LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Letter from Hon. D. Ferguson.

SIR,—Even if it were true that the late Rev. Mr. Frame ever used the severe and injurious language against any one attributed to him by the Reverend John M. McLeod in this day's Patriot, it is certain that he died at peace with all men, forgiving as he hoped to be forgiven; and it would be very unbecoming in any one, more especially in a brother minister, to reproduce bitter words, spoken in private, after the lips which uttered them were sealed in death. But it is impossible that Mr. Frame ever used such language regarding me. Our friendship was not interrupted for a day or an hour of the fifteen years during which we were acquainted. It was not in his nature to be false or abusive; and it is necessary to assume that he was both before credit can be given to the extraordinary statements of the Reverend John M. McLeod.

After giving what he describes as the Rev. Mr. Frame's estimate of me, but which smacks much more of the laboratory of his own mind than that of the late accomplished editor of the Guardian, he says: "Is it likely that one possessing such information about the honorable gentleman would make a confidant of him, and volunteer, as he asserts, information on this subject?" There can be only one answer to the question. If the rev. gentleman had the information he speaks of, he certainly would not make a confidant of me. But the converse holds equally good. If he had in possession of me, he could not have been in possession of the information of which he speaks. I have just to add that a week ago to-day, the rev. gentleman volunteered a private letter to me commencing with the words "My dear Mr. Ferguson."

If the Rev. John M. McLeod had been sufficiently straightforward to have embodied in his first letter to the Patriot the admission contained in his private letter to me of the same date, he would not have been under the necessity of writing a second letter to the press, and he would have avoided a discussion in which he has not won many laurels.

The reverend gentleman admits a conversation with a gentleman on the street in which he conveyed the impression that Judge Alley wrote the Guardian article. I am authorized to say that in a conversation with another gentleman, in a public office, he said, in plain terms that Judge Alley was the writer. He denies that the street conversation refers to the one he had with me near the front entrance to the Provincial Building (shortly after my return from Ottawa, in March, 1888. I wonder how many conversations will yet come to light in which Mr. McLeod told what he knew, or what he thought he knew, about the authorship of the Guardian's article! Judge Alley, no doubt, chuckles with delight over his success in having public attention diverted from his lobbying and partisanship to a dispute between the Rev. Mr. McLeod and myself. Mr. McLeod persists in regarding the whole question of Judge Alley's conduct, as resting on the authorship of the Guardian's article. The truth is, I referred to other articles, as well as that one, in my statement in the assembly; and whether Judge Alley wrote it or otherwise, does not affect the general accuracy of that statement.

I am, yours, &c.,
D. FERGUSON.

Sugar and Molasses.

(Montreal Gazette, 16th.)

The late advices from abroad continue strong and excited, and note a further advance on sugar of 1s to 2s per cwt., while some private cables say it is difficult to quote the prices on account of the great excitement in the market. The market for refined here has continued strong and excited, and a further advance of 3c has been scored on granulated, which is now quoted at 8 1/2c. The market for yellows has also been very strong, and prices have advanced 1/2c to 6c to 7c as to quality at the factory.

A London despatch of to-day says:—The sugar market here is extremely excited and prices have risen 2s.

Private advices from New York indicate a strong position in molasses, and state that "there is not a gallon here in bond, and not 200 hogsheads in jobber's hands, something that has not been seen before in an experience of 29 years in the trade."

Local and Other Items.

TO BE SOLD.—The Northern Light is to be sold.

CONCERT.—Carols, quartettes, choruses, etc., at the Methodist Concert Monday evening.

PROGRAMME.—See the attractive programme for the Upper Methodist Concert Monday evening.

If that lady at the lecture the other night only knew how nicely Hall's Hair Renewer would remove dandruff and improve the hair she would buy a bottle.

A GOOD IDEA.—The railway employees resident in Turo are making an effort to establish a co-operative store. It is proposed to fix the capital stock at $2,000, payable in $10 shares.

Scrofula is transmitted from parent to child, and thus becomes a family inheritance for generations. It is therefore, the duty of every scrofulous person to cleanse his blood by a thorough and persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

THE CABLE NOT INJURED.—THE EXAMINER was wrong in stating that an accident had happened to the telegraph cable. The accident was to the line between Cape Tormentine and Bay Verte. The line was at once repaired.

"After a varied experience with many so-called cathartic remedies, I am convinced that Ayer's Pills give the most satisfactory results. I rely exclusively on these Pills for the cure of liver and stomach complaints."—John B. Bell, Sr., Abilene, Texas.

HER NECK BROKEN.—Lieut. Towne, of Lowell, Mass., in charge of the Salvation Army, Newburg, N. Y., while selling the War Cry a few days ago, entered a grocery store on Broadway, a trap door leading to the cellar was open, and Miss Towne stepped in it, falling to the floor. She was picked up dead, having broken her neck.

BURGLARY AT SOURIS.—On Thursday night last, the drug store of Dr. E. P. Ford, at Souris, was broken into and $250 in cash and a quantity of razors and other articles stolen therefrom. An entrance was effected by means of a door in the rear of the building, which was forced open with a crowbar. There is no clue to the guilty persons.

AQUATIC.—A cablegram has been received from Harry Searle, of Australia, champion of the world, accepting the challenge of Wm. O'Connor, of Toronto, champion oarsman of America, to row a match in England for $5,000 a side. He specifies September as the time, and the London Sportsman as stake holder. O'Connor, who is in San Francisco, has accepted his challenge.

MILITARY IMPROVEMENTS.—It is expected that the Halifax military authorities will employ 300 men during the summer in the improvement of the York Redoubt. The amount the authorities propose expending on the improvements is placed at $140,000 sterling. Improvements are also to be made at McNabb's Island. A "Moncrieff" battery will, it is said, be erected there to take the place of the present one.

STEAMSHIP LINES AMALGAMATE.—A joint meeting of the Canada Atlantic Steamship Co., and the Boston, Halifax and P. E. Island Line was held last night. Mr. Gardner, managing director of the last named company, of Boston, was present. A general scheme of amalgamation was agreed upon, the minor details to be worked out at an early day. It is said that J. F. Phelan & Son will be the agents of the amalgamated company.—Hc. Mail.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. (April) '88

A NARROW ESCAPE.—The Halifax Herald reports that an I. C. R. carpenter named Alexander Macdonald had a narrow escape from being run over and killed by an inbound train a day or two ago. It appears that Macdonald was at work near Moir's mill, and having finished for the day, decided to catch a train that was moving rather slowly past the mills. He succeeded in catching hold of one of the steps of the car, but just as he was in the act of drawing himself up on the platform he lost his hold and fell. It was at first thought that he had been thrown under the cars. The conductor immediately stopped the train, but as luck happened the iron rail on the platform car, which Macdonald struck, prevented him from falling upon the rails, otherwise he would have been cut to pieces. As it was he was considerably bruised.

PARNELL'S LIBEL SUIT.—Mr. Parnell has engaged Sir Charles Russell, Asquith and Arthur Russell to conduct the libel suit brought by him against the London Times. The trial will take place in London in the autumn. The specific charges against the Times are that it published a fac simile of a letter dated April 1887, falsely ascribed to Parnell, and published other letters during the trial of the case of O'Donnell vs. Walter, among them being the Kilmalshin letter beginning: "Dear E." which the Times, subsequently to the trial, called genuine. Parnell will insist that the case be confined to the subject of the issue of the forgeries. All questions of a political nature will be excluded from consideration.

Her kind, obliging and genial disposition endeared her to all those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Her last words were words of consolation. She died blessing in the merits of her Redeemer. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side, and one day we tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Healthlight, Merrifield, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—J. J. Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—Mrs. E. Coburn, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.
