HIS HONOR the Lieutenant Governor has appointed Eustace Heath Haviland, Esquire, to be his Private Secretary.

A LITTLE GIRL belonging to Daniel Ber-taux, of Somerset, King's County, N. S., was choked to death by a bean with which she was playing, on Thursday morning.

MR. R. W. PHIPPS, the eccentric protectionist, is out with a long letter in the Globe on the Letellier case, in which he justifies the coup d'etat and desires a dissolution of the Dominion Parliament on the question.

THE well-known gun factory of Sir William Armstrong & Co., at Elswick, Newcastle-on-Tyne, has, it is stated, handed over to the authorities a number of their heaviest breech-loading guns, which have been manufactured specially for the defences of Canada.

RIOTS IN IRELAND.—Reinforcements of the constabulary force were, on the 15th inst., ordered to proceed to Coal Island, County Meath, in consequence of the July riots at Newry, County Meath. A sub-inspector of police has been shot.

CIVIC.—We are authorized to state that Theoph. DesBrisay, Esq., will be a Candidate for the office of Mayor in the coming election. As will be seen by reference to advertising columns, Mr. J. W. Mitchell is in the field for Ward five.

MR. E. F. DAWSON, C. E. of the Royal East India Civil Service, arrived home on Saturday evening from England via Halifax, on a short visit to his parents before going to India this fall. This young gentleman is a son of W. E. Dawson, Esq., Mayor of this city.

JOHN HORNE was charged before Theoph. DesBrisay to-day with assaulting and threatening Benj. Toombs. As it appeared to be a very small matter, Mr. H. was nominally fined 25 cents, and ordered to find sureties to keep the peace and be of good behaviour for twelve months.

REDUCTION OF RENTS IN IRELAND.—Lord Listowel has intimated his intention of reducing his rents in the County Kerry fifty per cent. Reports of the crop prospects throughout Ireland are exceedingly favorable. All that is wanted is dry, warm weather to ensure an abundant, though late harvest.

ON the termination of the present sittings of the War Office Committees, Sir Patrick Macdougall will return to Halifax, N. S. Lord Napier, of Magdala, who has also been a member of the same committees with Sir Patrick, returns to Gibraltar to resume his command of the forces there.

AT the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, this forenoon, John McAree, charged with stealing fifty dollars from Miss O'Brien, his aunt, was remanded to jail for eight days, or until the return of Miss O'Brien to the city. SUPREME COURT, GEORGETOWN.—In the case of Frederick LePage vs. the Canada Fire and Marine Insurance Company, an action to recover the amount of a fire insurance policy on a house at Eldon, the Jury returned a verdict of $840.00 for the plaintiff. The Grand Jury returned a true bill against Margaret McDonald for obtaining goods from A. C. McDonald and others, under false pretences. Trial will take place at the next session of the Court.

POINT DU CHENE.—The Sackville Post contains the following:—"A few American vessels have called here to order sails, having had some of their sails carried away by the squall of some ten days ago; some of them have gone out and others are waiting for sails and gear, when they will repair to the fishing grounds. The prospects are reported good, some very fine catches having been made. Should the weather prove a success, it will make stirring times during August and September. At present, according to reports, everything bids fair to reward the fishermen."

ZERA.—As will be seen by referring to our advertising columns, Professor Zera gives three performances in this city, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Of his recent performances in Summerside, the Progress says:—"Professor Zera, the wizard and ventriloquist, gave three entertainments in Ludlow Hall, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. So great was the attraction that the audience grew larger each night. Some of the ventriloquist illusions were really wonderful, and elicited loud applause. Many valuable presents were given away each evening at the close of the performance."
