Scouting The Juniors

SUMMERIDE JUNIOR LEGIONAIRES will definitely have their hands full next week when they clash with Spiny Juniors in the best-of-five series for the Maritime Junior hockey championship.

Easy winners over Hosts Movers of Dartmouth in a best-of-five series. The Nova Scotia team will likely win a strong skating club with plenty of scoring potential, under the reins of Cape Breton native "Porky" McIntosh. They will be the fourth junior team Summeride has met this season, and we expect the first one that will be able to keep pace with the visiting skating Legionnaire.

Bull around the nucleus of Spiny Juniors is N.S. high school and juvenile championship team of two years ago, the Cape Bretoners scoring punch will be led by six-foot-two-inch rightwinger John McMillan. A three year student at the Maritime Summer Hockey School, Kentville, Multwill last year failed to score in the playoffs with Niagara Falls Flyers of the OHA Junior "A" circuit. The non-hurried Sydney native has an exceptional draft status.

Playing on the same line with Multwill will be 16-year old youngster, Bob Levie, who has a reputation as being a fine play maker. Left wing is handled by Joe Andrea. The second Sydney line will likely be composed of Doug MacCormack, Grant MacCharles and Dave Burke. The latter was a big name for the Maritime Junior "A" circuit. The third line consists of Jack Ferguson, Ray Lynk and Blair Joseph. Ray MacCormack is the defence forward.

MacDonald On Offence

THE NAME PLAYER on the team's defence corps will be Kenny MacDonald, another graduate of the Maritime Summer Hockey School and brother of Detroit Red Wing star, Parker MacCormack. MacDonald is a defenseman who has plenty of our knowledge doesn't handle too well. The other defencemen will be Fred Saunders, Bruce MacNeill, Jack MacLellan and Harold MacNeill.

After talking with two persons who have seen the Sydney club over the last three years, we are of the opinion that they are strong. They seem to have depth, plenty of skating ability and a lot of experience. The team's attack will be led by the following forwards: Fred Saunders, Bruce MacNeill, Jack MacLellan and Harold MacNeill.

We think however, that McIntosh's club will need all the above mentioned strength and something extra if they hope to grab the Maritime junior championship from the Island, defending champs.

The Junior Legionnaires, coached by Grant Grady, had a great season in the Prince County Hockey League, finishing first place after a successful season. They were the champions, Summeride Teaco Combies. Paced in the Junior playoffs by classy forward Paul MacWilliam and goaltender the Senior, the Legionnaires have defeated every team they have played this season, and by times, have won several national championship awards.

We think the teams will be very evenly balanced and that the series will go the full five games. The club that gets the best start will head over under Canada and Memorial Cup playoffs.

Off The Cuff

BASEBALL EXPERTS figure the loss of second baseman Ken Hubbs to CHICAGO CURBS may cost them the National League pennant. Hubbs, who has been in the majors since 1967, was hit by a pitch in the 22-year-old Hubbs, killed earlier this year when his private plane crashed. Hubbs was the best player on the Cubs' infield. Chicago head coach, BOB KENNEDY hadn't figured on having to come up with a top notch second baseman for at least 10 years. The Cubs' infield is now made up of Hubbs' club, but the best one that can easily take over Hubbs' job, but the best one that can easily take over Hubbs' job, but the best one that can easily take over Hubbs' job.

JOE O'BRIEN has a stable of 30 horses at the Santa Anita track in California. O'Brien, who has been in the business for 20 years, has a reputation as being the best trainer in the country. He has trained many champions, including Secretariat, who won the Kentucky Derby in 1973.

CHARLOTTEVILLE MINOR LEAGUE hockey will have their final game of the season on Saturday night. The game will be a close one, as the two teams are evenly matched.

Red Wings And Toronto Have Experienced Clubs

BY ARNOLD KELLER
TORONTO (CP)—If, as the experts agree, experience is the big factor in Stanley Cup playoffs, defending champion Toronto Maple Leafs and Detroit Red Wings should meet in the finals.

These are the only two clubs in the National Hockey League showdown with players who have played 1,000 or more professional games—and both teams have four players in this select group.

The Leafs open their best-of-seven series against the Canadiens in Montreal tonight and the Wings travel to Chicago to meet the Black Hawks in the other series.

As might be expected, super-veteran goalie of the Wings has played in more games than any other active player in pro hockey. When this year's regular season wound up, his total was 1,200 games, 1,396 of them in the NHL.

The totals include regular season and playoff contests. GABBY 1,175-GAME MAN. He has played in 1,175 games in the NHL.

As far as hockey is concerned, our centennial year is turning out to be a banner one. If you take an answer without a box top, I'd say we have the junior N.B.—P.E.I. championship and the Island Intermediate "A" championship, and who knows what further honors lie ahead.

Each Works Them Hard; Brave Beaters In A Nest

DETROIT (CP)—One series of the Stanley Cup semi-finals may be a calm George (Punch) Imlach pushed his charges so hard in one drill that the Leafs were driven to the Detroit Red Wings was moved to Detroit. "This guy must be a real driver."

Reports from coach Tom Blake's retreat indicate that an atmosphere of complete calm permeates the Montreal camp. The value of the two systems which the Leafs have been practicing in the Laurentians north of Montreal.

At their own hideout—the Dearborn Inn a few miles from here—the Leafs were drying off the sweat Wednesday after three days of strenuous workouts at the Detroit Olympia.

The Leafs have been practicing the length of the ice, working on fast stops and wars, crashing each other into the boards, a shooting hard and spraining again.

Many of the Leafs expressed contempt for the odds-makers who have established the Canadiens as the favorite to take the Stanley Cup game and the series.

They point out that in spite of the Canadiens' lead in the series, they were playing better than any club in the league last Saturday night in a 4-1 victory earned themselves a 1-1 standing in this semi-final series.

THE WINGS, who later departed for their own haven in Toledo, Ohio, were impressed with the ferocity of Toronto practices but divided on how the Leafs will fare with Montreal.

Imlach, who guided the Leafs to the championship the last two years, commented on the trade with the Rangers: "We would have finished it first if we had made it a month earlier."

Wonderful Series Expected

This news that Sydney Heat has lost 2-1 in two games caused some mixing in Summerside, and the natural assumption was that the series would be a long haul for the Islanders. It should be known that Summerside heat a Halifax-Dartmouth star and 7-2 in the four-team league, which should make some difference. The fact remains, however, that Sydney will be no push-overs and should be a wonderful series.
