BENS DORP'S ROYAL DUTCH COCOA.

BENS DORP'S Royal Dutch Cocoa has a most enviable reputation the world over. It is manufactured at Bendorp & Co.'s extensive works in Amsterdam, Holland. The excellence of the beverage is not to be wondered at, considering the care exercised in its production. The beans from which it is manufactured are the product of one of the famous South American plantations, exclusively. The crop is shipped to the factory, where it is carefully picked, roasted and ground; the grease is then extracted by hydraulic pressure resulting in a powder entirely free from oil and moisture, which completes the manufacture. The product is then put up in parchment papers and in turn enclosed in hermetically sealed tins, which preserve it from deterioration in any climate. It is so highly appreciated at court that it is manufactured under Royal Letters Patent of the King of the Netherlands, by whose special command it is known as the "Royal Dutch Cocoa." The Royal family of Great Britain are constant consumers and prefer it to any other. Bendorp's Royal Dutch Cocoa is for sale in Charlottetown by Geo. Carter & Co. Dec. 15, 1890.
