THE RIEL REBELLION

With Gen. Middleton.

RIEL TO BE TRIED AT PRINCE ALBERT.

Dumont Hiding and Dodging.

BUT SAYS "HE WILL FIGHT IT OUT."

WINNIPEG, May 18.

Advice from the front state that Batoche has been left desolate and deserted.

Riel is being taken to Prince Albert to be tried.

Two hundred scouts are scouring the country for Dumont.

Father Fourhand, who was reported as having been shot by the rebels, it appears still alive; having, together with another man, overtaken Gen. Middleton's column on Friday.

They reported having passed Gabriel Dumont while they were on the way to Batoche. He was in hiding on the prairie.

George McLeod, the Prince Albert Courier, has reported to the General that while on his way from Batoche to Prince Albert, on Wednesday, he met three Indians three miles behind Lapine's Crossing.

He was talking to them when Dumont appeared and asked him what he thought he had better do under the circumstances. McLeod told him to "give himself up," and reminded him that Gen. Middleton had promised him a fair trial.

Dumont replied that he had taken up arms and intended to fight, and would not be taken alive.

Dumont had only a few Indians with him. A large number of Indians and half-breeds accompanied McLeod to Middleton.

The latter sent them back to obtain their arms which had been "cached" in the bush.

The prisoners were then discharged and told to go home.

Among the rebel papers captured, are minutes of the rebel Council, in which Albert Monkman, now held, was implicated as having command of a number of men at Duck Lake.

Riel charges Lawrence Clarke of the Hudson Bay Co., with having precipitated the revolt.

Riel denies that he was the leader of the rebellion, and asserts his innocence. He says that he can prove that he wanted to go back to the United States, but was not allowed.

He expresses pleasure that books and papers belonging to the rebels have fallen into the hands of General Middleton, as from them he claims to be able to prove his innocence. But, still, he constantly expresses fear of being hanged.

THE INDIAN POSITION.

Fate of Captive Teamsters Unknown!

BATTEFORD, May 19.

No definite knowledge of the Indian position has yet been obtained.

The fate of the captured teamsters is unknown. No more fighting will be done until Middleton reaches the Indian encampments. The Indians are watching the trail for plunder.

Excitement at Calgary.

CALGARY, May 18.

The report that Big Bear's band arrived within forty miles of this place creates great excitement, and preparations to receive them are active.

The London Dynamiters' Sentence.

LONDON, May 19.

Before the sentence of imprisonment for life was passed on the dynamiters, Cunningham protested his innocence, and said he was willing to accept the sentence of life imprisonment, but English law could not touch his soul.

Burton broke down and sobbed like a child, but Cunningham maintained his composure.

THE steamer Chiton arrived this morning. She had 40 crates of crockery ware for this port, 2,000 tons steel rails for the Miramichi Valley Railway. She left for Newcastle at 2 o'clock, and will return here on or about the 25th. Mr. Newbery deserves great credit for bringing out this splendid steamer.

MR. THOMAS L. CHAPPELLE, of the Diamond Bookstore, has placed on our table a new book, entitled: "The story of Louis Riel, the Rebel Chief." At the present time such a work is opportune, and of great value, giving, as it does, a succinct and full account of the former and present uprisings. The book is profusely illustrated, and sold at 30 cents per copy.

A HALF-BREED, who crossed in the Princess of Wales on Monday morning, writes as follows to a friend in the city:—"All Summerside and his wife" were down on the wharf to-day expecting Volunteers. They were also going to give them a big send off at Point du Chene. The tug was to meet us outside, with band &c., and the school children were to sing the "National Anthem," or any other man. So they were all badly disappointed. It was a Riel shame.—(That pun is played.)

A VAGRANT from Summerside, giving his name as Thomas Campbell, was arraigned before the Stipendiary Magistrate yesterday and remanded for examination by the jail doctor. Three drunks were disposed of by fines ranging from $1 to $10. A woman named Welsh was sent to jail for one month for frequenting a house of ill fame. An assault case was withdrawn. This morning two vendors were prosecuted for selling butter short in weight. In one case the butter worth $1.30 was confiscated, and the vendor fined $1.30 and costs. In the other the butter worth $2.30 was confiscated and the vendor fined $2.30 and costs. This will be a warning to vendors to have the prints properly weighed.

THE JUBILEE SINGERS.—In November, 1879, the Jubilee Singers gave a concert in Amesbury, Mass., the home of the Quaker poet, Whittier. The following is an extract from a letter of Mr. F. J. Loudin, describing a visit to Mr. Whittier, written for a Ravenshoe (Ohio) paper:—"Being about to depart, we sang a slave song. As Mr. Whittier listened, he stood with bowed head, the tears rolling down his cheeks. It was with great difficulty that we could sing, so deeply were we touched by the experience of this hour now closing. I shall never forget the expression on that illumined face at that parting moment. He stepped forward and shook hands, but so deep were his feelings that he did not speak until he came to the two last. I was the last to shake hands with him, and he said, 'Good-bye; God bless you all!'

Those remarkable singers will give two entertainments in this city next Monday and Tuesday evening, in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. See advertisement in another column.

A Souris Man Drowned.

By private letter to a friend, we learn that a sad accident took place on the United States coast, on the 29th of April last, whereby an Islander and three other men lost their lives by drowning. The Islander was Capt. John R. McDonald, of Souris. The three others were named Richard Borden, Robert Hingley and Michael Gracey. They belonged to the schooner Neponset, commanded by Captain Frye. She was off the Virginia coast when the sad accident occurred.

The particulars, as given by Mr. Alex. McPhee, of Big Marsh, are as follows:—"The men were out in a seine boat when she shipped a sea, which half filled her. McDonald and the other sailors bailed her out, and when the boat was dry she took a sudden lurch, and turned keel upwards. The men succeeded in getting on the boat's bottom six times, and were as many times washed off. The wind blew so strong at the time that it was impossible for McPhee and a companion to rescue them. The sea was running mountains high, and McPhee could not get his dory an inch afloat, much less reach the men in time to save life.

Capt. McDonald was deservedly well liked. He leaves a grief-stricken widow and three little children in East Boston to mourn his sad end.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Volunteer Review.

Sir,—Would it not be a very pleasant way to spend the Queen's Birthday by having a review and sham fight at the City Park, and I think that Major Irving and the other military authorities would freely acquiesce if applied to as the volunteers are now in town awaiting orders? A sham fight would amuse the citizens and be the means of the better discipline of the militiamen, in the case of their being called to the front in a few days. Now that Mr. Coleman has offered the public cheap railway fares, many, no doubt, would take the advantage of the cheap fares to see the Volunteers manoeuvring.

CITIZEN.

A Nuisance.

Sir—So much has been said and written about the dilapidated state of the sidewalks and streets of this city, that by this time it might be supposed the civic authorities would feel somewhat aroused to duty, and make some effort to have the many nuisances complained of, removed to some considerable extent; but it appears that they are quite easy about sanitary affairs. Coming from the Railway Station this morning, and in front of the Railway Hotel, almost the first thing which presented itself to my view, was a quantity of stagnant water, the effluvia from which was not that of roses, and the very sight most disgusting and revolting. In a city like this, and under the very eyes of the authorities, such a nuisance should not exist.

Yours &c., TRAVELLER.

Charlottetown, May 18, 1885.

DEAD.

At Kensington, on Thursday, the 14th inst., Stephen McMillan, Esq., in the 47th year of his age. Requiescat in Pace.

[The circumstances of Mr. McMillan's death are sad. He was returning to his home on the night of the 13th inst. His horse became unmanageable and ran away. Mr. McMillan was thrown violently from the saddle, and he was taken to his home unconscious. His physicians found he had received a severe contusion below the left shoulder, and that the lower portion of the body, both legs and arms were paralyzed. Hopes of his recovery were entertained till the evening before his death. The funeral took place on the 16th inst., to the Indian River Church Cemetery. It was attended by over one hundred carriages. In Mr. McMillan's death Kensington loses one of its best citizens—a man who was dearly beloved and universally respected. To his wife and five children we extend our heartfelt sympathy.]

THE PATENT TELESCOPIC OVEN

IS STILL AHEAD OF ALL COMPETITORS.

THIS Patent Oven is put on all my Elevated Oven Cooking Stoves, such as the Star Niagara, Waterloo, &c. Is Easily Cleaned, by simply drawing the end and lining from the oven, brushing out the soot and replacing them again—thoroughly cleaning or inserting a new lining in five minutes time.

The thousands using this Oven admit it to be worth at least Ten Dollars more than Stoves with the ordinary oven. At the same time please keep in view the fact that it costs the trade or retail purchaser no more than the same stove without this valuable improvement.

When buying, ask for FAWCETT'S PATENT TELESCOPIC OVEN. If your dealer has none on hand, have him send, or send your order direct to the Sackville Foundry. No other Foundry in the Dominion of Canada is able to offer this undoubted advantage, as I am the Inventor, Sole Manufacturer and Patentee.

I am adding several New and Handsome Patents this season which, with my former variety of one hundred different styles and sizes of Cooking, Parlor, Office and Hall Stoves. Also—Farmers' Boilers, Hollow-ware, Ploughs, &c., comprises the largest and best assortment made in the Maritime Provinces.

Customers will find my Terms Liberal and, regarding prices, I will not be undersold.
