Alberton Branch Of Bible Society Meets

—On Tuesday evening, September 16th, the executive of Alberton branch of the P. E. I. Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society in Canada, met with the local clergyman to arrange for the annual canvass.

Mrs. Arthur Wilkie, president, occupied the chair and Miss Margaret Forsythe acted as secretary pro tem.

The meeting opened with a devotional period led by Rev. G. B. Cunningham and Rev. J. R. McMahon, after which details of the canvass were discussed and canvassers appointed for the various districts.

It was decided to begin the canvass immediately so that it may be completed by October 1st when a general thanksgiving meeting, with special speaker, will be held in the Presbyterian Church. At this meeting the canvassers will submit their reports and officers of the ensuing year will be elected.

O'Leary Resident Passes In Hospital

—Mr. Watson Silliker, a very highly respected resident of O'Leary, passed away in the Prince County Hospital Monday evening, September 15th, in his 80th year, following a very serious operation.

He leaves a sorrowing widow, formerly Miss Ruth Gay, two daughters, Iva, Mrs. Dan MacDonald, of Ellerslie; and Louella, Mrs. Harry Clements of Massachusetts; and three sons, Gordon in Ontario, Lloyd and Lorne of O'Leary.

One son Ralph paid the supreme sacrifice in World War II and Ira predeceased his father one and a half years ago. Also surviving is a brother, Ainsley Silliker of Forest View.

The funeral service will be held today at the United Church, O'Leary, at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Glenda Pridham and little daughter Ruth, from Framingham, Mass., are the guests of Mrs. Pridham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch MacLeod, Victoria West.

Dawson - Norring Wedding

—A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, August 13th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Norring, Cape Traverse, when their daughter Gladys Elizabeth became the bride of John Joseph Dawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dawson of Albany.

Rev. Burton Crowe of Bedouque performed the ceremony which was witnessed by relatives and friends. Mrs. Ernest Harper was in charge of the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Verner Norring as she sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register. The rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of gladiol and other summer flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister, Miss Louise Norring as bridesmaid. Mr. Hazen Dawson was groomsmen.

Following the ceremony a reception supper was served by Mrs. Harry Patterson, Mrs. Raymond Harvey and Miss Mona Wright, assisted by the Misses Patricia Patterson, Rowena Harvey, and June Gardiner.

Mr. Crowe proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. Telegrams of good wishes were received from the bride's grandfather, uncle and aunt in Denmark, also the groom's brother in London, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson left on a honeymoon trip to London and Niagara Falls, Ont.

ANCIENT VILLAGE RUGGED TRAVELLERS

A big Seneca Indian village on Lake Ontario, 17 miles east of Toronto, was known as Ganatsckwyagon in the 17th century.

The voyageurs of Canada's early days travelled by canoe from Montreal to the Rockies with many famous portages.

DEAL England —(CP)— Deal transport will try a new stunt on buses this winter. Instead of conductors peering through misty windows trying to identify stopping places, the driver will inform passengers through a loudspeaker.

MONTREAL —(CP)— A teletype system between Montreal and Quebec which will permit local police to obtain immediately the name and address of any automobile owner from the license plate will soon be in action. City executive committee voted $2,430 to operate the service experimentally from Oct. 1 to April 30, 1953.

Newly Weds Honored At Ellerslie

—A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hayes on Thursday evening, September 4th when a reception was held in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reginald Hayes who were recently married in Halifax, N.S.

Before her marriage Mrs. Hayes was Miss Phyllis Margaret Palfrey of Halifax, a graduate of McGill University School of Physiotherapy. For several years she had been employed by the Department of Veteran's Affairs as a physiotherapist at Camp Hill Hospital.

Ernest is at present engaged in post graduate work in chemistry at MacMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario.

Sixty five guests were present to offer their best wishes and congratulations. A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Elmer MacLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes were the recipients of many attractive and useful gifts. The living room was tastefully decorated with bouquets of various shades of gladiol and cosmos, the dining room with bouquets of sweet peas, pink and white streamers, wedding bells and candles. The bouquets of flowers were given by Mrs. Leith Hayes. The bride's table was centered with a wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, with lilies of the valley forming the background. The cake was made by Mrs. Ira Ramsay and artistically decorated by Mrs. Ramsay and Mrs. E. R. MacNevin, aunts of the groom. A delicious lunch of various sandwiches, sweet dainties and ice cream was served. The guests were fortunate in being able to partake of two wedding cakes as part of the wedding cake for the wedding reception at Halifax had been sent for the occasion.

HOLMAN'S

—Mr. and Mrs. John Checkly of Portland, Me., have returned to their home after spending a pleasant holiday with relatives here. Mrs. Checkly is the former Rene MacLaurin.

The many friends of Mrs. Kenneth Enman, Springhill, regret to hear that she is a patient in the Prince County Hospital, having undergone a serious operation.

A large crowd attended the chicken supper at Victoria West Hall on Thursday evening, September 11th. A substantial sum of money was realized for church purposes.

Mrs. Russell MacArthur, Mrs. Sidney Enman and Mrs. Gordon MacArthur attended the Health Centre Ladies' Aid meeting on Monday evening, September 15th, which was held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Stewart, Tyne Valley.

Friends of Mr. Edmund S. Burleigh, Ellerslie, are sorry to hear that he has been obliged to enter Prince County Hospital. All hope that he will be restored to his usual good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ballem, Mrs. George Ballem, and Mr. Angel Ballem attended the shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Ballem, Bedouque, on Monday evening, September 8th, in honour of their daughter Edwina.

The Reverend Harold and Mrs. Raynor, of Nova Scotia, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. Raynor's brother, Mr. Allison Raynor.

The Presbyterian Church, Victoria West, was filled to capacity on Sunday evening, September 7th when the Orangemen held their annual service. Mr. Waldron of the Wellington charge was the special speaker on this occasion, assisted by Mr. Williamson of the Tyne Valley charge. The collection will be donated to the Protestant Orphanage, Charlottetown.

The Enmore W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Allison Raynor on Friday morning, September 12th. Ten members answered the roll call. It was decided to have the annual supper on Saturday, October 4th. An ice cream eating contest with contestants blindfolded caused much merriment. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Angus MacArthur.

Relatives and friends were saddened to hear of the death of Mr. Charles MacLennan, Quinoy, Mass., after a brief illness. Mr. MacLennan was well known here, having spent his annual vacation in this vicinity for the past thirty-eight years. Mrs. MacLennan is the former Miss Katherine MacArthur, a daughter of Mr. Philip MacArthur, Enmore. Sincere sympathy is being extended to the bereaved family.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Burns MacArthur. Seventeen members answered the roll call with a verse of scripture. The usual devotional period was carried out and plans were made to hold a chicken supper in the latter part of October. The "patch apron" is to go on the round again. The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gordon MacArthur. The meeting closed with prayer by the Reverend Mr. Osborne. Lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.
