Local and Other Items.

HALLOW'EEN.—Wednesday next.

SLOW ABOUT COMING.—The platform in front of the Bishop's Palace.

QUEER.—While we are being almost deluged, Japan is suffering for want of rain.

FROM BOSTON.—The steamer Halifax leaves Boston for Charlottetown at four o'clock this afternoon.

THE RIFLE.—After three postponements, the Engineers have at last got a fine day for their shooting match.

THE NEW RINK.—Messrs. Taylor Bros., the contractors for the erection of the new skating rink building, are making great progress with the work.

FIRST INSTALMENT.—On Thursday, says the St. John Sun, the note holders of the defunct Maritime bank received their first dividend of 50 cents on the dollar. It is understand that about $50,000 were paid out.

DEAFNESS CURED.—A very interesting 132 page Illustrated book on deafness. Noise in the head. How they may be cured at your home. Post free 3d—Address DR. NICHOLSON, St. John Street, Montreal. dw tf

LECTURE.—The fourth lecture of the course in connection with St. James' Church Literary Society, will be delivered in St. James' Hall, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 30. Lecturer, Rev. D. M. Gordon, B. D. Subject: Rambles in the Northwest.

ASHORE.—It is reported that the schooner Alert, Captain Wyand, which left Crapaud for Pictou with a load of potatoes a few days ago is aground at Cariboo. The Alert is owned by Mr. D. Farquharson. Neither schooner or cargo are insured.

CHEAP FARES.—Special attention is directed to the advertisement of the steamers Carroll and Worcester. The fare from Charlottetown to Boston has been reduced to $4. and the $6 return tickets have been made good for the balance of the season.

DROWNED.—Captain C. Simpson, of the steamer Escalona, lying at the Government pier, St. John, fell overboard and was drowned on Thursday evening last while directing disentanglement of the anchors preparatory to sailing.

TELEGRAPHIC.—The cable between Capes Traverse and Tormentine, which gave out a few days ago, is now being worked with difficulty. So far only private messages have been transmitted. As a result we are again without our special despatches to-day.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A farmer named Augustine Bastarache dropped dead in a field at Buctouche the other day. He was raking newly cut oats, and complained to his son of being cold, folded his arms and almost immediately dropped dead. The cause of death is not known.

JUMPED FROM THE WINDOW.—A drunken lumberman, named Chas. Skidd, hailing from Miramichi, jumped from a hotel window at Indiantown, St. John, on Wednesday night. When he was picked up and examined, it was found that his left thigh was broken, and that he was pretty badly shaken up.

SPECIAL SERVICES.—Rev. A. Lowrey, D.D., and Mrs. Lowrey, of New York, will conduct a series of religious services in the Second Methodist Church of this city, commencing Tuesday, Nov. 6th, and continuing the week following. The services recently held by Dr. Lowrey in the Exmouth Street Methodist Church, St. John, have been largely attended and productive of much good.

ELECTION.—The Presidential election takes place in the United States on Tuesday, the 6th November. There has been a good deal of betting on the result. Mr. Andrew McClennan, an enthusiastic Brooklyn Democrat, has more than $10,000 planked at odds on Cleveland, and he has $5000 or $6000 more to send after it, and Mr. H. A. Willis has bet $250 even on Harrison.

THE FAKIRS AGAIN.—The St. John Sun says:—"Two pea and shell racket fakirs came over from the Island races on Thursday, and took the Point du Chene accommodation for St. John. They tried their game on the cars and fleeced a countryman of five dollars. Conductor McQuarrie caught on to the swindle and made the operators restore their ill-gotten plunder. The blacklegs got off at Riverside, where they did a good business for a short time."

CREDITABLE.—Dr. Dawson, of this city, presented the Legislative Library, a few days ago, with a valuable collection of curiosities. Among them are a horseshoe crab—a very delicate and beautiful thing—specimens of petrified wood obtained in this Province, a number of arrow heads, a preserved snake, a piece of gold bearing quartz from Australia, and a portion of a bomb which exploded close to the doctor while engaged in the war of the great Confederate States rebellion.

VISIT OF THE M. W. PATRIARCH.—The Rev. R. A. Temple, of Halifax, Most Worthy Patriarch of the National Division of North America, will arrive here on Monday evening. The Sons of Temperance will assemble in the Division Room on that evening at 8 o'clock, when a formal reception will be tendered him. A full and punctual attendance is requested. We understand that this is the first instance in which the order on Prince Edward Island has been honored with an official visit from so distinguished an officer.

HEAVY SENTENCES.—The Stipendiary Magistrate, this morning, sentenced Thomas Enman to two months' imprisonment with hard labor, for being disorderly in the house of C. Nelson, Water Street, on Thursday night; and for being drunk and disorderly, $30 or 30 days. Daniel Carroll, for being disorderly at Nelson's with Enman, was fined $20 or 20 days. Jos. Cameron was given three months' imprisonment with hard labor, for vagrancy. We understand that some pretty good-sized rods are in pickle for others of the same stamp.

SERVICES TO-MORROW.—A Gospel meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Every person is invited. Subject: God's fellow workers, 1st Cor. iii. 9.

Elder D. Crawford will preach in the Christian Meeting House, Upper Great George Street, at half-past six to-morrow (Sunday) evening.

Remember the Railway Gospel Meeting held in McLeod's Hall every Sunday, at 4 p. m. Strangers always welcome. Lesson for to-morrow, Rev. 3-20: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock."

Dr. Inch, President of the Mount Allison Wesleyan University, will deliver an address on Christian Education in the Second Methodist Church to-morrow morning, at 11 o'clock. Rev. J. Read will assist at the service. Special collection in aid of Educational Society. All are cordially invited.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

De Giers Honored.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.

To-day was the fiftieth anniversary of the entrance of M. De Giers, the foreign minister, into the public service, and a reception was held at the foreign office in honor of the event. The heads of the foreign embassies presented M. De Giers with a gold inkstand. To-morrow Gen. Van Schweinitz, the German ambassador, will give a banquet to De Giers, at which all foreign diplomats will be present. The Journal de St. Petersburg this morning refers to the great confidence which the Czar places in De Giers, whose only desire has been, it says, to be of faithful service to his master, and to Russia.

Robbing the Mails.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.

The mail pouch which left Boston on Tuesday and arrived in Chicago last evening over the Michigan Southern railroad, was robbed of all the first-class mail matter it contained. The stolen package consisted of registered letters, and the supposition is that a large amount of money was secured by the thief. The bag had been cut open, the thief taking the package containing first-class matter only. This leads to the belief that the perpetrator of the robbery was some one connected with the postal service.

Moncton Light and Water.

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 25.

The Town Council at an adjourned meeting to-night, decided to advertise for tenders for electric light plant, arc and incandescent lights, tenders to be submitted to an electors meeting. The gas an water company has not yet made any reply to the offer of $90 per light and $50 per hydrant, made at the last electors meeting. There is talk of an injunction, and altogether the town seems to be getting into a bad mess.

Preeper Sentenced.

HALIFAX, Oct. 25.

William Preeper has been sentenced to hang January 15th next for the murder of Peter Doyle. The judge refused to suspend sentence, pending appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada.

News from Winnipeg.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.

Another injunction has been granted to restrain the much desired railway crossing in Manitoba. Matters are quiet, pending a legal decision.

Married, not Mated.

The following is taken from the Boston Herald's divorce court proceedings of Wednesday. Margaret Shea says that she was married to John M. Shea at Charlottetown, P. E. I., in 1883. One year later they came to Boston. John is a sailor, and while in port was cruel and abusive, so his wife and her witnesses said. She went to different places in her endeavors to avoid him. On one occasion he assulted her on the street and tore off her dress. John Shea, the husband, told a different story. He says that he lives on Prince street at the present time. He said he never struck or abused his wife or raised his hand against her, except in self-defence. He explained that the tearing of clothes, as sworn to by his wife, was simply the coming off in his hand of her bustle. John further charged his wife with having lived at No. 2 Concord place with a man named Stanley whom she had been passing off on him as her brother Joe. She had passed herself off on the other landlady as Mrs Gould, and had said that Stanley was Mr. Gould. he said that he called at the House, and she acknowledged her guilt, but agreed to go and live with him again at some other place if he would make no disturbance around the Concord place house. Records were introduced to prove that Shea was convicted for assault and battery on his wife March 30,1886, and sentenced to fine and imprisonment. An attempt was made by counsel for husband to set up a condonation of the alleged cruel and abusive treatment, because the parties had lived together since the date of ill treatment, as specified in the wife's libel. Judge Pitman took the case under consideration.
