HELEN JACOBS WINS ENGLISH TENNIS TITL

Realizes Ambition By Beating German Star In Three Gruelling Sets

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

WIMBLEDON, England, June 5—Helen Hull Jacobs realized today her oft-frustrated dream of winning the all-England women's tennis championship.

The United States star fought her way to a three-set victory in the final Saturday over Frau Hilda Krahwinkel Sperling of Germany and Denmark, 6-2, 4-6, 7-5.

Miss Jacobs success came as a climax after four unsuccessful endeavours. Last year she was defeated in the final by Mrs. Helen Wills Moody of the United States. Mrs. Moody announced some time ago she would not defend her Wimbledon title this year.

The United States champion had a stern battle in disposing of Frau Sperling. The German-Danish star got back almost every shot that Miss Jacobs played. Trying to pass her was like boring through a stone wall. In the final set almost every game went to deuce. The American's chopping back-hand drives finally just turned the scales in her favor.

British Players Win Other Titles

While this title went overseas again, Great Britain swept all the other events.

In men's doubles George Patrick Hughes and Charles Tuckey disposed of the Britons Charles Hare and Fred Wilde in a prolonged struggle, 6-4, 3-6, 7-9, 6-1, 6-4. Hughes and Tuckey will get the doubles assignment when Britain defends the Davis Cup in the challenge round.

Freda James and Kay Stammers teamed up to eliminate Miss Jacobs and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan of the United States in straights sets, 6-2, 6-1. This final followed Miss Jacobs singles match and she was obviously tired.

Fred Perry, who blasted injured Baron Gottfried Von Cramm of Germany off the court to win the men's singles title in straight sets on Friday, paired with Dorothy Round to win the mixed doubles title, defeating Donald Budge and Mrs. Fabyan, 7-9, 7-5, 6-4.

The crowd of 18,000 spectators gave Miss Jacobs a tremendous ovation after her singles match. For five minutes people cheered and applauded as Helen excitedly gathered up her wraps and racquets and trudged happily but wearily from the court.

"I'm so happy I finally won—both happy and lucky," she said afterwards. Mrs. Sperling played so well, so steadily.

'I think the hunting I did the past year was ground training," she said. "It strengthened my legs. They stood up wonderfully all the way."

Presented to Royalty

After an hour's rest, she was presented to Princess Marie Louise in the Royal Box.

A smoking service game, plus beautiful steadiness and chop strokes, carried Miss Jacobs to her long sought victory. Her German fce, a head taller and a ball retriever of the finest grade, took the first and third games of the opening set but the American champion closed with such an undeniable rush that she swept the next five games, only one of which went to deuce, to win the set.

Tip Tops Edge Out Nationals

Rallying in the last half of the ninth to score two runs after throwing away a five run lead in the seventh, Tip Tops baseball teams defeated the Nationals 8 to 7 in a weekend fixture of the Industrial Baseball League. And it was a single down the third base line by young Joe McDonald that drove in the winning run and ruined the comeback of the Nationals.

Overshadowed by their opponents in the first six innings and held in check by the two hit hurling of "Lefty" McAleer, Nationals scored five times in the seventh as the Tops blew wide open to knot the score at six all and then went on to gain the lead in the eighth. Tip Tops lost a lot of their pep at this unexpected turn of events and appeared to be beaten, only to rally in the ninth and drive in the tieing and winning runs on a hit batsman, two passed batters and two line singles. "Lefty" McAleer deserved the pitching victory. He granted but six hits while fanning eight. Oogs McLeod started for the losers but was replaced by brother Jim with one out in the fifth after allowing three runs and three hits. Jim, the losing hurler, was nicked for three hits and five runs during his tenure on the mound.

Three Local Yachts Will Race At Pictou

Three Prince Edward Island racing yachts—Ghost, owned by Dr. Louis Johnston, Montague; Mic owned by Simon Paoli, Jr., and Mac owned by Jack King, Art Campbell and Mac Irwin, Charlottetown—will leave Charlottetown Tuesday for Pictou, N. S. where they are entered in yachting events to be held in connection with Pictou Lobster Carnival.

The little Prince Edward Island fleet which will make the trip across the strait to the Nova Scotia port will consist of four motor boats besides the three yachts. The group will be led by Commodore Fred Morris.

The three yachts will be towed across to Pictou by power craft owned by Mac Irwin and Hal Burke, Charlottetown.

The Ghost and its sister vessels Mic and Mac will be making their first start as racers when they compete in the Pictou races. All three yachts were built according to specifications laid down by the newly-organized Yacht Racing Association of Northumberland Straits.

Meeting Of S'side Baseball Club

A special meeting of the Summerside Baseball Club was held on Friday evening to consider some important matters which had arisen within the last week. President Wilfred Kelly was in the chair and the first matter to be called was the appointment of a new secretary-treasurer to replace Davis Lidstone, now attending summer school at Acadia University. Jim Dodds was elected to the position.

A brief resume of the financial standing of the Club was taken and found to be excellent considering the fact that it possessed a ball, a bat, and now even a little money in the bank.

The next point to be raised was the point of registration and the following players were selected to form a single Summerside team: Phillips, Dodds, Schurman, H. Durant, Daly, Wilson, Durant, Crossman, C. Ward, E. Ward, Millman, Larkin, H. Cow.

Jack Schurman and Jim Dodds were elected as Summerside representatives to the meeting to be held in Charlottetown following the Pioneer-Dodger game on Tuesday. The opinion felt at the meeting was that it would be impossible to enter 2 teams since several players have either left town or are now playing Junior since the beginning of the season.

It was decided that competition for the B. W. Robinson prize offered at the beginning of the season would begin with the first game of the new proposed league. Should the league again not materialize the average will be taken from games starting with the first Pioneer-Dodger tussle. Accordingly players are advised to tune up their batting eyes and make whoever wins the prize earn it.—)

SAILOR'S TEAM DEFEATED BY DODGERS

Scoring the only runs of the game in the last half of the second inning and backing up the brilliant two hit hurling of Elmer Larter with a smart defensive display the local Dodgers defeated a combined team of sailors from H.M.C.S. Saguenay and Champlain 2-0 in a weekend exhibition baseball game.

The game was strictly a pitcher's battle throughout with Larter, the local moundsman, aided by two fast double plays, shading his left-handed rival, McIntosh of the Tars, by a slight margin. Larter granted but two hits while McIntosh yielded five. In addition to hurling a fine game it was Larter who drove in the first run of the game with a looping single over third, a counter that turned out to be sufficient to win.

McIntosh was only in trouble in the second and thereafter gave a great display. In the second McQuirrie, first batter, got on on an error, Acorn singled advancing him to third; Larter singled over third, scoring the runner, Acorn taking third; V. Larter was safe on a fielder's choice, Acorn being nabbed at the plate trying to score. A minute later McIntosh threw E. Larter out at third as he caught him napping off the sack. V. Larter went to third on a wild pitch and scampered home as McIntosh uncorked his second wild heave. Bradley drew a walk and McDougall was hit by a pitched ball to put runners on first and second again but McIntosh bore down hard to end the inning by getting McCallum on strikes. The "sailors" threatened in the 3rd and 4th as the first batters got on but double plays nipped the rallies in each case. Again in the sixth they had the first batter but Larter was too good in the final pinch.

Richardson Sets New Record

(By Elmer Dulmage Canadian Press Staff Writer)

HAMILTON, Ont., July 5—Sammy Richardson, who will be the lazy bones of Canada's Olympic track and field team unless he breaks a leg, has completed his formal warming up for the official trials by setting a new Canadian record for the hop, step and jump and making a foul jump that measured 25 feet, 6 inches in the broad jump.

A great natural athlete who can't bother to train, the 17-year-old colored boy from Toronto yesterday with his jumping after arriving too late to take part in the 100-yard dash. He had been expected to place at least in the sprint.

Richardson won the broad jump at 23 feet, 9 1-2 inches and then cut loose with a 48-foot, 7-inch effort in the running hop, step and jump to displace the record established in the 1930 British Empire Games here by Gordon Smallacombe of Toronto. Smallacombe's mark was 48-5.

But it was Sammy's fout flier in the broad jump that made the crowd of 500 gasp. On his first attempt, the long-legged youth soared high and far from the take-off board and almost landed on solid earth at the end of the jump pit. His foot was over the board on the take-off, however, and officials made the measurement merely to confirm that the jump was the longest ever made in Canada.

Richardson won the event on his second jump despite a mis-step near the board and his third jump was a few inches shorter. His own Canadian outdoor record is 24 feet, 11 inches. Had his 25-6 jump been legal it would have been one of the best made this year in any country.

United States Athletes Prepare For Olympic With Great Perfor

(By Allan Allan Gould Assbciated Press Sports Editor)

PRINCETON, N. J., July 4—A burst of record-smashing exploits still reverberated like fire-crackers today after foremost track and field athletes of the United States wound up their National A. A. U. senior championships and girded themselves for the coming Olympic team battle.

Twenty thousand holiday enthusiasts saw such mighty performers as Jesse Owens, Forrest "Spec" Towns, Gene Hardin and the redoubtable Don Lash pace an onslaught upon time and distance that produced record-breaking performances. In eight of the 22 events on the title program, witnessed the downfall of eight champions in individual competition, and hoisted a new statellite to the athletic skies in George Varoff, blond pole-vaulter of San Francisco's Olympic Club.

Varoof, 22-year-old janitor soared to a new world record of 14 feet, 6 1-2 inches. Never before a contender in national title competition, he beat the highly favored Southern California pair, Earle Meadows and Bill Sexton.

Varoff topped the listed world mark of 14 feet, 4 3-8 inches, set four years ago in the Olympic tryouts at Palo Alto by Southern California's Bill Graber. He also displaced the American mark of 14 feet, 5 1-8 inches, made by Yale's Keith Brown and on file for world approval.

Varoff will make his bid for the Olympic team in the final tryouts next week-end at New York.

Two Wins for Owens

Jess Owens accomplished two stylish triumphs. After out-running his Marquette rival, Ralph Metcalfe, by a yard to capture the 100 metre dash in 10:4 seconds, equalling the meet record, Owens returned to the broad-jump pit and cleared 26 feet, three inches to annex his second championship. This leap tied the meet record which enabled Eulace Peacock, Temple University negro, to win the event last year. It also bettered the listed world mark of 26 feet, 2 1-8 inches, held by Japan's Chuehei Nambu, but fell short of the Ohio Stat mark of 26 feet, last year pending world record.
