

The Wit of Actor Charles Mathews.

Mathews once went to perform at Wakefield, in Yorkshire, when, owing to the depressed state of trade, the drama received no support.

Mathews, seated on a coach box on a frosty day waiting for the driver, said to him when at length he appeared "If you stand here much longer, Mr. Coachman, your horses will be like Captain Perry's ships."

Mathews being asked what he was going to do with his son (the young man's profession was to be that of architect) "Why," answered the comedian, "he is going to draw houses like his father."

A friend attending on Mathews in his last illness found that he had given him some ink from a vial in mistake for his medicine. On discovering the error he exclaimed! "Good heavens Mathews, I have given you ink!" "Never mind, my dear boy, never mind!" Said Mathews faintly, "I'll swallow a little piece of blotting paper."

A Remedy for hydrophobia.

M. Pasteur may well look to laurels if the story of the wonderful remedy against hydrophobia is true which a Dutch family at Peize, in Holland, is said to have in its possession. For over a century the secret of the drug has been kept, and the Nieuwe Rotterdamse Courant has only heard of it through the garrulity of an old man from the neighborhood of Peize, who affirms that for seventy years he has never known a single case of death from hydrophobia.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as biliousness, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, indigestion, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cts. Try it.
