lesson, continued the old English custom of throw-
