Born at Rideford, P.E.I., on Sept 20, 1878, daughter of Robina and Henry Folland, she went at the age of 17 to the United States, where she lived until her marriage to Arthur C. Gardiner on June 8th, 1908. They resided in Northam until 1916 when they moved to Lower Freetown. Her husband predeceased her in 1949.

The late Mrs. Gardiner was of an exceptionally kind, gentle and friendly disposition. She was loved by all who knew her, and as a neighbor, will be remembered with warm affection for her many fine qualities, and for her deep interest in her church and community.

For a number of years she suffered from ill health, but during that time her wonderful courage and devotion to her family's welfare never failed. She leaves to mourn her passing four sons: — John and Monte in Bedeque; Camden and Prowse on the homestead; two daughters, Mrs. Mae Arsenault of Summerside and Marjorie, Mrs. Jack Langlands of Penticton, B.C. also two sisters, Zella, Mrs. Frank MacIntyre, Waltham, Mass., and Annie, Mrs. Louis Gendreau of Maiden, Mass. There are seven grandchildren.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from the home, Lower Freetown, and was conducted by Rev. R. M. Shaw. Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Rock of Ages". Pallbearers were Russel MacCarville, Donald Bernard, Walter Bernard, Walter Reeves, Allison Proffit and Henry Reeves. Burial was in the people's cemetery, Freetown.
