THE HERALD, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 30, 1868.

On Friday, the 18th inst., the barn of Mr. Nicholas Ahearn, Norway, Lot 1, together with its contents, was destroyed by fire. Some stacks of grain contiguous to the barn were also burnt. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a little girl, about five years old, who was playing about the premises and somehow applied a light to one of the stacks of grain. The most of Mr. Ahearn's crop was thus destroyed, and is doubtless a heavy loss to him.

Death of Dr. Hammond Johnson.—It is with unfeigned regret we have to announce the death, after an illness of three weeks, of Dr. Hammond Johnson. The Dr. was a comparatively young man. His professional services were ever at the gratuitous service of the poor. He will be much missed by the community, and his death deplored at many a fireside.

Our Merchants are busy—'head and ears' into work putting in a supply of fall and winter goods. It is worth noticing that this year our merchants have not waited for direct importations from Liverpool to Charlottetown. Many of them have had their goods come to Halifax and thence sent on here. We think that a good smart steamer to ply between Halifax and here would prove highly lucrative.

The King's County Exhibition and Cattle Show, opened in Georgetown yesterday, and will be continued to-day. Ample arrangements had been made for the successful carrying out of the affair. In addition to the Exhibition and Show there is to be a ploughing-match and horse-races. We expect to be furnished with a list of those who have taken prizes, and other particulars for publication in our next issue.

We are indebted to to Capt. Richard Walsh and Mr. John H. Kelly, late of this for city, files of late European papers. Both these gentlemen are entitled to our thanks for their consideration in keeping us supplied with Irish and English papers.

Our friend, Mr. McRae, has a splendid assortment of clothing. His hats are the admiration of the city, and it is quite a rare thing to see a man without one of Mr. McRae's hats on.

The Tignish Convent is completed, and will be opened for the reception of pupils as soon as the Nuns arrive to take charge of it, which will be in the course of a few days.

The Queen's County Industrial Exhibition and Cattle Show will take place in Charlottetown on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

The Hon. Sir Henry Smith, formerly Speaker of the Assembly of the old united Province of Canada, and M. P. P., for Frontenac, died on the 18th inst.

The Nova Scotia Legislature was prorogued on Monday week. The Militia Bill passed during the Session was not assented to by the Lieut. Governor.

King Victor Emmanuel sent £120 to the peasant who assisted in saving his life whilst out shooting, and has besides granted him a pension for life.

Fire.—On Tuesday morning, about 2 o'clock, one of the lime houses, at the kiln of the Hon. George Beer, was destroyed by fire.

The Ontario Legislature is summoned to meet for the dispatch of business on Tuesday, the 3rd November.

The Colonial Secretary, and the Hon. Benj. Davies, are away on a pleasure trip to the United States.

Last year a negro carried off the first prize at the Propaganda, Rome.

The death of Lord Ashburton is announced.

Election of Officers of the Charlottetown Harmonic Society, will take place on Friday next, the 2nd October. None in arrears of dues will be entitled to vote.

N. P. STRAMBERG, Sec'y.

[From the Belfast Weekly Observer, Ireland, August 29.]

We regret to have to announce the death of Mrs. Loughrin, mother of the Rev. Peter Loughrin, of Clones. Throughout life she was respected for her many virtues, and her edifying death was in accordance with that life. She belonged to that class of fervent, but unostentatious, Catholics, whose solid piety has done so much for the promotion of religion, and the fruits of her example and teaching may be seen in the gifted and beloved clergyman who ministers amongst a flock that idolizes him, and who is held in the highest esteem by his brother clergymen in the Dioces ofe Clogher.—R.I.P.

TILTON & McFARLAND'S BURGLAR AND FIREPROOF SAFES;

Steel Vaults and Combination Bank Locks.

Tilton & McFarland's Safes.—If anything can add to the regret occasioned by heavy losses by fire, it is the worthlessness of a safe to whose protection had been entrusted the most valuable property of the owner. There were hundreds of fire-proof safes, so-called, which under the test of the late fire proved to be the sheerest shams, much worse than nothing, for, relying upon their protecting powers, valuables were left in them which else would have been saved. Among the safes not of that class, but which proved to be honestly made and wonderfully proof against fire, were those manufactured by Messrs. Tilton & McFarland. Read the certificates given of their capacity to resist heat. As our safe failed us, though not subjected to anything like the heat which some of those withstood successfully, we have, after examination, ordered for our new office one of this kind, being satisfied that these safes are what they purport to be—fire proof, under all ordinary circumstances of exposure.—Portland Argus.

Died,

On the morning of September 28th, of Typhoid Fever, Hammond Johnson, M. D., aged 39 years, peacefully and confidently trusting in Jesus.

On the 24th inst., at her father's residence, in this city, Mrs. David Walker, of Shediac, eldest daughter of the Rev. J. Davis, in the 34th year of her age. She "sleeps in Jesus."

On Bay Fortune Road, on Sunday, the 20th September, after a short illness of 14 days, Mary Ann, the beloved wife of Kearn Larkin, aged 36 years. She leaves a husband and one child to mourn the irreparable loss of an affectionate wife and a tender-hearted and loving mother. She was a good neighbor, and highly esteemed by all her acquaintences.

In morn of life and maternal bloom,
Her fleeting years, alas! how few.
Early she met her destined doom,
And bade this world a long adieu.

May angels guard her immortal soul
To glorious realms of endless day;
In robes of purest white enfold,
And all her sins be washed away.

Oh! cease, ye mournful souls to weep,
That life's short glass so soon is run,
And though in death's cold arms she sleeps,
Exclaim: "Thy will, O Lord, be done."

And O! may those she 's left behind,
Partakers of her flesh and blood,
Keep this important truth in mind:
They, too, must shortly meet their God.
