—RECEIVES INJURY — Mr. Jimmie Inglis, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Inglis, Kensington, is making a good recovery from injuries, received in a motor accident, which occurred in the afternoon of Tuesday, Oct. 31. Jimmie and a friend, Charley Rogers, were returning from Summerside in a car owned jointly by the boys when a youth stepped into the roadway, to thumb a ride. At the same time a truck was bearing down on the car, and Charley, who was driving, had only time to pull into a lane, but no chance to avoid hitting a tree with disastrous results to the car and a severe shaking-up for the driver and two other passengers. Jimmie was less fortunate, and was taken to the Prince County Hospital, where five stitches were required to close a gash across his forehead. This, with other cuts and bruises, kept him in bed at his home for several days, but his many friends will be glad to know that he is now able to be out and feeling much better. All concerned are thankful that the driver although young and with comparatively brief experience in driving, was able to make the choice and carry it out with the second of time at his disposal, which probably saved the one or more lives which would have been lost had any one of the three, truck, car or pedestrian, been in direct collision.—Bur.

—There was very large congregations at all services of the United Church on Remembrance Sunday, Nov. 12th, conducted by the minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson. This morning service was in Bloomfield and the special soloist was Mr. Travers of the Presbyterian Church in Moncton, N. B., who sang very feelingly, "They Are Only Shadows." The first afternoon service was at Bras at 4 p.m. and the choir with Mrs. F. W. MacLeod as organist, had a special number. At West Devon at 3:30 p.m. the roll of the congregation who served in both wars was read by a veteran of World War II, a member of the congregation, Russell Boylan. In that congregation there are two men who are veterans of both wars, J. A. Glegg, who is a patient at present in the Veterans' Wing of the P. E. I. Hospital in Charlottetown, having entered the institution on Friday, Nov. 10th. His friends hope that he will soon feel much better. The other vet of both wars is Walter McKie, Sr. In the evening there was a very large turnout at the O'Leary Church and the choir under the leadership of Mrs. J. M. MacWilliam had special music.

There was an enjoyable banquet Saturday evening, a workshop presentation, a little frolic, singing, daily worship, fellowship, inspiration and an impressive Communion service, truly a marvellous week-end.

Congregations in Prince Edward Island seem to have a profound liking for Ministers who have served the pretty little Annapolis Valley town of Lawrenceville, five miles west of Middleton and 40 miles west of Kentville. In O'Leary the Baptist minister, Rev. C. O. Howlett has served for many years in Lawrenceville. In Lawrenceville, in Georgetown the Rev. S. J. Boyce of the United Church is a former minister at Lawrenceville and Rev. A. S. Adams who only left Montague United Church recently was also a former minister at Lawrenceville. On Sunday, Nov. 12th, Rev. W. A. Harper preached his first sermon at the Summerside Baptist Church which was broadcast over Summerside station. He came to the capital of Prince County after serving for nearly ten years at Lawrenceville Baptist Church where he has had a splendid ministry. He and Mrs. Harper and daughters Kay and Elizabeth are receiving welcome in Summerside and "The Island."
