TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER. DOMINION PARLIAMENT. House of Commons. THE TARTE-McGREEVY CASE. OTTAWA, July 4. The House of Commons made good progress in supply yesterday, and adjourned till Monday. In the Tarte-McGreevy case yesterday O. E. Murphy, Tarte's chief witness, admitted that he skipped from New York fourteen years ago, being a defaulter as excise and school commissioner to the amount of fifty thousand dollars, and that he had been living under an assumed name in Canada. He refused to answer a number of questions on the ground that he might criminate himself. He admitted being arrested in Quebec on a criminal charge, and securing two postponements of the trial on account of absent witnesses in Texas and the Pacific Coast, who are still absent. This examination will be continued to-day. The bottom has pretty well dropped out of the case. Parnell's Position. DUBLIN, July 4. Mr. Parnell's marriage has not helped his cause. The action and declaration of the Irish bishops shows the attitude of the clergy. This is considered a final blow to Parnell's cause; and the reception at Carlow on Thursday shows that the people have ceased paying any attention to him. Only thirty persons were present. Disastrous Collision. CLEVELAND, July 4. In a railway collision at Ravenna, Ohio, yesterday, nineteen persons were killed and thirty-eight severely wounded. The cars took fire and some of the bodies were burned beyond recognition. Electrical Storm. TORONTO, July 4. There was a heavy electrical storm yesterday throughout West Ontario. In Toronto telegraph poles were blown down, playing havoc with the wires. Disastrous Hail Storm. CHICAGO, July 4. The greatest hail storm known in the Northwest for twenty years passed over North Dakota on Thursday, cutting down ten thousand acres of grain. Duke of Kent. LONDON, July 4. Prince George of Wales is to be made Duke of Kent. CAPE TOWN, July 2.—A body of armed Boers, composed of about 100 men and their families crossed Limpopo yesterday, raiding Mashonaland and taking the first steps toward founding the republic of the north. These men were pioneers of the big trek so long talked of, to prevent which President Kruger promised to use his utmost endeavors, when he informed the British Government he would consider any such invasion as an act of hostility against the Queen. The pioneers of the "big trek" were no sooner in Mashonaland than they were met by the police and troops in the employ of the British South Africa company, who drove the Boers back and arrested their leaders. Notes and Comments. We have to apologize to a number of correspondents. We are compelled to hold our budget is also crowded out. The Honorable Frederick Peters has not yet—according to an admission made in the course of his speech of last evening—discovered whether or not the members of his administration have souls; and the Honorable gentleman is still in doubt as to the Parliamentary title of the chairman of the private bills committee. "His soul is like a star; and dwells apart." In the House of Assembly this forenoon there was a case of Farquharson vs. the country; and the Government to a man voted with Farquharson. A bill to incorporate another Cloth Mill Company—an institution in which the interests of the farmers of the whole Province are involved—got the "three months' hoist" because the Hon. Donald Farquharson has some interest in the Charlottetown Woolen Mill Company and feared that the bill might prejudice him. When it comes to a question between the private interests of a member of the Government and the public interests of the Province, the former are favored by our patriotic majority. Farmers make a note of this fact. Religious Services. Don't forget the railway gospel meeting to-morrow afternoon in McLeod's Hall at four o'clock. Strangers always welcome. Lesson, Job 13:15—"Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him." Services to-morrow will be conducted by the Rev. David Sutherland, pastor, in the morning at 11 and in the evening at 7 o'clock. Morning prayer meeting at 10.15. Sabbath school and bible classes will meet at 2.30 p.m. Rev. G. O. Huestis will preach in the Methodist brick Church to-morrow morning. Kensington Hall, Edward Street.—Sunday School and Bible Class at 2.30. In the evening at 7 o'clock Evangelist Sutcliffe will give an address. Subject: "He was carried out; he walked back. Two friends will sing a duet. Visitors especially invited. A good handshake guaranteed. This hot weather everyone should use lime juice. The cheapest place to get it is at R. K. Bracc's. Bradstreet's report 6,037 failures in the United States during the past six months, an increase of 571 as compared with the total of the first half of 1890.

Action on account. Verdict for plaintiff for $210.74. SATURDAY, July 4. After the court opened this morning, the Grand Jury presented the Master of the Rolls with the following ADDRESS: Grand Jury Room, Court House, Charlottetown, July 4, 1891. TO THE HONORABLE E. J. HOBSON, Master of the Rolls, etc. MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP.—As the first Grand Jury assembled in this country since your elevation to the bench of the Supreme Court of this Province, we deem it a privilege that it is only seemly that we should ask Your Lordship to accept from us an assurance that your appointment to the judiciary as Master of the Rolls is regarded with greatest satisfaction. We venture, therefore, to congratulate Your Lordship upon this well merited recognition of your high legal attainments, your eloquence and honorable career. Your predecessor, the Honorable Mr. Justice Peters had long served his country with ability and faithfully in his elevated position, and his resignation, forced upon him by ripe age and failing health, called forth deep regret throughout this Province. We have since seen him laid peacefully to rest, leaving behind him the record of an upright judge, learned, conscientious and respected. When, however, your Lordship was selected to fill the vacancy, the public felt reassured, and viewed your appointment as best calculated to supply that which the Province lost in Mr. Justice Peters' resignation. In offering you our sincere congratulations we very devoutly trust that you may long be permitted to fill with dignity and distinction, and in vigorous health the high position to which your Lordship has attained. For self and fellows, JOHN MACCACHERN, Foreman. The Master of the Rolls in reply thanked the Grand Jury for the kind expression of their confidence in him which they had so feelingly conveyed by their address. Anything which emanated from the Grand Inquest of the County was entitled to the highest consideration and bore with it the greatest weight, and what made it peculiarly gratifying to him was the fact that he recognized among them some who had been schoolfellows of his in days gone by, others who, while he had been at the bar had reposed confidence in him as their legal adviser and counsel, and in all, those whom he respected and esteemed. His illustrious predecessor the late Master of the Rolls, whose death all deplored, had dignified the position with so much of learning and ability during the forty-three years he had presided in the Court of Chancery and acted as assistant Judge of the Supreme Court, that the duties of his successor were rendered more than ordinarily onerous. It would be his duty to maintain, as best he could, the magnificent traditions which his predecessor had bequeathed to him; and he assured them that, next to the confidence which had been extended to him by our most gracious sovereign, whom by her grace and favor this high office had been entrusted to him, he would value that of the gentlemen of the Grand Jury for Queen's County. His Lordship then directed the address to be entered upon the minutes of the Court. The Grand Jury visited the Jail, Poor House and Asylum yesterday, and reported as having found the various buildings and premises in a clean and orderly condition. They recommended that the drain from the Jail be attended to, and also that there should be provided new chairs for the aged inmates of the Poor House, in place of the old ones now in use. The Grand Jury were much impressed at so many boys having charges preferred against them, and strongly recommended that while such young persons should be duly punished, a suitable reformatory should be provided or arrangement should be made for placing them in some such institution already established elsewhere, rather than that they should be imprisoned with older prisoners hardened in misdoing. The Grand Jurors—whose names were inadvertently omitted on the first day of the term—were the following: J McEachern, city, (foreman); James Burns, North River; Frank Boyver, Lot 48; Phillip Hughes, Mill Cove; Horace Hassard, city; H C Douse, city; Norman McLeod, Spring Point, Orwell; Oliver Wadman, Crapaud; Murdoch McLeod, Uigg; F L McNutt, city; Ephraim Gallant, Rustico; W D McKay, city; Thos Doyle, Rustico; L W Watson, city; Geo Houston, New Glasgow; Thos Vessey, Little York; Alex Martin, Caledonia; Wm Mutch, Hopeton, Lot 48; Jas Paton, city; Patrick Kelly, Mill Cove. They were discharged to-day. Jas. E. Grant vs. Neil Kirker.—Action for agreement to supply lobsters. Verdict for plaintiff for $159. The Queen vs. Wm. Mahar.—House-breaking with intent to commit felony. Now before the Court. BIRTH. In this city on the 4th July, the wife of H. C. Wilson of a son. WANTS, LOST, FOUND &c TO LET.—Dwelling House with seven rooms on Sidney Street, in centre of the city. Water in the house. Possession at once. Enquire at R. K.
