Kleaner's Klosit

By Ed Orlovski

Psssst, to all who were listening, this was real funny is the resident janitor pressed the old white top of "jingles" who with the child-proof anti-magnetic no-nonsense top the sprays on was the size of two packages of bubble gum remover, was spitting out onto the carpet, and jingles figured chewed all at once then spittoon'ed like the map of Uganda, real pretty like, and jingles, by his or after sitting on it, it looked like the snow on the mountain so to say, before jingles could shear make-up was able to put snow on the mountain so to say, before jingles could do more hollering the janitor had his patty wife out and the gum globbie was al of the janitor, over-hearing the little nip, didn't share jingles' sentiments at all, and without a word, set jingles who is the resident manificient bic pen blue can of bubble gum remover, with child-proof anti-magnetic no-nonsense top that sprays, color, any shape, on the shell, and gently closed the door.
