

Christmas-Tide.

Another happy Christmas-tide has come,
And blithe bells carol to the frosty skies.

The joy of beating hearts and beaming eyes
Met once again in many a dear old home.

Bright is the ingle with the yule-log's blaze,
And bright the Christmas wreaths of green and red,

But brighter far is Love's pure halo shed

Around this calmest, happiest of days.

For one brief hour the storms of passion cease,
And all the discords of earth's babel-tongue

Are hushed to silence by the angels' song,
'To God be glory, and on earth be peace.

O fair sweet Advent! Be thy coming blest,
In lifting human gaze to Christ above;

Then shall our earthly homes or light and love,
Glow with the presence of a heavenly guest.

Social Types.

DESCRIPTION OF VARIOUS COURTINGS, AND FATES WHICH FOLLOW.

The various grades of belles and beaux that are now on the matrimonial lists will be found in the following table, carefully compiled from cupid's votaries in our midst:

FIRST TYPE.

Blonde young lady. Dark young man.
Nice combination. Pretty as a picture.
Parents wealthy. Charming alliance.

SECOND TYPE.

Poor young man. Rich young lady.
He is considered clever. She is plain. No nonsense about her. He is studying law.

THIRD TYPE.

Young man on small salary. Admires extravagant young lady. Pretty and knows it. Her father works hard. Just able to support the family.

FOURTH TYPE.

Wealthy old widower. Handsome, accomplished girl. Just out of school. Charming but mercenary. Has been engaged.

FIFTH TYPE.

Sensible, sweet young lady. Like the reader. Clever, active young business man.
Just like your own boy. Knew each other since childhood.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases.

Cabul: Its Fortifications.

Cabul stands on the southern side of the Cabul River, in the midst of a large plain.
Rocky ranges of gneissic formation, running from northwest to southeast, overshadow it.

An Astonished Conductor.

'Get aboard, old limpy,' said a port conductor to an aged, plainly dressed lame man standing on the platform waiting for the signal to depart; 'get aboard, old limpy, or you will be left.'

At the signal the old gentleman quietly stepped aboard and took a seat by himself.

The conductor passed on, and another passenger who had seen the transaction
said to him:

'Did you know that old gentleman?'
'No, I did not.'

'Well, it is Mr. —, the president of this road.'

The conductor changed color and bit his lips, but went on and finished taking up the tickets. As soon as he had done he returned to 'old limpy' and said:

'Sir, I resign my situation as conductor.'

'Sit down here, young man. I do not wish to harm you; but we run this road for profit, and to accommodate the public, and we make it an invariable rule to treat every person with perfect civility, whatever garb he wears, or whatever infirmity he suffers. This rule is imperative upon every one of our employes. I shall not remove you for what you have done, but it must not be repeated.'

That conductor afterwards never saw among his passengers another 'old limpy.'

Cost of the "Know How."

There was much gumption evinced by that particular darkey whose master was a surgeon who had performed on another darkey an operation requiring a high degree of skill. The latter darkey was well-to-do, and the surgeon charged him twenty-five dollars for the operation.

Meeting the doctor's servant afterward,
this dialogue occurred:
'Dat was a mighty steep charge of the doctor's for cutting on me tudder day.'

'How much did de boss charge?'
'Well, Julius, he charge me twenty-five dollars.'

'Go 'long, niggah, dat ain't much charge.'

'Well, he wasn't more dan three or four minutes doin' it and I think five dollars was all he oughter took.'

'Look-a-heah, Sam; you don't un'stan bout dat ting: You see de boss have to spend a great many yet 'larnin' how' to use that knife, an' it cost him heaps of money. How the fact am dat he only charge you five dollars for the operation;
de tudder twenty he charged for de
'know how.'

LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY.

THE ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION,
54, Holborn-viaduct, E. C., London, Aug. 18, 1879, report on the "Lorne Highland Whiskey" of Messrs. Greenlees Brothers:—
"We have visited the bottling stores of Messrs. Greenlees Brothers, at Gresham-buildings, London, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whiskey, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were pale, showing their freedom from added coloring matter, very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor; in fact, they possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whiskey of the first quality."

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy
CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:— DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long.
I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite clear of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loath-some disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper Yours truly,

W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister.
