Word has been received by relatives in Alberton of the death Monday in Rye, New York, of Mrs. W. R. Dyer. A native of Cape Breton, the former Miss Lillian Smith taught school for some years in Nova Scotia before training as a nurse in New Glasgow. Following post-graduate work in the United States, she did private duty in New York for a number of years. In 1926 she was married to Dr. W. R. Dyer, a native of Alberton. Although she has not been in good health for some time her death came suddenly. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Elizabeth, Mrs. J. W. Waugh, Misses Maud and Eva Dyer of Alberton are sisters-in-law. The funeral will be held from St. Peter's Church, Alberton, arrangements to be completed after the arrival of Dr. Dyer and his daughter on Wednesday evening. Interment will be in the family plot in St. Peter's cemetery.

McGill Accepts $100,000 Bequests
MONTREAL (CP)—Two bequests totalling $100,000 from the estate of Lady Amy Redpath Roddick, Canadian poet, author and philanthropist, were formally accepted by McGill University Tuesday.
The bequests—one for $75,000 and the second for $25,000—were accepted by Dr. F. Cyril James, the university's principal and vice-chancellor.
Both funds were established during the lifetime of Lady Roddick for the purchase of rare books for McGill's Redpath library.
The library was given to McGill by Peter Redpath, her uncle.
